Unfabling the East Jürgen Osterhammel, 2019-11-19 During the long eighteenth century Europe's travelers scholars and intellectuals looked to Asia in a spirit of puzzlement irony and openness In this panoramic and colorful book Jürgen Osterhammel tells the story of the European Enlightenment's nuanced encounter with the great civilizations of the East from the Ottoman Empire and India to China and Japan Here is the acclaimed book that challenges the notion that Europe's formative engagement with the non-European world was invariably marred by an imperial gaze and presumptions of Western superiority Osterhammel shows how major figures such as Leibniz Voltaire Gibbon and Hegel took a keen interest in Asian culture and history and introduces lesser known scientific travelers colonial administrators Jesuit missionaries and adventurers who returned home from Asia bearing manuscripts in many exotic languages huge collections of ethnographic data and stories that sometimes defied belief Osterhammel brings the sights and sounds of this tumultuous age vividly to life from the salons of Paris and the lecture halls of Edinburgh to the deserts of Arabia the steppes of Siberia and the sumptuous courts of Asian princes He demonstrates how Europe discovered its own identity anew by measuring itself against its more senior continent and how it was only toward the end of this period that cruder forms of Eurocentrism and condescension toward Asia prevailed English Travel Writing From Pilgrimages To Postcolonial Explorations NA NA,2019-06-12 Travel writing has gained new appeal and writers from the British Isles have been particularly productive and successful in this genre This volume provides a concise introduction to the basic characteristics and historical development of travel writing as it has emerged in the British Isles from the Middle Ages to the present day Examples considered include many classics such as Defoe Sterne and Smollett Isabella Bird and Mary Kingsley Chatwin and Raban and also lesser known representatives Types of travel writing discussed include pilgrims itineraries exploration writing tourist accounts as well as postmodern varieties The Lives of Images Peter Mason,2001 Examines the history of European representations of non European peoples The Oxford History of the British Empire: Historiography Robin W. Winks,1999 This volume investigates the shape and the development of scholarly and popular opinion about the British Empire over the centuries The Artificial Empire Giles Henry Rupert Tillotson,2000 This book discusses the role of the visual arts in the assertion of European colonial power examining the representation of Indian scenery and architecture by British artists in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Imperial Boredom Jeffrey A. Auerbach,2018 Imperial Boredom offers a radical reconsideration of the British Empire during its heyday in the nineteenth century Challenging the long established view that the empire was about adventure and excitement with heroic men and intrepid women eagerly spreading commerce and civilization around the globe this thoroughly researched engagingly written and lavishly illustrated account suggests instead that boredom was central to the experience of empire Combining individual stories of pain and perseverance with broader analysis Professor Auerbach considers what it was actually like to sail to Australia to serve as a soldier in South Africa or to accompany a colonial official to the hill stations of India He reveals that for numerous men and women from explorers to governors tourists to settlers the Victorian Empire was dull and disappointing Drawing on diaries letters memoirs and travelogues Imperial Boredom demonstrates that all across the empire men and women found the landscapes monotonous the physical and psychological distance from home debilitating the routines of everyday life wearisome and their work tedious and unfulfilling The empire s early years may have been about wonder and marvel but the Victorian Empire was a far less exciting project Many books about the British Empire focus on what happened this book concentrates on how people felt
