Befriending The Beloved Disciple Adele Reinhartz, 2002-10-29 Adele Reinhartz has been studying and teaching the Gospel of John for many years Earlier she chose to ignore the love hate relationship that the book provokes in her a Jew and took refuge in an objective historical critical approach At this stage her relationship to the Gospel was not so much a friendship as a business relationship No longer willing to ignore the negative portrayal of Jews and Judaism in the text nor the insight that her own Jewish identity inevitably does play a role in her work as an exegete Reinhartz here explores the Fourth Gospel through the approach known as ethical criticism which is based on the metaphorical notion of the book as friend not an easy unquestioning companionship but the kind of honest relationship in which ethical considerations are addressed not avoided In a book as multilayered as the Gospel itself Reinhartz engages in 4 different readings of the Fourth Gospel compliant resistant sympathetic and engaged Each approach views the Beloved Disciple differently as mentor opponent colleague and as other In the course of each of these readings she elucidates the three narrative levels that interpenetrate the Gospel the historical the cosmological and the ecclesiological In the latter Reinhartz deals at length with the so called expulsion theory the dominant scholarly notion that the Johannine community which included believers of Jewish Gentile and Samaritan origins engaged in a prolonged and violent controversy with the local Jewish community culminating in a traumatic expulsion from the synagogue
