Prince's Multifaceted Wife Mu Yao,2019-12-25 His three good friends had traveled all the way to the ancient times and used his Director to avenge their people In order to solve the case she had met Long Aotian for the first time Binger had kidnapped him threatened him and tied Long Aotian s heart onto her From then on the two of them became entangled with each other due to various cases The Prince's Safari Temptation Nina Singh,2023-09-26 Escape to Africa on safari with a prince his childhood friend and their off limits attraction Find out what happens in Nina Singh s latest Harlequin Romance A royal tour A real enticement When Crown Prince Dante is unexpectedly thrown together on a royal tour in southern Africa with childhood friend Sierra unanticipated sparks ignite while they re on safari At the risk of ruining their friendship Dante knows he cannot reveal how he really feels But with Sierra dazzling everyone she meets Dante soon realizes she could be the perfect royal consort Will they risk it all and finally give into their temptation From Harlequin Romance Be swept away by glamorous and heartfelt love stories Metaphors We Teach By Ken Badley,Harro Walter Van Brummelen,2012-06-01 Metaphors We Teach By helps teachers reflect on how the metaphors they use to think about education shape what happens in their classrooms and in their schools Teaching and learning will differ in classrooms whose teachers think of students as plants to be nurtured from those who consider them as clay to be molded Students will be assessed differently if teachers think of assessment as a blessing and as justice instead of as measurement This volume examines dozens of such metaphors related to teaching and teachers learning and learners curriculum assessment gender and matters of spirituality and faith

The book challenges teachers to embrace metaphors that fit their worldview and will improve teaching and learning in their classrooms Reclaiming Early Childhood Literacies Richard J Meyer, Kathryn F. Whitmore, 2016-09-01 At a time when literacy has become more of a political issue than a research or pedagogical one this volume refocuses attention on work with young children that places them at the center of their literacy worlds Drawing on robust and growing knowledge which is often marginalized because of political and legislative forces it explores young children s literacies as inclusive redefined and broadened encompassing technologies the arts multiple modalities and teaching and learning for democracy cultural sustainability and social justice Highlighted themes include children s rights to grow through playful engagements with multiple literacies to interrogate their worlds adults who expand and inspire children s consciousness and awareness of others and the world around them the centrality of meaning making in all aspects of language and literacy development a deep respect for diversities including languages cultures sexual orientation socioeconomic status and more and an expansive understanding of the nature of texts Inside Stories Judy Robertson, Lisa Gjedde, Ruth Aylett, 2008-08-01 Five travellers meet on a train a teacher a technologist an educational researcher and two children As they travel across the continent towards the Future of Learning conference they exchange their stories This book explores the ways in which new technology can support storytelling skills in learners Written in the form of discussions between teachers learners and researchers it is an accessible introduction to issues in educational storytelling and technology This is the perfect introduction to the possibilities of narrative learning I warmly recommend Inside Stories A Narrative Journey to creative educators of every variety Dr Donald Smith Director of the Scottish Storytelling Centre Scheming Prince's Rampant Again Bei LiangGe, 2020-07-17 A betrayal and a sneak attack Thirteen years in a deep slumber A golden killer who was carrying a desire for revenge had reappeared in the human world Withdrawal of the marriage He wouldn t lose anything A duel He definitely wouldn t be at a disadvantage A conspiracy He could deal with it freely Wearing red makeup to fight the Son of Heaven fresh clothes and anger horse play the dukes proud bone leading change However there seemed to be some changes as well Whoever marries you their ancestors will knock on their coffins and smoke will rise from their graves Then why are you so thick skinned as to come and propose every day Who asked me to be kind and merciful Let me bear the hardships of marrying you for the rest of the world Come who s going to drag this shameless Hei Zhi away A Multimodal Approach to Challenging Gender Stereotypes in Children's Picture Books A. Jesús Moya-Guijarro, Eija Ventola, 2021-11-09 This collection offers a thorough treatment of the ways in which the verbal and visual semiotic modes interrelate toward promoting gender equality and social inclusion in children s picture books Drawing on cutting edge theoretical work in multimodality including multimodal cognitive linguistics multimodal discourse analysis and visual social semiotics the book expands on descriptive oriented studies to offer a more linguistically driven perspective on children s picture books The volume explores the choice afforded to and the lexico semantic and discursive strategies employed by writers and illustrators in conveying representational interpersonal and textual meanings in the verbal and non verbal components in these narratives in order to challenge gender stereotypes and promote the social inclusion of same sex parent families This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality discourse analysis social semiotics and children s literature Chapters 1 8 and 9 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> Narrative Medicine Lewis Mehl-Madrona, 2007-06-11 Seeks to restore the pivotal role of the patient s own story in the healing process Shows how conventional medicine tends to ignore the account of the patient Presents case histories where disease is addressed and healed through the narrative process Proposes a reinvention of medicine to include the indigenous healing methods that for thousands of years have drawn their effectiveness from telling and listening Modern medicine with its high tech and managed care approach has eliminated much of what constitutes the art of healing those elements of doctoring that go beyond the medications prescribed The typically brief office visit leaves little time for doctors to listen to their patients though it is in these narratives that disease is both revealed and perpetuated and can be released and treated Lewis Mehl Madrona s Narrative Medicine examines the foundations of the indigenous use of story as a healing modality Citing numerous case histories that demonstrate the profound power of narrative in healing the author shows how when we learn to dialogue with disease we come to understand the power of the story we tell about our illness and our possibilities for better health He shows how this approach also includes examining our relationships to our extended community to find any underlying disharmony that may need healing Mehl Madrona points the way to a new model of medicine a health care system that draws its effectiveness from listening to the healing wisdom of the past and also to the present day voices of its patients

Cross-Cultural Women Scholars in Academe Lorri J. Santamaría, Gaëtane Jean-Marie, Cosette M. Grant, 2014-06-27 This ground breaking collection features the diverse voices experiences and scholarship of cross cultural women of American Indian Asian American Black African American and Hispanic descent at various levels of academe actively engaged in the advancement of marginalized groups in the U S and abroad through their scholarly work Intergenerational cross cultural scholars manifest a literary community that models ways in which women scholars can move beyond traditional institutional psychological and professional barriers to practice activism break unwritten rules and shatter status quo business as usual practices in the academy This distinctive volume exemplifies the phenomenon of cross cultural women scholars conducting research and writing about ways in which they negotiate their professional realities toward professional goal attainment Each chapter presents rigorous ethnographic research complemented by critical analyses reflecting ways in which these self determined scholars transcend barriers associated with the dynamic intersections of race gender ethnicity class and language in higher education Scholars share strategies for institutional psychological and professional barrier transcendence through various approaches such as educational leadership for equity the practice of cross cultural competence various mentoring interactions and the creation of and participation in networking groups with other women of color in academe. Students, academics, educational practitioners, and individuals seeking exemplars for ethnographic research will find this critical book essential as a means for better informing their scholarship. Start Seeing Diversity Ellen Wolpert, 2005-06-13. Start Seeing Diversity helps teachers recognize and reduce bias in young children by illustrating one community's effort to create a responsive child care program. Developed by teachers at Washington Beech Community Preschool in Boston, this training handbook provides a framework for understanding bias among preschool children reorganized for stand-alone use as a student text. Nine detailed chapters treat six areas of bias: gender, age, sexual orientation, race, and ethnicity, economic class, and physical abilities, as well as the goals and guiding assumptions of anti-bias curriculum. Accompanying discussion questions encourage readers to examine their own memories and experiences. Perfect for pre-service and in-service teacher training, this helpful guide includes information-rich appendices containing Guidelines for challenging oppression and responding to incidents involving bias, A checklist for creating and assessing anti-bias environments, A guide to analyzing children's books, Directions for making photograph games like the ones used at Washington Beech. The book also includes sample scenarios, details for classroom implementation, suggested resources, and guidelines for group leaders. Ellen Wolpert is the founding director of the Washington Beech Community Preschool in Boston. Ms. Wolpert currently works for Education Development Center, Inc. in Newton, Massachusetts.
