The Old Leather Man Dan W. DeLuca, 2013-09-01 In 1883 wearing a sixty pound suit sewn from leather boot tops a wanderer known only as the Leather Man began to walk a 365 mile loop between the Connecticut and Hudson Rivers that he would complete every 34 days for almost six years His circuit took him through at least 41 towns in southwestern Connecticut and southeastern New York sleeping in caves accepting food from townspeople and speaking only in grunts and gestures along the way What remains of the mysterious Leather Man today are the news clippings and photographs taken by the first hand witnesses of this captivating individual The Old Leather Man gathers the best of the early newspaper accounts of the Leather Man and includes maps of his route historic photographs of his shelters the houses he was known to stop at along his way and of the Leather Man himself This history tracks the footsteps of the Leather Man and unravels the myths surrounding the man who made Connecticut's caves his home A Driftless Connecticut Series Book funded by the Beatrice Fox Auerbach Foundation Fund at the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving Weird U.S. Mark Moran, Mark Sceurman, 2009-05 Covering all 50 states Weird U S takes an unconventional look at the oddities outcasts and just plain strange things to see or do in America The Leatherman Kristian J. Kuhn, 2016-01-05 The Leatherman ca 1839 1889 was a peculiar vagabond who traveled a circuit between the Connecticut River and the Hudson River roughly from 1856 to 1889 His background is little known All that is recorded appears in a few newspaper clippings he was fluent in French spoke broken English but often grunted at those he encountered On his person at the time of his death was a French prayer book The Leatherman walked a 365 mile route that took approximately a month in western Connecticut and eastern New York He lived in rock shelters or Leatherman Caves Along his 365 mile loop he would stop at towns to procure his food and supplies The locals in these towns nicknamed him the Leatherman for his attire which was completely made of leather everything from his hat to his shoes Some of the local newspapers from the time recorded that he was exact in his rounds so some of the townsfolk would have food ready for him which was often left outside for him on doorsteps and porches No matter the climate or season the Leatherman donned his adornments In times of cold he would heat his rock shelter with the wood he piled there for such an occasion Records indicate that the Connecticut Humane Society had him arrested and hospitalized after many became concerned of a sore on his lip Legend has it that he escaped from the hospital to rejoin his journey Nobody knows why the Leatherman did this but I think that he did so because he was love stricken After losing the love of his life Margaret Laron he embarked upon this journey These poems are what I surmise his meditations to be his prayers his musings Deconstructing Product Design William Lidwell, Gerry Manacsa, 2011-10 What makes a product successful How it looks The way it functions Its ease of use Or do factors like price and marketing dominate In a quest to find answers to these questions Deconstructing Product Design engages readers in a process of critically analyzing a diverse collection of 100 innovative products from well known classics to contemporary objects of desire The goal is to support critical thinking
