Bowen,2020-11-10 In this rich account of a Muslim society in highland Sumatra Indonesia John Bowen describes how men and women debate among themselves ideas of what Islam is and should be as it pertains to all areas of their lives from work to worship Whereas many previous anthropological studies have concentrated on the purely local aspects of culture this book captures and analyzes the tension between the local and universal in everyday life Current religious differences among the Gayo stem from debates between traditionalist and modernist scholars that began in the 1930s and reveal themselves in the ways Gayo discuss and perform worship sacrifice healing and rites of birth and death all within an Islamic framework Bowen considers the power these debates accord to language especially in arguments over spells rites of farming hunting and healing Moreover he traces in these debates a general conception of transacting with spirits that has shaped Gayo practices of sacrifice worship and aiding the dead Bowen concludes by examining the development of competing religious ideas in the highlands the alternative ritual forms and ideas they have promulgated and the implications of this phenomenon for the emergence of an Islamic public sphere The New Astronomy and Laws of Nature, the Physical and Spiritual Universe

Maria M. King,1911 Spiritual Beings in the Heavenly Bodies and in the Kingdoms of Nature Rudolf Steiner,Christopher Bamford,2011-09-01 In the architecture of Rudolf Steiner's great cosmological temple this extraordinary course of lectures on spiritual beings forms the central pillar taking its place with other important texts such as the fourth chapter of An Outline of Esoteric Science CW 13 The Spiritual Hierarchies and the Physical World CW 136 and Inner Experiences of Evolution CW 132 These works outline a revolutionary angelological cosmology and lie at the heart of Steiner's mission to transform our understanding of the world by offering a new non dual phenomenological path to a contemporary divine spiritual physical cosmology that is angelological and theophanic Steiner's approach is contemporary in that being continuous with the most ancient understanding of the cosmos he also discovers it for himself through his own experience and consciousness and expresses it in his own words with a logic and language appropriate to our time Thus he teaches us his readers to do the same According to Rudolf Steiner the world is made up of beings This includes the very ground of the world itself the Father being His cosmology or angelology is personal and it is known in relationship Therefore he presents it in terms of conditions and acts of consciousness and in relation to the divine spiritual beings whose conditions and activities they are The spiritual world is always a world of beings The twin realizations go together that I am an I and that reality is comprised of other I beings Cosmology is angelology Spiritual beings define all experience of reality
