The Penguin Of German Stories:

Short Stories in German Ernst Zillekens, 2003-09-25 This new volume of eight short stories offers students of German at all levels the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of contemporary literature in the original with the aid of parallel translations. The majority of these stories have been written in the past decade and reflect a rich diversity of styles and themes. Complete with notes, the stories make excellent reading in either language. The Penguin Book of German Short Stories Francis John Lamport, 1974 The Penguin Book of German Stories Francis John Lamport, 1974 West Germany Donald S. Detwiler, Ilse E. Detwiler, 1987 A wide ranging bibliography on the region. Some 850 annotated entries explore subject matter categorized under 37 headings that include industry, religion, mass media, the arts, sports and recreation, transport, domestic and external trade, languages and dialects, prehistory and archaeology, West Berlin and its special status. Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth. It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year. It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible, be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world. The work records publications during the century, not merely translations that originated during this period. It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century. It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction, a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions. Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004. Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association, both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself. Gender and the Science of Difference Jill A. Fisher, 2011-06-15 How does contemporary science contribute to our understanding about what it means to be women or men? What are the social implications of scientific claims about differences between male and female brains, hormones and genes? How does culture influence scientific and medical research and its findings about human sexuality, especially so-called normal and deviant desires and behaviors? Gender and the Science of Difference examines how contemporary science shapes and is shaped by gender ideals and images. Prior scholarship has illustrated how past cultures of science were infused with patriarchal norms and values that influenced the kinds of research that was conducted and the interpretation of findings about differences between men and women. This interdisciplinary volume presents empirical inquiries into today's science, including examples of gendered scientific inquiry and medical interventions and research. It analyzes how scientific and medical knowledge produces gender norms through an emphasis on sex differences and includes both U.S. and non-U.S. cases.

and examples Translation and the Intersection of Texts, Contexts and Politics Mohammed Albakry, 2017-07-27 This book analyzes the impact of historical political and sociocultural contexts on the reading rewriting and translating of texts The authors base their arguments on their experiences of translating or researching different text types taking in fiction short stories memoirs religious texts scientific treatises and news reports from a variety of different languages and cultural traditions In doing so they cover a wide range of contexts and time periods including Early Modern Europe post 1848 Switzerland nineteenth century Portugal Egypt in the early twentieth century under British colonial rule Spain under Franco s dictatorship and contemporary Peru and China They also consider the theoretical and pedagogical implications of their conclusions for translation students and practitioners This edited collection will be of great interest to scholars working in translation studies applied linguistics and on issues of cultural difference Under English Eyes Jopi Nyman, 2021-10-18 British fictions of the early twentieth century appear obsessed with Europe Various texts from E M Forster and D H Lawrence to Bram Stoker and the period s travel writing explore European spaces constructing the European as an Other threatening the position of the English What they constantly repeat is England s difference and the secondary role of European spaces whose representation resembles that of colonial lands By reading selected texts both canonized and popular published between 1894 and 1916 this study argues that this xenophobic construction is a sign of the pervading presence of concerns related to the maintenance of English national identity Englishness allegedly threatened by the European Other By drawing on current postcolonial theory the case studies in the volume show that the discourse on the Other produced in British writings on Europe contributes more than has been understood to the making and promoting of Englishness The authors studied include D H Lawrence Katherine Mansfield Anthony Hope Arnold Bennett Mrs Alec Tweedie Erskine Childers and Joseph Conrad The study will renew our understanding of the role of Europe in the period s cultural imagination showing that the identities of the English are formed in encounters with different internal and external Others Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P. Wilper, 2016-02-15 In Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P Wilper examines a key moment in the development of the modern gay novel by analyzing four novels by German British and American writers Wilper studies how the texts are influenced by and respond and react to four schools of thought regarding male homosexuality in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The first is legal codes criminalizing sex acts between men and the religious doctrine that informs them The second is the ancient Greek erotic philosophy in which a revival of interest took place in the late nineteenth century The third is sexual science or sexology which offered various medical and psychological explanations for same sex desire and was employed variously to defend as well as to attempt to cure this perversion And fourth in the wake of the scandal caused by his trials and conviction for gross indecency Oscar Wilde became associated with a homosexual stereotype based on unmanly behavior Wilper analyzes the four novels Thomas Mann s Death in Venice E M Forster s Maurice Edward Prime Stevenson s Imre A

Memorandum and John Henry Mackay's The Hustler in relation to these schools of thought and focuses on the exchange and cross cultural influence between linguistic and cultural contexts on the subject of love and desire between men
