The Icarus Girl A Novel:

The Icarus Girl Helen Oyeyemi, 2013-05-10 This is a beautiful haunting story of precocious eight year old Jessamy This compelling tale of folklore and cultural differences is sure to top the bestseller lists Daily Mail A moving study of alienation Guardian An astonishing achievement Sunday Telegraph _____ Jessamy Harrison is eight years old Sensitive whimsical possessed of a powerful imagination she spends hours writing reading or simply hiding in the dark warmth of the airing cupboard As the half and half child of an English father and a Nigerian mother Jess just can't shake off the feeling of being alone wherever she goes and other kids are wary of her terrified fits of screaming When she is taken to her mother's family compound in Nigeria she encounters Titola a ragged little girl her own age It seems that at last Jess has found someone who will understand her TillyTilly knows secrets both big and small But as she shows Jess just how easy it is to hurt those around her Jess begins to realise that she doesn't know who TillyTilly is at all Icarus Girl Helen Oyeyemi, 2006-05-09 A sensation among readers around the world The Icarus Girl is the beautifully written story of eight year old Jessamy Jess Harrison Sensitive whimsical possessed of a powerful imagination Jess spends hours writing reading or simply hiding in the dark warmth of the airing cupboard As the child of an English father and a Nigerian mother Jess just can't shake off the feeling of being alone wherever she goes and other kids are wary of her terrified fits of screaming When her parents take her to Nigeria to visit her mother's family she encounters Titola or TillyTilly a ragged little girl her own age To Jess it seems that at last she has found someone who will understand her But gradually TillyTilly's visits become more disturbing making Jess start to realize that she doesn't know who TillyTilly is at all A story of twins and ghosts of a little girl growing up between cultures and colors this book heralds the arrival of a remarkable new talent The Icarus Girl Helen Oyeyemi, 2006-04-11 The audacious first novel from the award winning and highly acclaimed Helen Oyeyemi Jessamy Jess Harrison age eight is the child of an English father and a Nigerian mother Possessed of an extraordinary imagination she has a hard time fitting in at school It is only when she visits Nigeria for the first time that she makes a friend who understands her a ragged little girl named TillyTilly But soon TillyTilly's visits become more disturbing until Jess realizes she doesn't actually know who her friend is at all Drawing on Nigerian mythology Helen Oyeyemi presents a striking variation on the classic literary theme of doubles both real and spiritual in this lyrical and bold debut Radical Formalisms Sarah Nooter, Mario Telò, 2023-12-14 The term radical formalism refers to strategies aimed at defamiliarising and revitalising conventional modes of formalistic reading and theorising form These strategies disrupt and unsettle established norms while incorporating a metadiscursive awareness of their broader political implications This volume presents a radical reconceptualisation of literary works from Greek and Roman antiquity Engaging in an ongoing dialogue with critical theory and postcritique as well as drawing inspiration from traditions rooted in Black art poetry and philosophy both directly and indirectly connected to the classical tradition the essays in this collection explore subversions of canonical norms and resistances to the hegemony of textual order This collection not only provides new provocative insights into a corpus of texts that has exerted a lasting impact on modern literature and philosophy but also challenges current interpretive methods recasting the very practice of reading in relation to form poetics language sound temporalities and textuality What's a Black Critic to Do II Donna Bailey Nurse,2011 In What s a Black Critic to Do II literary critic Donna Bailey Nurse once again gathers together profiles reviews interviews and essays that examine race culture and multiculturalism through the lens of literature This collection featuring well known writers such as Lawrence Hill Afua Cooper Christopher Paul Curtis Natasha Trethewey Toni Morrison David Chariandy Joseph Boyden and Kwame Dawes What s a Black Critic to Do II is of especial interest to black readers as well as teachers librarians and book clubs This companion to 2003 s What s a Black Critic to Do constitutes a candid conversation about race in an ostensibly post racial world The Opposite House Helen Oyeyemi,2007 Maja daughter of a black Cuban couple was only five years old when the family emigrated to London Growing up she speaks Spanish and English but longs for a connection to her African roots Now in her early twenties Maja is haunted by the desire to m Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism K. Sasser,2014-09-02 Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism details a variety of functionalities of the mode of magical realism focusing on its capacity to construct sociological representations of belonging This usage is traced closely in the novels of Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Cristina Garc a and Helen Oyeyemi

Heroic Girls as Figures of Resistance and Futurity in Popular Culture Simon Bacon,2024-04-09 Heroic Girls looks at the recent proliferation of young girl heroes in many recent mainstream films and books These contemporary final girls do not just survive but rather suggest that in doing so they have fundamentally changed something about themselves and or the world around them seeing them become the First Girls of this altered reality The collection brings together a wide range of perspectives and cultural viewpoints that describe many recent narratives that explore the idea of a Final Girl and her after story The essays are divided into four sections beginning with more theoretical approaches cross cultural examples the ways in which fictional narratives bear strong relation to real world circumstances examples that more strongly depict themes of resistance survival and individual agency and finally those that describe something more fundamental and transformative Films and television shows covered in the collection include The Girl with All the Gifts The Witcher The Hunger Games Star Wars The Fear Street and Pan s Labyrinth This book will be of interest to researchers and students of film studies gender studies and media studies Experimental Subjectivities in Global Black Women's Writing Sheldon George,Jean Wyatt,2024-08-22 In what innovative ways do novels by diasporic Black women writers experiment with the representation of Black subjectivity This collection explores the inventiveness of contemporary Black women writers Black British African Caribbean African American who remake traditional understandings of blackness As the title word experimental signals these essays foreground the narrative form and stylistic innovations of the black authored novels they analyze They also show how these experiments with form mirror the novels convention breaking experiments with reimagining Black female subjectivities

While each novel of course represents the complexities of diasporic experiences differently some issues emerge that are broadly shared not just within a regional group but across geographical borders One feature of the collection is a comparative look at such linking themes across borders under the rubrics a return to precolonial systems of belief reinventions of mothering relational subjectivities memory history and haunting and posthumanist revaluations These themes take different shapes across the multitude of diverse cultures studied in this book But together they establish a pan global imaginative practice

Twins and Recursion in Digital, Literary and Visual Cultures Edward King, 2022-04-07

The tale of twins being reunited after a long separation is a trope that has been endlessly repeated and reworked across different cultures and throughout history with each moment adapting the twin plot to address its current cultural tensions In this study Edward King demonstrates how twins are a means of exploring the social implications of hyper connectivity and the compromising relationship between humans and digital information their environment and their genetics As King demonstrates twins tell us about the changing forms of connectivity and power in contemporary culture and what new conceptions of the human they present us with Taking account of a broad range of literary cultural and scientific practices Entwined Being probes discussions surrounding twins such as The way in which they appear in behavioral genetics as a way of identifying inherited predispositions to social media How their faces interrupt biometric interfaces such as facial recognition software and undermine advances in neo liberal surveillance systems How they represent the uncanny and the weird in the horror genre and how this questions ideologies of communications media and the connectivity it enables Their association with telepathy and cybernetics in science fiction Their construction as models for entangled being in ecological thought Drawing upon the literary and filmic works of Ken Follet Edgar Allan Poe H P Lovecraft Bruce Chatwin Shelley Jackson Brian de Palma Peter Greenway and David Cronenberg as well as science fiction literature and the television series Orphan Black King illuminates how twins are employed across a range of disciplines to envision a critical re conception of the human in times of digital integration and ecological crisis
