The Impact Of The Social Sciences:

The Impact of the Social Sciences Simon Bastow, Patrick Dunleavy, Jane Tinkler, 2014-01-17 The impact agenda is set to shape the way in which social scientists prioritise the work they choose to pursue the research methods they use and how they publish their findings over the coming decade but how much is currently known about how social science research has made a mark on society Based on a three year research project studying the impact of 360 UK based academics on business government and civil society sectors this groundbreaking new book undertakes the most thorough analysis yet of how academic research in the social sciences achieves public policy impacts contributes to economic prosperity and informs public understanding of policy issues as well as economic and social changes The Impact of the Social Sciences addresses and engages with key issues including identifying ways to conceptualise and model impact in the social sciences developing more sophisticated ways to measure academic and external impacts of social science research explaining how impacts from individual academics research units and universities can be improved This book is essential reading for researchers academics and anyone involved in discussions about how to improve the value and impact of funded research The Impact of the Social Sciences Kenneth Ewart Boulding, 1966 The social sciences now affect and shape man's conduct of his affairs Dimensions of Impact in the Social Sciences Haux, Tina, 2019-07-03 Impact has become a central part of the assessment criteria for academic worth It has been adopted by many research funding bodies and it is firmly embedded in the British Research Excellence Framework However a clear definition of impact remains elusive and guidance on how exactly to achieve it is often superficial This concise informative book analyses impact across the social sciences It draws on the analysis of the most highly ranked British impact case studies from the 2014 Research Excellence Framework as well as fifteen interviews with senior academics providing a longitudinal and critical framing of impact The author concludes with valuable recommendations of how and when scholars can achieve impact Dimensions of Impact in the Social Sciences Tina Haux, 2020 This concise informative book analyses impact across the social sciences Drawing on fifteen interviews with senior academics for a longitudinal view the author sets out valuable recommendations of how and when scholars can achieve impact Knowledge Mobilisation and Social Sciences Jon Bannister, Irene Hardill, 2016-03-17 The essays presented in this volume examine knowledge mobilisation and its relation to research impact and engagement The social sciences matter because they can help us to understand and address the complex challenges confronting society This is particularly true in an era of significant downward pressure on public expenditure a consequence of the global fiscal crisis when there is a striking need to ensure that policies are demonstrably effective and efficient The impact agenda in the UK reflected in parallel global debates actively encourages the social sciences to make and demonstrate a difference to justify and protect social science funding This volume shows how knowledge mobilisation can be thought of systematically as a process encompassing engagement leading to the co production and channelling of knowledge to make a difference in the economy and society This book was originally published as a special issue of Contemporary Social Science The Public Value of the Social Sciences John D.
