The Rise and Decline and Rise of China MISTRA, 2015-05-10

The Rise and Decline and Rise of China Searching for an Organising Philosophy represents a new and promising approach to Africa-China relations. What is most impressive is that it is an encounter between African and Chinese thought but this encounter is not just a set of stale comparisons of philosophical beliefs. This study places the concepts and attitudes in both China and Africa in their socio-political contexts in an attempt to provide a sophisticated sensitive and usable history. This attempt yields dividends especially for the primary audience of Africans as it gives a way of learning from the vast history of Chinese experience without reducing African experience to insignificance or irrelevance as has happened so often in dialogues between Africa and the West. This book will be of interest to anyone from within Africa interested in engaging with China as a complex and nuanced place, a place of challenge, creativity and opportunity.

The Crosswinds of Freedom, 1932-1988 James MacGregor

Burns, 2012-04-10 A Pulitzer Prize winner's immensely readable history of the United States from FDR's election to the final days of the Cold War. Publishers Weekly: The Crosswinds of Freedom is an articulate and incisive examination of the United States during its rise to become the world's sole superpower. Here is a young democracy transformed by the Great Depression, the Second World War, the Cold War, the rapid pace of technological change and the distinct visions of nine presidents. Spanning fifty-six years and touching on many corners of the nation's complex cultural tapestry, Burns's work is a remarkable look at the forces that gave rise to the American Century.

The Political Portrait Luciano Cheles, Alessandro

Giacone, 2020-06-10 The leader's portrait produced in a variety of media: statues, coins, billboards, posters, stamps, is a key instrument of propaganda in totalitarian regimes but increasingly also dominates political communication in democratic countries as a result of the personalization and spectacularization of campaigning. Written by an international group of contributors, this volume focuses on the last one hundred years, covering a wide range of countries around the globe and dealing with dictatorial regimes and democratic systems alike. As well as discussing the effigies that are produced by the powers that be for propaganda purposes, it looks at the uses of portraiture by antagonistic groups or movements as forms of resistance, derision, denunciation and demonization. This volume will be of interest to researchers in visual studies, art history, media studies, cultural studies, politics and contemporary history.

Rise and Decline and Rise of China Ross

Anthony, Kevin Bloom, Daouda Cissé, Martyn Davies, Maxime Lauzon-Lacroix, Garth le Pere, Thaddeus Metz, Richard Poplak, Gauhar Raza, Yongjun Zhao, Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection (MISTRA), 2015-09-14 Running like a red thread through this book are the manifestations of Sino-African relations dating back many centuries. In this way The Rise and Decline and Rise of China Searching for an Organising Philosophy takes forward the work MISTRA conducted on the Mapungubwe society one of the advanced states that existed in southern Africa some 800 years ago What makes this research report unique though is that the treatment of these issues has been undertaken primarily from an African perspective
