The Ottoman Slave Trade And Its Suppression:

The Ottoman Slave Trade and Its Suppression Ehud R. Toledano, 2014-07-14 This book is a historical account of the slave trading system of the Ottoman Empire in the second half of the nineteenth century and of the attempts which were eventually successful to suppress it Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Economics of the Indian Ocean Slave Trade in the Nineteenth Century William Gervase Clarence-Smith, 2013-12-16 First Published in 1989 Well over a million slaves were exported from Indian Ocean and Red Sea ports in Eastern Africa during the nineteenth century and millions more were shifted around the interior of the continent and along the coast of East Africa And yet we still know remarkably little about this great movement of people particularly from an economic point of view This is a collection of twelve essays looking at the economics of the Indian Ocean and the Red Sea Slave trades of the nineteenth century

The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire George H. Junne, 2016-06-22 The Chief Black Eunuch appointed personally by the Sultan had both the ear of the leader of a vast Islamic Empire and held power over a network of spies and informers including eunuchs and slaves throughout Constantinople and beyond The story of these remarkable individuals who rose from difficult beginnings to become amongst the most powerful people in the Ottoman Empire is rarely told George Junne places their stories in the context of the wider history of African slavery and places them at the centre of Ottoman history The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire marks a new direction in the study of courtly politics and power in Constantinople

The Trans-Saharan Slave Trade John Wright, 2007-04-03 This compelling text sheds light on the important but under studied trans Saharan slave trade The author uncovers and surveys this the least noticed of the slave trades out of Africa which from the seventh to the twentieth centuries quietly delivered almost as many black Africans into foreign servitude as did the far busier but much briefer Atlantic and East African trades Illuminating for the first time a significant but ignored subject the book supports and widens current scholarly examination of Africans essential role in the enslavement of fellow Africans and their delivery to internal Atlantic or trans Saharan markets

The Anti-Slavery Project Joel Quirk, 2011-05-26 It is commonly assumed that slavery came to an end in the nineteenth century While slavery in the Americas officially ended in 1888 millions of slaves remained in bondage across Africa Asia and the Middle East well into the first half of the twentieth century Wherever laws against slavery were introduced governments found ways of continuing similar forms of coercion and exploitation such as forced bonded and indentured labor Every country in the world has now abolished slavery yet millions of people continue to find themselves subject to contemporary forms of slavery such as human trafficking wartime enslavement and the worst forms of child labor The Anti Slavery Project From the Slave Trade to Human Trafficking offers an innovative study in the attempt to understand and eradicate these ongoing human rights abuses In The Anti Slavery Project historian and human rights expert Joel Quirk examines the evolution of political opposition to slavery from the mid eighteenth century to the present day Beginning with the abolitionist movement in the British Empire Quirk analyzes the philosophical economic and cultural shifts that eventually resulted in the legal abolition of slavery By viewing the legal abolition of slavery as a cautious first step rather than the end of the story he demonstrates that modern anti slavery activism can be best understood as the latest phase in an evolving response to the historical shortcomings of earlier forms of political activism By exposing the historical and cultural roots of contemporary slavery The Anti Slavery Project presents an original diagnosis of the underlying causes driving one of the most pressing human rights problems in the world today It offers valuable insights for historians political scientists policy makers and activists seeking to combat slavery in all its forms Eastern

Troutt Powell, 2003-05-29 This incisive study adds a new dimension to discussions of Egypt's nationalist response to the phenomenon of colonialism as well as to discussions of colonialism and nationalism in general Eve M Troutt Powell challenges many accepted tenets of the binary relationship between European empires and non European colonies by examining the triangle of colonialism marked by Great Britain Egypt and the Sudan She demonstrates how central the issue of the Sudan was to Egyptian nationalism and highlights the deep ambivalence in Egyptian attitudes toward empire and the resulting ambiguities and paradoxes that were an essential component of the nationalist movement A Different Shade of Colonialism enriches our understanding of nineteenth and twentieth century Egyptian attitudes toward slavery and race and expands our perspective of the colonized colonizer Policing the Globe Peter Andreas, Ethan Nadelmann, 2008 A thought provoking analysis of the historical expansion and recent dramatic acceleration of international crime control Policing the

Slavery in Italian States, 1750–1850 Giulia Bonazza, 2018-12-13 This volume offers a pioneering study of slavery in the Italian states Documenting previously unstudied cases of slavery in six Italian cities Naples Caserta Rome Palermo Livorno and Genoa Giulia Bonazza investigates why slavery survived into the middle of the nineteenth century even as the abolitionist debate raged internationally and most states had abolished it She contextualizes these cases of residual slavery from 1750 1850 focusing on two juridical and political watersheds after the Napoleonic period when the Italian states with the exception of the Papal States adopted constitutions outlawing slavery and after the Congress of Vienna when diplomatic relations between the Italian states France and Great Britain intensified and slavery was condemned in terms that covered only the Atlantic slave trade By excavating the lives of men and women who remained in slavery after abolition this book sheds new light on the broader Mediterranean and transatlantic dimensions of slavery in the Italian states Uncoupling Language and Religion Laurent Mignon, 2021-05-18 This book is an invitation to rethink our understanding of Turkish literature as a tale of two others The first part of the book examines the contributions of non Muslim authors the others of modern Turkey to the development of Turkish literature during the late Ottoman and early republican period focusing on the works of largely forgotten authors The second part discusses Turkey as the other of the West and the way authors writing in Turkish challenged orientalist representations Thus this book prepares the ground for a history of literature which uncouples language and religion and recreates the spaces of dialogue and exchange that have existed in late Ottoman Turkey between members of various ethno religious communities A History of Slavery and Emancipation in Iran, 1800-1929 Behnaz A. Mirzai, 2017-05-16 The leading authority on slavery and the African diaspora in modern Iran presents the first history of slavery in this key Middle Eastern country and shows how slavery helped to shape the nation's unique character Beyond the Exotic Amira El-Azhary Sonbol, 2021-02-15 Most research has accepted stereotypical images of Muslim women treating their outward manifestations such as veiling as passive and oppressive Muslim women have been depicted as different and by exoticizing orientaling them or Islamic society in general they have been dealt with outside of general women's history and regarded as having little to contribute to the writing of world history or to the life of their sisters worldwide By approaching widely used sources with different questions and methodologies and by using new or little used material with much primary research this book redresses these deficiencies Scholars revisit and reevaluate scripture and scriptural interpretation church records involving non Muslim women of the Arab world archival court records dating from the present back to the Ottoman period and the oral and material culture and its written record including oral history textbooks sufi practices and the politics of dress By deconstructing the past these scholars offer fresh perspectives on women's roles and aspirations in Middle East societies Bitter Choices Michael Khodarkovsky, 2011-10-18 Russia's attempt to consolidate its authority in the North Caucasus has exerted a terrible price on both sides since the mid nineteenth century Michael Khodarkovsky tells a concise and compelling history of the mountainous region between the Black and Caspian seas during the centuries of Russia's long conquest 1500 1850s The history of the region unfolds against the background of one man's life story Sem n Atarshchikov 1807 1845 Torn between his Chechen identity and his duties as a lieutenant and translator in the Russian army Atarshchikov defected not once but twice to join the mountaineers against the invading Russian troops His was the experience more typical of Russia's empire building in the borderlands than the better known stories of the audacious kidnappers and valiant battles It is a history of the North Caucasus as seen from both sides of the conflict which continues to make this region Russia's most violent and vulnerable frontier Liberalism, Constitutional Nationalism, and Minorities Constantin Iordachi, 2019-06-17 Winner of the 2019 CEU Award for Outstanding Research This book documents the making of Romanian citizenship from 1750 to 1918 as a series of acts of national self determination by the Romanians as well as the emancipation of subordinated gender social and ethno religious groups It focuses on the progression of a sum of transnational questions that were at the heart of North Atlantic European and local politics during the long nineteenth century concerning the status of peasants women Greeks Jews Roma Armenians Muslims and Dobrudjans The analysis emphasizes the fusion between nationalism and liberalism and the emancipatory impact national liberalism had on the transition from the Old Regime to the modern order of the nation state While emphasizing liberalism's many achievements the study critically scrutinizes the liberal doctrine of legal political capacity and the dark side of nationalism marked by tendencies toward exclusion It highlights the challenges nascent liberal democracies face in the process of consolidation and the enduring appeal of illiberalism in periods of upheaval represented mainly by nativism The book's innovative interdisciplinary approach to citizenship in the Ottoman and post Ottoman Balkans and the richness of the sources employed appeal to a diverse readership Eurasian Slavery, Ransom and Abolition in World History, 1200-1860 Christoph Witzernath, 2016-03-09 Recent research has demonstrated that early modern slavery was much more widespread than the traditional concentration on plantation slavery in the context of European colonial expansion would suggest Slavery and slave trading though little researched were common across wide stretches of Eurasia and a slave economy played a vital part in the political and cultural contacts between Russia and its Eurasian neighbours This volume concentrates on captivity slavery ransom and abolition in the vicinity of the Eurasian steppe from the early modern period to recent developments and explores their legacy and relevance down to the modern times The contributions centre on the Russian Empire while bringing together scholars from various historical traditions of the leading states in this region including Poland Lithuania and the Ottoman Empire and their various successor states At the centre of attention are transfers transnational fertilizations and the institutions rituals and representations facilitating enslavement exchanges and ransoming The essays in this collection define and quantify slavery covering various regions in the steppe and its vicinity and looking at trans cultural issues and the implications of slavery and ransom for social economic and political connections across the steppe In so doing the volume provides both a broad overview of the subject and a snapshot of the latest research from leading scholars working in this
