Hawkins,2019-08-05 Perhaps the most important difficult and unresolved issue in Shakespeare studies is the question of Lear s last lines the whole meaning of Shakespeare s greatest and most controversial tragedy depends upon it In the 1608 Quarto it is O o o o that zero to which the Fool compares Lear himself In the 1623 Folio the King s last words are Look on her Look her lips Look there look there No one but Lear sees what he points us to envision Is it epiphany or delusion Is Lear s tragedy nihilistic or redemptive In search of an answer Hawkins deploys a wide spectrum of critical approaches close scrutiny of the rival texts and comparison with the play s sources the unique double structure of Lear its symbols and imagery its visual and verbal scriptural allusions even its numerology The book enlists its readers in a quest for final meaning not unlike the movement of the play itself towards Dover and the extreme verge of its imagined cliff that high place where life borders upon death and earth meets sky and sea Being/s in Transit ,2021-11-22 This fifth volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the topics of travelling migration and dislocation All migrants are travellers but not all travellers are migrants Migration and the figure of the migrant have become key concepts in recent post colonial studies However migration is not such a new or exceptional phenomenon From the eighteenth century onward there have been migrations from Europe to what are now called post colonial countries and this prepared the ground for movement back to the old but also to the new centres of Europe and elsewhere Travel and travel experience on the other hand have been part of the cultural codes not only of the West and not only of imperialism The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at their dis locating effects They cover a wide range of topics from early seventeenth century travel reports through nineteenth century women s travel writing to such contemporary writers as Michael Ondaatje and Janette Turner Hospital
