The Overseas Expansion Of Capital Past And Present:

The Overseas Expansion of Capital Andreï Andreevich Gromyko,1985 The United States, the Soviet Union and the Geopolitical Implications of the Origins of the Cold War Nicolas Lewkowicz,2018-10-30 The United States the Soviet Union and the Geopolitical Implications of the Origins of the Cold War 1945 1949 describes how the United States and the Soviet Union deployed their hard and soft power resources to create the basis for the institutionalization of the international order in the aftermath of World War Two The book argues that the origins of the Cold War should not be seen from the perspective of a magnified spectrum of conflict but should be regarded as a process by which the superpowers attempted to forge a normative framework capable of sustaining their geopolitical needs and interests in the post war scenario The United States the Soviet Union and the Geopolitical Implications of the Origins of the Cold War 1945 1949 examines how the use of ideology and the instrument of political intervention in the spheres of influence managed by the superpowers were conducive to the establishment of a stable international order It postulates that the element of conflict present in the early period of the Cold War served to demarcate the scope of manoeuvring available to each of the superpowers and studies the notion that the United States and the Soviet Union were primarily interested in establishing the conditions for the accomplishment of their vital geostrategic interests This required the implementation of social norms imposed in the respective spheres of influence a factor that provided certainty to the spectrum of interstate relations after the period of turmoil that culminated with the onset of World War Two The Past, Present and Future of International Business and Management Timothy Devinney,Torben Pedersen,Laszlo Tihanyi,2010-07-27 A volume that concentrates on the substantive gaps in the IB IM field and addresses whether these gaps are resolvable with the theoretical and methodological toolkit The Rise of International Capital Faris Al-Fadhat,2019-01-09 This book analyzes the social forces and political coalitions driving regional integration projects in Asia with a focus on ASEAN and Indonesian conglomerates It asks which social forces within the domestic political economy of Asian states are driving governments to seek regional arrangements for economic governance In particular the book asks how the emergence reorganization and expansion of capitalist class have conditioned political support for regional economic integration By addressing these issues the book emphasizes that the wellspring of regional economic institution projects stem from the process of capitalist development and the social forces it has unleashed The book s aims place the social and class relations that underpin regional projects rather than the institutions which result from them at the centre of the analysis of regional integration The research for this account draws primarily on primary documents from archival and field research conducted by the author including company documents and in depth interviews government reports and policies and trade publications and data sources which is supplemented with secondary sources where relevant Confronting Capital and Empire Viren Murthy,Fabian Schäfer,Max Ward,2017-07-10 Confronting Capital and Empire inquires into the relationship between philosophy politics and capitalism by rethinking Kyoto School philosophy in relation to history The Kyoto School was an influential group of Japanese philosophers loosely related to Kyoto Imperial University's philosophy department including such diverse thinkers as Nishida Kitaro Tanabe Hajime Nakai Masakazu and Tosaka Jun Confronting Capital and Empire presents a new perspective on the Kyoto School by bringing the school into dialogue with Marx and the underlying questions of Marxist theory The volume brings together essays that analyse Kyoto School thinkers through a Marxian and or critical theoretical perspective asking in what ways did Kyoto School thinkers engage with their historical moment What were the political possibilities immanent in their thought And how does Kyoto School philosophy speak to the pressing historical and political questions of our own moment
