The Paradise Connection:

The Paradise Connection William Starr Moake, 2000-04 Dex Hamilton is a burned out former newspaper reporter who lives alone in the Hawaiian rainforest and plays at being a private investigator to keep himself in beer After receiving a cryptic letter he stumbles across a billion dollar resort swindle involving his ex wife and her new husband a ruthless developer with a Tahitian bodyguard as big as a house The first casualty of this dangerous game is his best friend Juanito As the bodies start to pile up Hamilton has to learn how to become a real PI if he wants to survive and unravel the twisted links of The Paradise Connection Renal Denervation Richard R. Heuser, Markus Schlaich, Horst Sievert, 2014-11-11

Hypertension remains the leading cause of cardiovascular morbidity and mortality in spite of current medical therapies It has been estimated that 50% of Western civilization has hypertension and approximately 20% of patients have resistant hypertension Renal denervation RDN is a minimally invasive endovascular catheter based procedure using radiofrequency ablation aimed at treating resistant hypertension Early studies show a high degree of effectiveness in renal denervation to treat hypertension This book examines renal pathophysiology and the rationale for renal denervation as well as possible long term benefits and risks of this new therapy The myriad of devices involved in the evolution of this therapy are discussed and the book concludes with analyses of the cost effectiveness and future applications Permanent Liminality and Modernity

Arpad Szakolczai, 2016-10-04 This book offers a comprehensive sociological study of the nature and dynamics of the modern world through the use of a series of anthropological concepts including the trickster schismogenesis imitation and liminality Developing the view that with the theatre playing a central role the modern world is conditioned as much by cultural processes as it is by economic technological or scientific ones the author contends the world is to a considerable extent theatrical a phenomenon experienced as inauthenticity or a loss of direction and meaning As such the novel is revealed as a means for studying our theatricalised reality not simply because novels can be understood to be likening the world to theatre but because they effectively capture and present the reality of a world that has been thoroughly theatricalised and they do so more effectively than the main instruments usually employed to analyse reality philosophy and sociology With analyses of some of the most important novelists and novels of modern culture including Rilke Hofmannsthal Kafka Mann Blixen Broch and Bulgakov and focusing on fin de siècle Vienna as a crucial threshold chronotope of modernity Permanent Liminality and Modernity demonstrates that all seek to investigate and unmask the theatricalisation of modern life with its progressive loss of meaning and our deteriorating capacity to distinguish between what is meaningful and what is artificial Drawing on the work of Nietzsche Bakhtin and Girard to examine the ways in which novels explore the reduction of human existence to a state of permanent liminality in the form of a sacrificial carnival this book will appeal to scholars of social anthropological and literary theory Milton: A Journey Through His Works Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-20 In the vast realm of English

Lee, 2021-11-18 In contrast to scholarly belief that the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews envisions the transcendent heavenly world as the eschatological inheritance of God's people Jihye Lee argues that a version of an Urzeit Endzeit eschatological framework as observed in some Jewish apocalyptic texts provides a plausible background against which the arguments of Hebrews are most comprehensively explained Instead of transcendence to the heavenly world that will come after the destruction of the shakable creation Lee suggests the possibility of a more dualistic new world By first defining Urzeit Endzeit eschatology Lee is then able to explore its place in both pre and post 70 CE Second Temple Judaism In examining Enoch the Qumran Texts Jubilees the Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch and finally the Book of Revelation Lee compares a multitude of eschatological visions and the different depictions of the transformation of the world judgement and the new world to come Bringing these texts together to analyse the issue of God's Rest in Hebrews and the nature of the Unshakable Kingdom Lee concludes that Hebrews envisions the kingdom as consisting of both the revealed heavenly world and the renewed creation as the eschatological venue of God's dwelling place with his people The Big
