Dora Greenwell,1860      The Spirit of Hope Jürgen Moltmann,2020-01-01 Famous theologian Jrgen Moltmann returns here to the theme that he so powerfully addressed in his groundbreaking work Theology of Hope In the twenty first century he tells us hope is challenged by ideologies and global trends that would deny hope and even life itself Terrorist violence social and economic inequality and most especially the looming crisis of climate change all contribute to a cultural moment of profound despair Moltmann reminds us that Christian faith has much to say in response to a despairing world In the eternal yes of the living God we affirm the goodness and ongoing purpose of our fragile humanity Likewise Gods love empowers us to love life and resist a culture of death The books two sections equally promote these affirmations yet in different ways The first section looks at the challenges to hope in our current world most especially the environmental crisis It argues that Christian faithand indeed all the worlds religionsmust orient themselves toward the wholeness of the human family and the physical environment necessary to that wholeness The second section draws on resources from the early church the Reformation and the contemporary theological conversation to undergird efforts to address the deficit of hope he describes in the first section      The Patience of Hope Spiros Zodhiates,1960      The Seasons of Hope Ray S. Anderson,2008-02-01 Life contains a rhythm when we see it from beginning to end Our personal existence is not a series of individual episodes taking place as points in time Rather life itself bears us along in a common pilgrimage At any given time we are part of a community where birth and death joy and sorrow pain and pleasure as well as sowing and harvesting are taking place This communal sharing of life replicates all the seasons of life For each time in our lives there is a corresponding season in the life of the human family We empower faith by practicing hope every day of our lives      Patience of Hope Arthur,1996 Paul s epistles to the Thessalonians were written to a young church and one that was facing persecution Yet in the midst of their difficulties these new converts were noted for their work of faith labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ In his first epistle we have a priceless opportunity to look into the heart of Paul himself and discover the burning passion for Christ and his gospel which made him the man that he was Both the apostle himself and the believers at Thessalonica set us an example in evangelism and their concern to bring others to faith in Christ Paul s instructions to these new converts on the practical implications of holiness and how to live an orderly life that was pleasing to God and would not bring the gospel into disrepute have much to say to people brought to Christ today from a background of religious pluralism and a moral climate where anything goes In these two epistles we also find two of the clearest statements in the whole New Testament about the Second Coming of Christ and the end of the age We too can find encouragement in the face of present difficulties as like the Thessalonians we in our day seek to serve the living and true God and to wait for his Son from heaven
