The Peoples Cause A History Of Guerrillas In Africa:

The People's Cause Basil Davidson, 1981 Conquest, Constitutionalism and Democratic Contestations Joel M.

Modiri, 2020-05-21 Two decades since the enactment of South Africa's present constitution the durability and endurance of past inequalities and injustices illustrate that the new South Africa lauded as a miracle nation with the best constitution in the world can no longer be regarded as an unqualified success The legal and constitutional foundations of post 1994 South Africa are in a process of renegotiation that invites new and alternative perspectives and approaches This comprehensive volume explores this process of renegotiation by engaging political and intellectual contestations circulating in South African academic and public discourse relating to continuities and discontinuities between the colonial apartheid past and the post 1994 constitutional present The authors analyse the moral intellectual and political unravelling of post 1994 South African constitutionalism as legal text and political culture and enquire whether it has been able to respond adequately to the fundamental contradictions generated by colonisation and apartheid They also consider how centring the historical problem of European domination and conquest in Africa and South Africa in particular might provide an alternative frame or lens to theorise and understand contemporary South African realities This book marks out a complex field of contestation involving competing histories locations visions and perspectives that raises multifaceted questions regarding law history and politics It is the outcome of a South African Journal of Human Rights colloquium and was originally published as a special issue of the journal

The Making of Elite Women Tanja Müller, 2021-11-29 This book is a thorough study about the upcoming of elite women in Eritrea encompassing the time of the armed struggle for liberation as well as its aftermath up to the tenth anniversary of Eritrean independence in 2001 and beyond It is a multi disciplinary study combining a comprehensive analysis of Eritrean history society and political developments with extensive case study research into the lives of different groups of elite women Modernisation processes created by the Eritrean revolution fostered an environment in which women are regarded as equal and encouraged to occupy positions of leadership At the same time the revolution's hegemonic ideology does not envisage women opting out of its version of modernity thus new avenues open up only for those who subscribe to the revolution's narrative of progress Furthermore it is argued that while the Eritrean revolution played a decisive role in opening up possibilities for women's emancipation a failure to implement democratic structures of governance puts the revolution's societal achievements at risk its legacy might well rest with possibilities of personal liberation in individual lives

Heroes and Martyrs of Palestine Laleh Khalili, 2007-03-29 Many decades have passed since the Palestinian national movement began its political and military struggle In that time poignant memorials at massacre sites a palimpsest of posters of young heroes and martyrs sorrowful reminiscences about lost loved ones and wistful images of young men and women who fought as guerrillas have all flourished in Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon and in the Occupied Palestinian Territories Heroes and Martyrs of Palestine tells the story of how dispossessed Palestinians have commemorated their past and how through their dynamic everyday narrations their nation has been made even without the institutional memory making of a state Bringing ethnography to political science Khalili invites us to see Palestinian nationalism in its proper international context and traces its affinities with Third Worldist movements of its time while tapping a rich and oft ignored seam of Palestinian voices histories and memories

The Dynamics of Global Dominance David B. Abernethy,2000-01-01 For centuries Europeans ruled vast portions of the world as inhabitants of west European countries sailed to distant continents and took possession of territories whose societies and economies they set out to change How and why did these farflung empires form persist and finally fall David Abernethy addresses these questions in this magisterial survey of the rise and decline of European overseas empires Abernethy identifies broad patterns across time and space interweaving them with fascinating details of cross cultural encounters He argues that relatively autonomous profit making religious and governmental institutions enabled west European countries to launch triple assaults on other societies Indigenous people also played a role in their eventual subjugation by inviting Europeans to intervene in their power struggles Abernethy finds that imperial decline was often the unanticipated result of wars among major powers Postwar crises over colonies unmet expectations empowered movements that eventually took territories as diverse as the thirteen British North American colonies Spain s South American possessions India the Dutch East Indies Vietnam and the Gold Coast to independence In advancing a theory of imperialism that includes European and non European actors and in analyzing economic social and cultural as well as political dimensions of empire Abernethy helps account for Europe s long occupation of global center stage He also sheds light on key features of today s postcolonial world and the legacies of empire concluding with an insightful approach to the moral evaluation of colonialism

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele,2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

Civil Militia David J. Francis, 2017-07-05 This volume critically engages with the phenomenon of civil militias in Africa especially the nature of threats and challenges they pose to national and human security It questions why the African political scene is increasingly inundated with the activities of civil militias examines the socio political and economic conditions that trigger and or encourage and sustain the operations of civil militias and investigates the dominant motivations of African civil militias In the face of this complex security emergency the volume conceptualizes and theorizes the phenomenon of civil militias focuses the academic debate and policy on the links between civil militias and the growing cycle of state failure instability collapse and fragmentation in Africa broadly and critically explores and expounds the short term security consequences of the operations of civil militias and articulates a corpus of policy relevant knowledge The book is ideally suited to courses on African studies security and peace studies and military studies but would also be of interest to practitioners

Peasant Consciousness and Guerilla War in Zimbabwe Terence O. Ranger, T. O. Ranger, 1985-01-01

Black Marxism Cedric J. Robinson, 2005-10-12 In this ambitious work first published in 1983 Cedric Robinson demonstrates that efforts to understand black people s history of resistance solely through the prism of Marxist theory are incomplete and inaccurate Marxist analyses tend to presuppose European models of history and experience that downplay the significance of black people and black communities as agents of change and resistance Black radicalism must be linked to the traditions of Africa and the unique experiences of blacks on western continents Robinson argues and any analyses of African American history need to acknowledge this To illustrate his argument Robinson traces the emergence of Marxist ideology in Europe the resistance by blacks in historically oppressive environments and the influence of both of these traditions on such important twentieth century black radical thinkers as W E B Du Bois C L R James and Richard Wright

Unfrozen Ground: South Africa's Contested Spaces Maano Ramutsindela, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 Examining state driven programmes of land reform this book provides an important examination of the transformation process in post apartheid South Africa at both national and local levels It captures the dynamics of socio political change at national and local levels and provides an important analysis of integration in one of the world s most divided societies

Africa's Contemporary Challenges Carlos Lopes, 2013-09-13 This book reviews Cabral s intellectual contribution to current debates on race identity nation building democracy leadership and ethics The key leader of the national liberation movements of former Portuguese African colonies is considered to be one of their foremost intellectuals the continent has produced This rare combination of freedom fighter operational campaigner and astute political scientist justifies the academic interest in his contribution Africa s Contemporary Challenges reviews the impact of Amilcar Cabral s thinking and its relationship with contemporary debates about race identity nation building democracy leadership or ethics The complexity of Cabral s vision and hopes for Africa continues to incite curiosity and interest Cabral s tragic assassination in 1973 has removed the possibility of analysing his impact on post independent Lusophone Africa but his thoughts continue to be the most important reference This book was published as a special issue of African Identities Traditional Religion and Guerrilla Warfare in Modern Africa S. Weigert,1995-11-27 This study examines a political military tradition in sub Saharan Africa which has survived colonialism as well as the Cold War Five modern African insurgencies are evaluated Madagascar 1947 Kenya Mau Mau 1952 63 Cameroon UPC 1955 70 Congo Zaire Kwilu 1964 8 and Mozambique RENAMO 1977 92 These case studies demonstrate a persistent link between traditional African religion and contemporary nationalist movements whose political as well as military significance has frequently been underestimated and often misunderstood

Black Marxism, Revised and Updated Third Edition Cedric J. Robinson,2020-12-16 In this ambitious work first published in 1983 Cedric Robinson demonstrates that efforts to understand Black people s history of resistance solely through the prism of Marxist theory are incomplete and inaccurate Marxist analyses tend to presuppose European models of history and experience that downplay the significance of Black people and Black communities as agents of change and resistance Black radicalism Robinson argues must be linked to the traditions of Africa and the unique experiences of Blacks on Western continents and any analyses of African American history need to acknowledge this To illustrate his argument Robinson traces the emergence of Marxist ideology in Europe the resistance by Blacks in historically oppressive environments and the influence of both of these traditions on such important twentieth century Black radical thinkers as W E B Du Bois C L R James and Richard Wright This revised and updated third edition includes a new preface by Tiffany Willoughby Herard and a new foreword by Robin D G Kelley African Genius Basil Davidson,2005-01-01 The African Genius presents the ideas social systems religions moral values arts and metaphysics of a range of African peoples Basil Davidson points toward the Africa that might emerge from an ancient civilization that was overlaid and battered by colonialism then torn apart by the upheaval of colonialism s dismantlement Davidson disputes the notion that Africa gained under colonialism by entering the modern world He sees instead an ancient order replaced by modern dysfunction Davidson s depiction of the sophisticated native genius that has carried Africans through centuries of change is vital to an understanding of modern Africa as well In the Twilight of the Revolution Kwandiwe Kondlo,2009-12-29 This book is a long overdue history of the Pan Africanist Congress of Azania PAC and the rise of the Africanist ideology in South Africa From its formation in 1959 the PAC underground inside South Africa and in exile shaped the dynamics of the anti apartheid movement and liberation struggle by framing alternative ideologies Kwandiwe Kondlo analyses the radical traditions the structural contradictions and the internal conflicts of this rival to the African National Congress ANC South Africas dominant liberation organisation The contributions of some of the PAC leaders including Robert Sobukhwe Potlake Kitchener Leballo Vusumzi Make and John Nyathi Pokela are reconstructed as are the PACs experiences in exile and the strategies pursued by its military wing the Azanian Peoples Liberation Party APLA The role of the PAC in the power sharing negotiations leading to the historic 1994 elections in South Africa round off the narrative The PAC story is a highly controversial one as the perspectives are wide and various This book seeks to present a balanced picture which includes diverse views in a comprehensive narrative

The Subversive Seventies Michael Hardt,2023 In The Subversive Seventies Michael Hardt sets out to show that popular understandings of the political movements of the seventies often seen as fractious violent and largely unsuccessful are not just inaccurate but foreclose valuable lessons for the political struggles of today Looking at a wide range of movements around the globe during the 1970s from the United States to Guinea Bissau South Korea Chile Turkey and Italy Hardt argues that the movements of the 1970s identified and attempted to resolve the political problems that still face contemporary radical political thought and action

China's Resource Diplomacy in Africa M. Power,G. Mohan,M. Tan-Mullins,2012-07-17 The book seeks to understand China s evolving political and economic role in Africa and assesses what impacts Chinese aid trade and investment have on the politics of specific African countries and the extent to which it excites geopolitical competition

Modern Africa Basil Davidson,2014-07-10 Basil Davidson s famous book now updated in a welcome Third Edition reviews the social and political history of Africa in the twentieth century It takes the reader from the colonial era through the liberation movements to independence and beyond It faces squarely the disappointments and breakdowns that have dulled the early successes of the post colonial era yet for all the sorrows and uncertainties of Africa today Basil Davidson shows how much has been achieved since decolonization and the mood of his new final chapter is hopeful and buoyant
