The Pentagon Propaganda Machine:

The Pentagon Propaganda Machine James William Fulbright, 1971 The Pentagon Propaganda Machine James William Fulbright, 1972 The Pentagon Propaganda Machine Dave Meggyesy, 1970 Stories that Changed America Carl Jensen, 2011-01-04 Exuberantly written highly informative Jensen's Stories That Changed America examines the work of twenty one investigative writers and how their efforts forever changed our country Here are the pioneering muckrakers like Upton Sinclair author of the fact based novel The Jungle that inspired Theodore Roosevelt to sign the Pure Food and Drug Act into law Queen of the Muckrakers Ida Mae Tarbell whose McClure magazine exposés led to the dissolution of Standard Oil's monopoly and Lincoln Steffens a reporter who unearthed corruption in both municipal and federal governments You'll also meet Margaret Sanger the former nurse who coined the term birth control George Seldes the most censored journalist in American history Nobel Prize winning novelist John Steinbeck environmentalist Rachel Carson National Organization of Women founder Betty Friedan African American activist Malcolm X consumer advocate Ralph Nader and Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein the Pulitzer Prize winning reporters whose Watergate break in coverage brought down President Richard Nixon The courageous writers Jensen includes in this deftly researched volume dedicated their lives to fight for social civil political and environmental rights with their mighty pens The Pentagon's Battle for the American Mind Lori L. Bogle, 2004-10-12 The U.S. military has historically believed itself to be the institution best suited to develop the character spiritual values and patriotism of American youth In Strategy for Survival Lori Bogle investigates how the armed forces assigned itself the role of guardian and interpreter of national values and why it sought to create ideologically sound Americans capable of defeating communism and assuring the victory of democracy at home and abroad Bogle shows that a tendency by some in the armed forces to diffuse their view of America's civil religion among the general population predated tension with the Soviet Union Bogle traces this trend from the Progressive Era through the early Cold War when the Truman and Eisenhower administrations took seriously the battle of ideologies of that era and formulated plans that promised not only to meet the armed forces manpower needs but also to prepare the American public morally and spiritually for confrontation with the evils of communism Both Truman's plan for Universal Military Training and Eisenhower's psychological warfare programs promoted an evangelical democracy and sought to inculcate a secular civil military religion in the general public During the early 1960s joint military civilian anticommunist conferences organized by the authority of the Department of Defense were exploited by ultra conservative civilians advancing their own political and religious agendas Bogle's analysis suggests that cooperation among evangelicals the military and government was considered both necessary and normal The Boy Scouts pushed a narrow vision of American democracy and Joe McCarthy's chauvinism was less an aberration than a particularly noxious manifestation of a widespread attitude To combat communism American society and its armed forces embraced brainwashing narrow moral education that attacked everyone and everything not consonant with their view of the world and how it ought to be ordered Exposure of this alliance ultimately dissolved it However the cult of toughness and the blinkered view of reality that characterized the armed forces and American society during the Cold War are still valued by many and are thus still worthy of consideration
