Hendricks, 2024-11-15 How do towns come into existence What circumstances determine whether they succeed or fail In The Colonial Towns of Piedmont North Carolina author Christopher E Hendricks looks at one region in eighteenth century America to explore answers to these questions He examines the establishment and development of eleven towns in the Piedmont classifying them into three types county towns formed by the establishment of government institutions such as a courthouse trade towns formed around commercial opportunities and religious towns such as the three towns developed in Wachovia a region where Moravians settled He uses these classifications to tell the stories of how these towns came into being and how in their development they struggled against economic cultural and political challenges Ultimately The Colonial Towns of Piedmont North Carolina deepens our understanding of the influence that American towns had on the settlement of the backcountry Hendricks tells the poignant story of the Moravians struggle to maintain their neutral stance during the Revolutionary War surviving exploitation and brutality from both the Continental Army and the British The author also integrates the history of Native Americans into this mix of competing forces and shows how they were challenged by and resisted the newcomers He emphasizes the role of individual initiative as well as the impetus of government specifically courthouses in establishing towns By utilizing a variety of rarely examined primary sources methodological approaches ranging from geographic theory to material culture studies and a deep examination of local history Hendricks provides a comprehensive analysis of the emergence of these towns on the frontier Soldiering for Glory Frank Schaller, 2007 This work presents an ambitious German commander's views of military life and courtship in the Confederacy Confederate colonel Frank Schaller lived a life of grand ambition driven to attain rank fortune a good marriage and some measure of redemption in the eyes of his German family His correspondence from the 1860s follows his battlefield experiences his machinations for advancement and his courtship of Sophie Sosnowski of Columbia South Carolina Schaller emigrated from Germany to the U S in 1855 and began the career as a military science instructor that would lead him to North Carolina and the Hillsborough Military Academy in 1861 His training in Germany and his combat experience with the French army in the Crimean War made him a candidate for quick advancement once the Civil War began From the time of North Carolina s secession in 1861 until his being wounded at Shiloh in April 1862 Schaller advanced rapidly from lieutenant to colonel But after Shiloh his consistent and somewhat conspicuous medical complaints kept him from combat while he worked to maintain his rank as regimental commander of the Twenty second Mississippi Infantry and pursue a marriage into a prominent family Schaller reveals much in his correspondence about military actions and the inner workings of the Confederate officer corps The critical views of this disciplined European military commander on the quality and training of his American volunteer soldiers is particularly telling He recounts his firsthand perspectives on the Battle of Shiloh the retreat from Nashville the Battle of Fredericksburg and the defeat at Gettysburg His letters to Sophie Sosnowski also detail the nature of courtship practices in the war torn South
