Brown Gold Michelle Martin,2004-03 This is the first comprehensive look at African American picture books from the mid nineteenth century to today Activism in the Name of God Jami L. Carlacio,2023-08-16 Contributions by Janet Allured Lisa Pertillar Brevard Jami L Carlacio Cheryl J Fish Angela Hornsby Gutting Jennifer McFarlane Harris Neely McLaughlin Darcy Metcalfe Phillip Luke Sinitiere P Jane Splawn Laura L Sullivan and Hettie V Williams Activism in the Name of God Religion and Black Feminist Public Intellectuals from the Nineteenth Century to the Present recognizes and celebrates twelve Black feminists who have made an indelible mark not just on Black women s intellectual history but on American intellectual history in general The volume includes essays on Jarena Lee Theressa Hoover Pauli Murray and Alexis Pauline Gumbs to name a few These women s commitment to the social political and economic well being of oppressed people in the United States shaped their work in the public sphere which took the form of preaching writing singing marching presiding over religious institutions teaching assuming leadership roles in the civil rights movement and creating politically subversive print and digital art This anthology offers readers exemplars with whose minds and spirits we can engage from whose ideas we can learn and upon whose social justice work we can build The volume joins a burgeoning chorus of texts that calls attention to the creativity of Black women who galvanized their readers listeners and fellow activists to seek justice for the oppressed Pushing back on centuries of institutionalized injustices that have relegated Black women to the sidelines the work of these Black feminist public intellectuals reflects both Christian gospel ethics and non Christian religious traditions that celebrate the wholeness of Black people

The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references

Stages of Struggle and Celebration Sandra M. Mayo, Elvin Holt, 2016-01-15 From plantation performances to minstrel shows of the late nineteenth century the roots of black theatre in Texas reflect the history of a state where black Texans have continually created powerful cultural emblems that defy the clichés of horses cattle and bravado Drawing on troves of archival materials from numerous statewide sources Stages of Struggle and Celebration captures the important legacies of the dramatic arts in a historical field that has paid most of its attention to black musicians Setting the stage the authors retrace the path of the cakewalk and African inspired dance as forerunners to formalized productions at theaters in the major metropolitan areas From Houston's Ensemble and Encore Theaters to the Jubilee in Fort Worth gospel stage plays of the Black Academy of Arts and Letters in Dallas as well as San Antonio's Hornsby Entertainment Theater Company and Renaissance Guild concluding with ProArts Collective in Austin Stages of Struggle and Celebration features founding narratives descriptions of key players and memorable productions and enlightening discussions of community reception and the business challenges faced by each theatre The role of drama departments in historically black colleges in training the companies founding members is also explored as is the role the support of national figures such as Tyler Perry plays in ensuring viability A canon of Texas playwrights completes the tour The result is a diverse tribute to the artistic legacies that continue to inspire new generations of producers and audiences

Just Enough to Make a Story Nancy Schimmel, 1992 An introduction to storytelling with tips on choosing learning and telling stories and annotated lists of preferred stories

Crossing Borders Through Folklore Alma Jean Billingslea-Brown, 1999 Examining works by Toni Morrison Paule Marshall Faith Ringgold and Betye Saar this innovative book frames black women's aesthetic sensibilities across art forms Investigating the relationship between vernacular folk culture and formal expression this study establishes how each of the four artists engaged the identity issues of the 1960s and used folklore as a strategy for crossing borders in the works they created during the following two decades Because of its interdisciplinary approach this study will appeal to students and scholars in many fields including African American literature art history women's studies diaspora studies and cultural studies
