The Painted House:

Revisiting the Painted House Graham Rust, 2005-10-05 From Athens to Gordion Keith DeVries, 1980-01-29 The nine papers in this volume presented by former colleagues and students of the late Rodney S Young are representative of Young's archaeological interests Athens where he received his archaeological training and Gordion where he achieved his greatest successes This book will prove valuable to students and scholars interested in the interconnections between Greece and Anatolia from the Bronze Age through classical times University Museum Papers 1 For Folk's Sake Erin Morton, 2016-11-01 Folk art emerged in twentieth century Nova Scotia not as an accident of history but in tandem with cultural policy developments that shaped art institutions across the province between 1967 and 1997 For Folk's Sake charts how woodcarvings and paintings by well known and obscure self taught makers and their connection to handwork local history and place fed the public's nostalgia for a simpler past The folk artists examined here range from the well known self taught painter Maud Lewis to the relatively anonymous woodcarvers Charles Atkinson Ralph Boutilier Collins Eisenhauer and Clarence Mooers These artists are connected by the ways in which their work fascinated those active in the contemporary Canadian art world at a time when modernism and the art market that once sustained it had reached a crisis As folk art entered the public collection of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and the private collections of professors at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design it evolved under the direction of collectors and curators who sought it out according to a particular modernist aesthetic language Morton engages national and transnational developments that helped to shape ideas about folk art to show how a conceptual category took material form Generously illustrated For Folk's Sake interrogates the emotive pull of folk art and reconstructs the relationships that emerged between relatively impoverished self taught artists a new brand of middle class collector and academically trained professors and curators in Nova Scotia's most important art institutions Etruria and Anatolia Elizabeth P. Baughan, Lisa C. Pieraccini, 2023-03-09 Explores trans Mediterranean connections between peoples cultures and artistic traditions traditionally marginalized by Graeco Roman bias The Painted House Graham Rust, 1988-01-01 The Prism of Grammar Tom Roeper, 2009-02-13 Exploring the creativity of mind through children's language how the tiniest utterances can illustrate the simple but abstract principles behind modern grammar and reveal the innate structures of the mind Every sentence we hear is instantly analyzed by an inner grammar just as a prism refracts a beam of light grammar divides a stream of sound linking diverse strings of information to different domains of mind memory vision emotions intentions In The Prism of Grammar Tom Roeper brings the abstract principles behind modern grammar to life by exploring the astonishing intricacies of child language Adult expressions provide endless puzzles for the child to solve The individual child's solutions Don't uncomfortable the cat is one example may amuse adults but they also reveal the complexity of language and the challenges of mastering it The tiniest utterances says Roeper reflect the whole mind and engage the child's free will and sense of dignity He offers numerous and novel explorations many at the cutting edge of current work that anyone can try even in conversation around the dinner table They elicit how the child confronts recursion the heartbeat of grammar through endless possessives John s mother s friend s car mysterious plurals contradictory adjectives the marvels of ellipsis and the deep obscurity of reference there it is right here They are not tests of skill they are tools for discovery and delight not diagnosis Each chapter on acquisition begins with a commonsense look at how structures work moving from the simple to the complex and then turns to the literary and human dimensions of grammar One important human dimension is the role of dialect in society and in the lives of children Roeper devotes three chapters to the structure of African American English and the challenge of responding to linguistic prejudice Written in a lively style accessible and gently provocative The Prism of Grammar is for parents and teachers as well as students for everyone who wants to understand how children gain and use language and anyone interested in the social philosophical and ethical implications of how we see the growing mind emerge

A Concordance to the Poems of W.B. Yeats Stephen Maxfield Parrish,2019-06-30 Now it is possible for the first time to trace in a systematic way the language patterns of one of the greatest poets who have written in English W B Yeats Like A Concordance to the Poems of Matthew Arnold the first of the Cornell Concordances that are under the general editorship of Professor Parrish this volume was produced on an IBM 704 electronic data processing machine Computer technique has so advanced that the Yeats concordance includes punctuation and gives cross references for the second parts of hyphenated words The frequency of every word in Yeats s poems is given and an appendix lists all indexed words in order of frequency The body of this book consists of an index of all significant words in Yeats each word listed in the line or lines in which it occurs The concordance is based on the variorum text of Yeats edited by Alspach and Allt and includes all variants that occur in printed versions of Yeats s poems

A Social and Cultural History of the Hellenistic World Gillian Ramsey Neugebauer,2025-01-22 Explore the detailed and personal stories of real people living throughout the Hellenistic world In A Social and Cultural History of the Hellenistic World author Gillian Ramsey Neugebauer paints a vivid picture of the men and women of the Hellenistic period their communities and their experiences of life Assuming only minimal knowledge of classical antiquity this clear and engaging textbook brings to life the real people who lived in the Mediterranean region the Balkans around the Black Sea across North Africa and the Near East Rather than focusing on the elites royals and other significant figures of the period the author draws from a wide range of ancient evidence to explore everyday Hellenistic people in their own context Reader friendly chapters offer fresh perspectives on well studied areas of ancient Greek culture while providing new insights into rarely discussed aspects of day to day life in the Hellenistic world Topics include daily technology food clothing housing travel working life slavery education temple economies and more Containing numerous references further readings photographs and figures A Social and Cultural History of the Hellenistic World is an excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Ancient History or Classical Studies programs particularly those dedicated to Hellenistic history

The Three Leaps of Wang Lun Alfred

Doblin, 2015-01-13 In 1915 fourteen years before Berlin Alexanderplatz Alfred Döblin published his first novel an extensively researched Chinese historical extravaganza The Three Leaps of Wang Lun Even more remarkably given its subject matter the book was written in Expressionist style and is now considered the first modern German novel as well as the first Western novel to depict a China untouched by the West It is virtually unknown in English Based on actual accounts of a doomed rebellion during the reign of Emperor Qianlong in the late 18th century the novel tells the story of Wang Lun a historical martial arts master and charismatic leader of the White Lotus sect who leads a futile revolt of the Truly Powerless Densely packed cities and Tibetan wastes political intrigue and religious yearning imperial court life and the fate of wandering outcasts are depicted in a language of enormous vigor and matchless imagination unfolding the theme of timidity against force and a mystical sense of the world against the realities of power The Quarterly of the Department of Antiquities in Palestine Palestine. Department of Antiquities, 1938
