The Peacock And The Phoenix Poems 1963 1971 Designs And Text 1970 1975:

Spiritual Dimensions of Pastoral Care John Swinton, David Willows, 2001-10-01 Written by significant researchers and practitioners within the field this unique collection of key texts introduces the reader to practical theology It critically explores the way in which the spiritual dimension of pastoral care has entered into constructive dialogue with other disciplines and ways of thinking Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977

The Wounded Healer: The Pain and Joy of Caregiving Omar Reda, 2022-03-15 Finding meaning in trauma work as a traumatized healer yourself The act of caregiving is physically exhausting and emotionally draining yet caregivers describe it as rewarding and gratifying Prolonged exposure to human suffering however is not without risks caregivers report high rates of burnout and poor quality of life Many care providers believe that their feelings do not matter that they should ignore their pain brush off their trauma wipe away their tears and just suck it up Here Omar Reda a Libyan born American psychiatrist who as an emergency physician and trauma counselor provided care for medical staff caring for victims of trauma calls upon other healers to break free from cycles of secrecy toxic stress and silent suffering so they can continue to empower and inspire those in their care Filled with poignant first person stories and clinical case studies this book is an impassioned plea for psychosocial trauma care that prioritizes the health of both client and healer Rethinking Pain in Person-Centred Health Care Stephen Buetow, 2020-12-30 This book explores how person centred health care could be refined to help persons alleviate pain related distress and construct pain as a potentially positive experience Rethinking Pain in Person Centred Health Care is a fascinating contribution to the multidisciplinary literature on person centred health care pain and ethics Traditionally Western intellectual culture has downplayed the intuitive and emotional promoting instead rational natural scientific perspectives Applied to pain an instrumental approach promotes the immediate and effective relief of pain due to the widespread suffering and expense it can cause However different persons experience pain in different ways and Buetow moves beyond a commitment to eliminate pain to exploring how benefits of pain could include creating and managing meaning from pain Rather than always looking to put pain behind them persons may flourish by moving around pain through pain into pain and above pain Buetow argues that this model depends on adopting a person centred approach to health care focusing less on the condition of pain and more on mobilizing the persons who present with and manage pain This book will be of interest to professionals and academics researchers in the fields of psychology and psychiatry who have a special interest in people with persistent pain conditions It will also be an invaluable resource for physiotherapists chronic pain consultants in secondary care and GPs Refugees, Refuge, and Human Displacement Ignacio López-Calvo, Marjorie Agosin, 2022-11-01 Every American is a descendant of either a Native American and enslaved person an immigrant or a refugee This book is devoted to the fourth category The essays in this volume will study the concept of refuge as well as historical forced displacement and statelessness trying to provide potential lasting solutions to the many problems associated with this situation This volume is not only timely but expansive as it moves from the pressing crisis of refugees to the crisis of humanity that seeks to find refuge From refugees to asylum seekers from climate change to war from historical uprootedness and displacement to today s crisis of refugeeism these topics are mobilizing humanities scholars to think about refugees with a new sense of urgency This book demonstrates how interdisciplinary cultural approaches grounded in the humanities can transform refugee conversations so often dominated by political science economics and other disciplines In doing so the collection sets up far more inclusive refugee discussions and urges humanities thinkers to respond by taking the lead in the face of environmental and sociopolitical uncertainties
