be the same again A People Reborn Christian Keysser,1980-06-01 Written by a Lutheran missionary with 21 years of experience in New Guinea this book describes how a primitive tribe was transformed into a functioning Christian congregation The author brings together anthropology and biblical theology in providing insights into church growth and proposing an effective model of a people reborn Polygamy Sarah M. S. Pearsall,2022 For much of human history over much of the globe the most common alternative was polygamy marriage involving more than one spouse Polygamy or plural marriage has long been an accepted form of union in human societies involving people living on every continent In Polygamy A Very Short Introduction Sarah M S Pearsall explores what plural marriages reveal about the inner workings of marriage the controversies surrounding it in the LDS Mormon Church and how polygamous domestic and sexual relationships have influenced larger dynamics of power gender rank race and religion in societies all over the world Scriptomaniac BR Sunkara,2017-09-01 Mania is an uncontrollable obsession for certain things like phobias Acousticomania is phobia for noise Agriozoomania is phobia for wild animals Bibliomania is phobia for books Cinomania is phobia for dogs and rabies Lygomania is phobia for darkness Ornithomania is phobia for birds Paraskavedekatria mania is phobia for Friday the 13th Scriptomania is phobia for writing in public Female and Male in West Africa Christine Oppong,2023-03-31 In the 1970s and early 1980s there was a lack of contemporary readily available studies of the informal relationships between the sexes their day to day activities and expectations and how these were altering especially in contexts in which there were radical demographic political and economic changes taking place Originally published in 1983 this volume documents the complexities and subtleties of the modes of interaction between women and men in one region of Africa It seeks to provide insights and understanding of changing social contexts and relationships based upon ethnographic field work carried out in the previous decade There are five sections The first is comparative presenting and analysing statistical data from the countries of the region including demographic profiles of fertility migration mortality as well as census and survey evidence on work patterns and education It provides the broad framework within which the individual case studies are located The theme of the first set of case studies is the traditional separation and interconnectedness apparent in the worlds of women and men in several culture areas in the spheres of arts and crafts music political roles language symbolism ritual domestic organization and resources and sexuality The second set focuses on the theme of domestic cooperation and conflict in production and consumption in particular the conflicting claims and expectations of men and women as spouses and kin The third set of essays is concerned with the relative resources and opportunities of females and males in schools and employment contexts in sexual encounters and in national community and domestic decision making processes The subjects of the final section include individualism autonomy and dependence of the members of one sex upon the other The increased individualism resulting from migration and the scattering of kin and the breakdown of cooperative work patterns between spouses and relatives is seen as leading to instances of both increased dependence on the one hand especially of women on men and increased opportunities for economic autonomy on the other The case studies span a wide range of socio economic conditions including studies of farmers traders fishermen and fishmongers factory and office workers the relatively rich and the relatively poor from many different ethnic groups and six countries The book was expected to be of interest to a wide range of readers in social science disciplines as well as to planners and administrators It should still prove to be particularly relevant to the needs of university students in the fields of women s studies African studies Black studies sex roles family relations sociology and anthropology North American Indian Life Elsie Clews Parsons,2013-02-20 DIV27 fictionalized essays by noted anthropologists examine religion customs government additional facets of life among the Winnebago Crow Zuni Eskimo other tribes div Studying Speaking to Inform Second Language Learning Diana Boxer,Andrew D. Hitchcock's Motifs Michael Walker,2005 Among the abundant Alfred Hitchcock literature Hitchcock s Motifs has found a fresh angle Starting from recurring objects settings character types and events Michael Walker tracks some forty motifs themes and clusters across the whole of Hitchcock s oeuvre including not only all his 52 extant feature films but also representative episodes from his TV series Connections and deeper inflections that Hitchcock fans may have long sensed or suspected can now be seen for what they are an intricately spun web of cross references which gives this unique artist s work the depth consistency and resonance that justifies Hitchcock s place as probably the best know film director ever The title the first book length study of the subject can be used as a mini encyclopaedia of Hitchcock s motifs but the individual entries also give full attention to the wider social contexts hidden sources and the sometimes unconscious meanings present in the work and solidly linking it to its time and place Isuma Michael Robert Evans,2008-04-03 No detailed description
