Murray,2017-09-17 Excerpt from Memoirs of a Great Detective Incidents in the Life of John Wilson Murray IN a tangled swamp on a farm near Galt in the county of Waterloo Province of Ontario Canada in August 1897 searchers were hunting for the body of a farmer s wife She had disappeared and blood by the wood pile and near the house told Of a crime and the hiding of the body One of the party beating the swamp came upon a half dug grave He kept silence as to his discovery and when night fell he secreted himself in the thick brush near the grave and waited in the faint hope that the murderer would return and finish his task perchance bringing the body with him It was bright moonlight overhead In the thicket of the swamp all was gloom save for a broken filtering of pale light Where the underbrush and tall briar had been thinned out It was a lonely dismal place An owl s wailing and the swamp frog s croaking were the only sounds The hours passed Midnight came and went Not even a lizard appeared by the grave The watcher was about to creep closer and ease his limbs when a rustle sounded in the brush a noise like the Wind swishing a bush It ceased then came again then all was still Suddenly on the Side of the grave farthest from the watcher a figure crept swiftly out Of the thicket and stood erect About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
