Practice David Gordon White, 2018-06-26 As David White explains in the Introduction to Tantra in Practice Tantra is an Asian body of beliefs and practices that seeks to channel the divine energy that grounds the universe in creative and liberating ways The subsequent chapters reflect the wide geographical and temporal scope of Tantra by examining thirty six texts from China India Japan Nepal and Tibet ranging from the seventh century to the present day and representing the full range of Tantric experience Buddhist Hindu Jain and even Islamic Each text has been chosen and translated often for the first time by an international expert in the field who also provides detailed background material Students of Asian religions and general readers alike will find the book rich and informative The book includes plays transcribed interviews poetry parodies inscriptions instructional texts scriptures philosophical conjectures dreams and astronomical speculations each text illustrating one of the diverse traditions and practices of Tantra Thus the nineteenth century Indian Buddhist Garland of Gems a series of songs warns against the illusion of appearance by referring to bees yogurt and the fire of Malaya Mountain while fourteenth century Chinese Buddhist manuscripts detail how to prosper through the Seven Stars of the Northern Dipper by burning incense making offerings to scriptures and chanting incantations In a transcribed conversation a modern Hindu priest in Bengal candidly explains how he serves the black Goddess Kali and feeds temple skulls lentils wine or rice a seventeenth century Nepalese Hindu praise poem hammered into the golden doors to the temple of the Goddess Taleju lists a king's faults and begs her forgiveness and grace An introduction accompanies each text identifying its period and genre discussing the history and influence of the work and identifying points of particular interest or difficulty The first book to bring together texts from the entire range of Tantric phenomena Tantra in Practice continues the Princeton Readings in Religions series The breadth of work included geographic areas spanned and expert scholarship highlighting each piece serve to expand our understanding of what it means to practice Tantra Milarepa and the Art of Discipleship I

Sangharakshita, 2018-04-05 The story of the spiritual journey of the famous Tibetan yogi Milarepa is often told but less well known are the stories of his encounters with those he met and taught after his own Enlightenment eleven of which are the catalyst for volumes 18 and 19 of The Complete Works The first three were originally published in The Yogi's Joy and to these have been added an intriguing fourth The Shepherd's Search for Mind The other seven stories form a sequence tracing the relationship between Milarepa and his disciple Rechungpa from their first meeting to their final parting when Rechungpa is exhorted to go and teach the Dharma himself As portrayed in The Hundred Thousand Songs of Milarepa Rechungpa is a promising disciple but he has a lot to learn being sometimes proud distracted anxious desirous of comfort and praise over attached to book learning stubborn sulky and liable to go to extremes In other words he is very human and surely recognizable to anyone who has embarked on the spiritual path He all too often takes his teacher's advice the wrong way or simply ignores it and it takes all of Milarepa's skill compassion and patience to keep their relationship intact and help his unruly disciple to stay on the path to Enlightenment Sangharakshita's commentary is based on seminars he gave to young enthusiastic but as yet inexperienced Dharma followers and while much can be gleaned from it about the path of practice of the Kagyu tradition the main emphasis is simply on how to overcome the difficulties that are sure to befall the would be spiritual practitioner how to learn what we need to learn in short the art of discipleship Baba Satpathy C.B, 2011-05-08 The spread of the name and fame of Shri Sai Baba of Shirdi within the last two decades is a phenomenon by itself From 1999 onwards a number of websites were created in the name of Baba the world over In the year 2000 Shri C B Satpathy visited

Chicago to inaugurate the Sai Utsav in the month of November This event attracted a lot of devotees from all over the world including hundreds of families from the US Latin America Canada and UK and by Baba's grace acted as the seed of the creation of an effective world forum of Sai devotees It was followed by similar events and conferences in Sydney Australia in 2001 Johannesburg and Nairobi in Africa in 2003 where an increasing number of devotees asked me questions regarding Sai Baba and his message This trend continued over the years through the internet till he decided to come up with a publication that would lend greater clarity about His message to His devotees as well as to those with a religious bent of mind This book is a compilation of the questions he has received over the years and answers to them in a structured manner in a style and language which is easy to understand His messages circulated on various festivals between 2004 and 2009 through different magazines and websites are also included
