What Remains, 2020-07-01 After the closure of Willard Psychiatric Center on New York's Seneca Lake in 1995 more than four hundred abandoned suitcases were discovered in its attic containing thousands of personal possessions belonging to former patients Three of the suitcases were owned by Charles F an eighty four year old Russian Jewish immigrant arrested at a Brooklyn subway station in 1946 and institutionalized at Willard State Hospital as it was then known An extraordinary collaboration between image and text What Remains pairs Jon Crispin's gripping photographs of Charles's belongings with Ilan Stavans's intriguing speculative portrait of a patient and institution at odds with one another Anxious isolated and senile Charles strikes an unexpected friendship with a young doctor whose empathy accompanies him through a sudden spiritual awakening As the narrative unfolds it becomes clear that Stavans himself an immigrant from Mexico whose family history is marked by bouts of mental illness approaches his character as a surrogate of his own personal journey Crispin's photographs of Charles's possessions including clothing household tools and Jewish ritual objects are haunting in their ability to compel the reader to imagine a distant man's life A moving blend of fact and fiction photography and prose What Remains reflects on questions of mental health spirituality and the Jewish immigrant experience in midcentury America

Mutual Impressions Ilan Stavans, 1999 It is commonly assumed that the United States and Latin America culturally so different move artistically to very different rhythms Also common is the assumption that with rare exception the literary figures on one side of the global North South divide have had little interest in the work of their counterparts With Mutual Impressions Ilan Stavans dispels these notions by showing how solid the bridges between writers and across borders have been at least since the early days of this century and how crucial they are likely to become as we enter the next millennium Divided into symmetrical halves South reading North and North reading South the book presents essays by leading novelists poets and other writers that focus on the work of another literary figure from across the divide Borges for example finds in Hawthorne the perfect precursor to his own interest in allegories Katherine Anne Porter examines José Joaquín Fernández de Lizardi as a rascal whose picaresque views of life in The Itching Parrot served to launch the Latin American novel Cortázar's study of the plots and style of Poe shows an affinity that left an indelible mark on the Argentine's short fiction Susan Sontag views Machado de Assis as the ultimate mirror a proto postmodernist With other essays by Thomas Pynchon William H Gass John Updike Gabriel Garc a M rquez Alejo Carpentier John Barth Robert Coover Pedro Henr quez Ure a Grace Paley Juan Carlos Onetti and Mark Strand among others Mutual Impressions offers a remarkable view of the connections that comprise a literary tradition of the Americas It is a book that will surprise and enliven its readers as it informs and awakens in them a sense of wonder Contributors John Barth Jos Bianco Robert Bly Jorge Luis Borges Alejo Carpentier Hiber Conteris Robert Coover Julio Cort zar Ezequiel Mart nez Estrada Waldo Frank Carlos Fuentes William H Gass Nicol s Guill n William Kennedy Mario Vargas Llosa Gabriel Garc a M rquez Jos Mart Pablo Neruda Victoria Ocampo Juan Carlos Onetti Grace Paley Octavio Paz Katherine Anne Porter Thomas Pynchon Kenneth Rexroth Antonio Ben tez Rojo Barbara Probst Solomon Susan Sontag Ilan Stavans Mark Strand John Updike Pedro Henr que Ure a Derek Walcott Paul West The Riddle of Cantinflas Ilan Stavans, 2012-12-01 Ilan Stavans's collection of essays on kitsch and high art in the Americas makes a return with thirteen new colorful conversations that deliver Stavans's trademark wit and provocative analysis A Dream Act Deferred discusses an issue that is at once and always topical in the dialogue of Hispanic popular culture immigration This essay generated a vociferous response when first published in The Chronicle of Higher Education as the issue of immigration was contested in states like Arizona and is included here as a new addition that adds a rich layer to Stavans's vibrant discourse Fitting in this reconfiguration of his analytical conversations on Hispanic popular culture is Stavans's Arrival Notes from an Interloper which recounts his origins as a social critic and provides the reader with interactive insight into the mind behind the matter Once again delightfully humorous and perceptive Stavans delivers an expanded collection that has the power to go even further beyond common assumptions and helps us understand Mexican popular culture and its counterparts in the United States The New Demons Simona Forti, 2023-05-25 The Italian philosopher and author of Totalitarianism rescues the concept of evil as an element necessary for guidance in political reflection Dialogue Canadian Philosophical Review As long as we care about suffering in the world says political philosopher Simona Forti we are compelled to inquire into the question of evil But is the concept of evil still useful in a postmodern landscape where absolute values have been leveled and relativized by a historicist perspective Given our current unwillingness to judge others what signposts remain to guide our ethical behavior Surveying the nineteenth and twentieth century Western philosophical debates on evil Forti concludes that it is time to leave behind what she calls the Dostoevsky paradigm the dualistic vision of an omnipotent monster pitted against absolute helpless victims No longer capable of grasping the normalization of evil in today's world whose structures of power have been transformed this paradigm has exhausted its explanatory force In its place Forti offers a different genealogy of the relationship between evil and power one that finally calls into question power's recurrent link to transgression At the center of contemporary evil she posits the passive attitude towards rule following the need for normalcy and the desire for obedience nurtured by our contemporary mass democracies In our times she contends evil must be explored in tandem with our stubborn desire to stay alive at all costs as much as with our deep need for recognition the new modern absolutes A courageous book The New Demons extends an original inspiring call to ethical living in a biopolitical age Tikkun Reader Michael Lerner, 2007 Tikkun teokun To heal repair and transform the world The Tikkun Reader is a collection of the best of Tikkun magazine from the past 20 years providing the most cohesive collection of writings that articulate the progressive left leaning religious perspective on the some of the most important issues in politics culture and society facing both Jews and non Jews today It includes contributions by such people as Naomi Wolf Arthur Green Harvey Cox Amitai Etzioni Daniel Berrigan Neale Donald Walsch Cornel West Vandana Shiva Dennis Kucinich Jim Wallis Deepak Chopra and Noam Chomsky

Reclaiming Travel Ilan Stavans, Joshua Ellison, 2015-05-09 Based on a controversial opinion piece originally published in the New York Times Reclaiming Travel is a provocative meditation on the meaning of travel from ancient times to the twenty first century Ilan Stavans and Joshua Ellison seek to understand why we travel and what has come to be missing from our contemporary understanding of travel Engaging with canonical and contemporary texts they explore the differences between travel and tourism the relationship between travel and memory the genre of travel writing and the power of mapmaking Stavans and Ellison call for a rethinking of the art of travel which they define as a transformative quest that gives us deeper access to ourselves Tourism Stavans and Ellison argue is inauthentic choreographed sterile shallow and rooted in colonialism They critique theme parks and kitsch tourism such as the shantytown hotels in South Africa where guests stay in shacks made of corrugated metal and cardboard yet have plenty of food water and space Tourists they assert are merely content with escapism thrill seeking or obsessively snapping photographs Resisting simple moralizing the authors also remind us that people don't divide neatly into crude categories like travelers and tourists They provoke us to reflect on the opportunities and perils in our own habits In this powerful manifesto Stavans and Ellison argue that travel should be an art through which our restlessness finds expression a search for meaning not only in our own lives but also in the lives of others It is not about the destination rather travel is about loss disorientation and discovering our place in the universe
