Sea People: The Greatest Untold Battles of the World Karthik Raghuram, 2022-10-20 Mithra and his wife came to the Mediterranean region from a faraway nation full of dreams as a lower class fisher But regrettably the highest authority in the land decided to ruin his family because of his strong morals and intellectual Mithra didn t see it as his problem rather he took a broad view of it and realized that the absolute cause of his anguish and the misery of those around him was the power of authority Since people grant authority people may also exercise that authority He collected an army of common folk who rebelled against the stifling power of government and went to war with every monarchy in existence at the time In the conflict through his strong principles and integrity Mithra demonstrates why he is the world s best leader They overcame town after village city after city and kingdom after kingdom until they achieved their main objective of establishing a society in which every individual is valued for the life he leads They simply vanished without a trace from the world s view after achieving the wonderful win The conflicts between these people and the kings are what bring about the collapse of bronze age civilizations In the name of the Sea People these people dreaded and remembered

International Law and the Protection of People at Sea Irini Papanicopolulu, 2018-03-09 Media interest in the fates of people at sea has heightened across the last decade The attacks and the hostage taking of victims by Somali pirates and the treatment of migrants and asylum seekers in the Mediterranean ask pressing questions as does the sinking of the Costa Concordia off the Italian island of Giglio which one hundred years after the Titanic capsized reminded the world that despite modern navigation systems and technology shipping is still fallible Do pirates have human rights Can migrants at sea be turned back to the State from which they have sailed How can the crews of vessels be protected against inhuman and degrading working and living conditions And are States liable under international human rights treaties for arresting drug traffickers on the high seas The first text to comprehensively compare the legal rights of different people at sea Irini Papanicopolulu s timely text argues that there is an overarching duty of the state to protect people at sea and adopt all necessary acts with a view towards ensuring enjoyment of their rights Rather than being in doubt

she reveals that the emerging law in this area is watertight

The South China Sea Arbitration Stefan Talmon, Bing Bing Jia, 2014-11-01 On 22 January 2013 the Republic of the Philippines instituted arbitral proceedings against the People's Republic of China PRC under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS with regard to disputes between the two countries in the South China Sea South China Sea Arbitration On 19 February 2013 the PRC formally expressed its opposition to the institution of proceedings making it clear from the outset that it will not have any part in these arbitral proceedings and that this position will not change It is thus to be expected that over the next year and a half the Tribunal will receive written memorials and hear oral submissions from the Philippines only The Chinese position will go unheard However the Tribunal is under an obligation before making its award to satisfy itself not only that it has jurisdiction over the dispute but also that the claims brought by the Philippines are well founded in fact and law UNCLOS Annex VII Article 9 This book aims to offer a not the Chinese perspective on some of the issues to be decided by the Tribunal and thus to assist the Tribunal in meeting its obligations under the Convention The book does not set out the official position of the Chinese government but is rather to serve as a kind of amicus curiae brief advancing possible legal arguments on behalf of the absent respondent The book does not deal with the merits of the disputes between the Philippines and the PRC but focuses on the questions of jurisdiction admissibility and other objections which the tribunal will have to decide as a preliminary matter The book will show that there are insurmountable preliminary objections to the Tribunal deciding the case on the merits and that the Tribunal would be well advised to refer the dispute back to the parties in order for them to reach a negotiated settlement The book brings together scholars of public international law from mainland China Taiwan and Europe united by a common interest in the law of the sea and disputes in the South China Sea This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's International Arbitration online service
