The Pale Cast Of Thought Hesitation And Decision In The Renaissance Epic:

The Pale Cast of Thought James Lawrence Shulman, 1998 This book focuses on specific moments of decision making in the epic poems of Ariosto Tasso Spenser and Milton In each of the poems the hero must ultimately confront the choice of Aeneas at the end of the Aeneid either to kill or to stay his hand These later epic poems contain reflective heroes who resist the impulses of traditional martial heroism As they deliberate the progress of the narrative is suspended and elements of comedy lyric picaresque and romance threaten to fragment authority of the epic genre Each of these moments reveals a particularly rich locus for observing the movement of the epic toward the novel

Romantic Poetry Angela Esterhammer, 2002-06-04 Romantic Poetry encompasses twenty seven new essays by prominent scholars on the influences and interrelations among Romantic movements throughout Europe and the Americas It provides an expansive overview of eighteenth and nineteenth century poetry in the European languages The essays take account of interrelated currents in American Argentinian Brazilian Bulgarian Canadian Caribbean Chilean Colombian Croatian Czech Danish English Estonian Finnish French German Greek Hungarian Irish Italian Mexican Norwegian Peruvian Polish Romanian Russian Serbian Slovak Spanish Swedish and Uruguayan literature Contributors adopt different models for comparative study tracing a theme or motif through several literatures developing innovative models of transnational influence studying the role of Romantic poetry in socio political developments or focusing on an issue that appears most prominently in one national literature yet is illuminated by the international context This collaborative volume provides an invaluable resource for students of comparative literature and Romanticism SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including

Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

Giving Well Patricia Illingworth, Thomas Pogge, Leif Wenar, 2011-01-14 So long as large segments of humanity are suffering chronic poverty and are dying from treatable diseases organized giving can save or enhance millions of lives With the law providing little guidance ethics has a crucial role to play in ensuring that the philanthropic practices of individuals foundations NGOs governments and international agencies are morally sound and effective In Giving Well The Ethics of Philanthropy an accomplished trio of editors bring together an international group of distinguished philosophers social scientists lawyers and practitioners to identify and address the most urgent moral questions arising today in the practice of philanthropy The topics discussed include the psychology of giving the reasons for and against a duty to give the accountability of NGOs and foundations the questionable marketing practices of some NGOs the moral priorities that should inform NGO decisions about how to target and design their projects the good and bad effects of aid and the charitable tax deduction along with the water's edge policy now limiting its reach This ground breaking volume can help bring our practice of charity closer to meeting the vital needs of the millions worldwide who depend on voluntary contributions for their very lives

Hesitant Heroes Theodore Ziolkowski, 2018-05-31 Why Theodore Ziolkowski wonders does Western literature abound with figures who experience a crucial moment of uncertainty in their actions In this highly original and engaging work he explores the significance of these unlikely heroes for literature and history From Aeneas who wavered momentarily before plunging his sword into Turnus's chest to Hamlet Orestes Parzival Wallenstein and others including Kafka's Josef K Ziolkowski demonstrates that characters' private uncertainty reveals a classic opposition of binary forces He describes how Aeneas for example was forced to choose between the ancient code of blood vengeance and the new civic virtues of law and justice Ziolkowski asserts that the indecision of the characters reflects the tensions that authors observed in their own societies Drawing on the insights of Hegel and Freud he analyzes the ways in which these tensions represent turning points in cultural history In stark contrast to Aeneas Josef K temporized for a year before his executioners thrust a knife into his heart For Ziolkowski the centuries separating Virgil and Kafka are ones in which the notion of the hero was transformed almost to the point of total inversion He sheds light on this transformation and a corresponding change in literary form The Art of Uncertainty Daniel Williams,2024-03-07 Daniel Williams shows how in a profoundly numerical age Victorian novels imagined thought and action in the face of uncertainty American Book Publishing Record ,1998
