Life is a Story - story.one* Patricia Romero,2023-09-01 This book tries to draw a picture of what life was like in Mexico from the Porfiriato era to the 1980s through a family history It all started with a good man with good intentions but the pain of his loss would echo throughout generations This family history mirrors the country s trajectory from being a land of promise to the unfulfilled potential of the subsequent decades Women and older members of society tend to disappear in the weavings of the story and become invisible elements that were only relevant in their youth Perhaps in the future we will learn to listen to our history and avoid making the same mistakes over and over again Perhaps The Dragon of Ord David McAdoo,1985-12 When the Prince of Darkness sends a dragon to steal King Oric s gold the mighty warrior Flare comes to the rescue The Barony Bill Conner,2013-02-28 Excerpts from the Story It was the morning of their fourth day at sea and Nathan awakened suddenly sat up something was different He threw on a few clothes and ran out on deck It didnt take long to figure out what was different The Catherine Ross was running with full sail aloft filled by a strong gale and Captain Stuart was making good use of the wind while it lasted Thus far the passengers had been spared the usual scourge of new seafarers seasickness However on the fifth day it caught up with Reverend Wolde The cook took charge fed him special food and said it would run its course in a day or so However Nathan was not reassured and felt certain he would be buried at sea Two days later hed made it out on deck with his wife and was enjoying the fresh air when a call came from the Crows Nest Ship Ahoy Well now this was something new and they quickly scanned the horizon But there was nothing there to see A crew member who saw them looking walked over and said nothing would be visible from deck level until late the next day That evening Ian said it might be the MacTavish clipper Anne Ross bound for Newfoundland but they would have to wait until the two ships got closer to be sure Nathan and Mary Catherine were sitting underneath their hammocks discussing the events of the day Nathan dont you think its a bit odd for two ships to meet in the middle of the ocean like this I doubt the Captains just want to say howdy to each other I believe theres more to it Well my dear Nathan replied I know you pretty well Youre not thinking its some sort of conspiracy so it must be one of your premonitions All right Mary Catherine lets hear it Its the weather Nathan The other Captain is going to warn us were sailing into a storm The carriages stopped on top of a hill overlooking the Firth of Tay and the family got out to look Directly opposite them atop a high bluff was The Barony Mary Catherine gasped Oh my God Nathan surely that cant be where were going can it I believe thats got to be your fathers place my dear Youre almost home now She grabbed the front of his coat with both hands and shook him Reverend Wolde that is not my home My home is across that ocean in the mountains of Virginia where I live happily with my family Look at me Nathan help me I cant do this alone She believed him to be sleeping in his chair but the Baron heard the door close and stood on trembling leg Father was all she got out before the tears came and she was folded into his arms My beautiful daughter how lovely you are If only your mother could see you now he sobbed Making
