The Legendary Endowment Project Paperback:

The Legendary Endowment Project Gary Griffin, 1995-08      Books in Print, 1991      Arthur, Origins, Identities and the Legendary History of Britain Jean Blacker, 2024-03-18 Geoffrey of Monmouth's immensely popular Latin prose Historia regum Britanniae c 1138 followed by French verse translations Wace's Roman de Brut 1155 and anonymous versions including the Royal Brut the Munich Harley and Egerton Bruts 12th 14th c initiated Arthurian narratives of many genres throughout the ages alongside Welsh English and other traditions Arthur Origins Identities and the Legendary History of Britain addresses how Arthurian histories incorporating the British foundation myth responded to images of individual or collective identity and how those narratives contributed to those identities What cultural political or psychic needs did these Arthurian narratives meet and what might have been the origins of those needs And how did each text contribute to a larger picture of Arthur to the construction of a myth that still remains so compelling today      Arthurian Figures of History and Legend Frank D. Reno, 2014-01-10 This biographical dictionary separates myth from history by differentiating and defining figures associated with Arthuriana Entries cover more than 400 legendary and historic figures and include extensive cross referencing maps illustrations and photographs An appendix provides a comprehensive character index of Sir Thomas Malory's Le Morte D Arthur      The Texas Legacy Project David A. Todd, David Weisman, 2010-09-15 A city dweller's vacant lot A rancher's back forty A hiker's favorite park When the places that we love are threatened we can be stirred to action In Texas people of all stripes and backgrounds have fought hard to safeguard the places they hold dear To find and preserve these stories of courage and perseverance the Conservation History Association of Texas launched the Texas Legacy Project in 1998 traveling thousands of miles to conduct hundreds of interviews with people from all over the state These remarkable oral histories now reside in an incomparable online and physical archive of video audio text and other materials that record these extraordinary efforts by veteran conservationists and ordinary citizens to preserve the natural legacy of Texas This book holds stories from more than sixty people who represent a variety of causes communities and walks of life from a West Texas grocer fighting nuclear waste to an Austin lobbyist pressing for green energy Each speaks from the heart in personal reminiscences and first hand accounts of battles fought for land and wildlife for public health and for a voice in media and politics These impassioned accounts remind us of the importance of protecting and conserving the natural resources in our own backyards wherever they may be Records of the archive are available at the Briscoe Center for American History at the University of Texas at Austin Five dollars of the cost of this book goes to environmentally friendly materials and processes

New Harmony Then and Now Donald E. Pitzer, 2011-11-03 In words and images this book surveys the history and contemporary everyday life in New Harmony Indiana      The United States Newspaper Program Ruth C Carter, 2015-07-16 Originally published in 1986 Here is a valuable and engaging overview of the cataloging aspects of the United States Newspaper Program the most extensive and comprehensive original cataloging enterprise undertaken in America The importance of newspapers for purposes of historical research is obvious The USNP was a cooperative national effort among the states and the federal government to locate catalog and preserve on microfilm newspapers published in the United States from the eighteenth century to the present Running until 2007 the USNP was an essential program of preserving journalism history as well as records of historical events This book talks through the cataloging process in Pennsylvania as an example

American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1976      American Bicentennial Photography and Film Project, 1975

United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. Subcommittee on Employment, Poverty, and Migratory Labor, 1976      Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-29 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively reimagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities

Yaw Boadu-Ayeboah, 2006-06-23      History of the Calcutta School of Physical Sciences Purabi Mukherji, Atri

Mukhopadhyay, 2018-06-26 This book highlights the role of Sir Asutosh Mookerjee founder of the Calcutta school of physics and the Calcutta Mathematical Society and his talented scholars Sir C V Raman D M Bose S N Bose M N Saha Sir K S Krishnan and S K Mitra all of whom played a significant role in fulfilling their goal of creating an outstanding school of physical sciences in the city of Calcutta The main objective of the book is to bring to the fore the combined contributions of the greatest physicists of India who in the colonial period worked with practically no modern amenities and limited financial resources but nonetheless with total dedication and self confidence which is unmatched in today's world The book presents the golden age of the physical sciences in India in compact form in addition small anecdotes mostly unknown to many have been brought the forefront The book consists of 10 chapters which include papers by these distinguished scientists along with detailed accounts of their academic lives and main research contributions particularly during their time in Calcutta A synopsis of the contents is provided in the introductory chapter In the following chapters detailed discussions are presented in straightforward language The complete bibliographies of the great scientists have been added at the end This book will be of interest to historians philosophers of science linguists anthropologists students research scholars and general readers with a love for the history of science

Costa Rica After Coffee Lowell Gudmundson, 2021-10-20 Costa Rica After Coffee explores the political social and economic place occupied by the coffee industry in contemporary Costa Rican history In this follow up to the 1986 classic Costa Rica Before Coffee Lowell Gudmundson delves deeply into archival sources alongside the individual histories of key coffee growing families to explore the development of the co op movement the rise of the gourmet coffee market and the societal transformations Costa Rica has undergone as a result of the coffee industry s powerful presence in the country While Costa Rican coffee farmers and co ops experienced a golden age in the 1970s and 1980s the emergence and expansion of a gourmet coffee market in the 1990s drastically reduced harvest volumes Meanwhile urbanization and improved education among the Costa Rican population threatened the continuance of family coffee farms because of the lack of both farmland and a successor generation of farmers As the last few decades have seen a rise in tourism and other industries within the country agricultural exports like coffee have ceased to occupy the same crucial space in the Costa Rican economy Gudmundson argues that the fulfillment of promises of reform from the co op era had the paradoxical effect of challenging the endurance of the coffee industry

Longfellow Charles C. Calhoun, 2005-06-15 In the first biography of Longfellow in almost fifty years Charles C Calhoun seeks to solve a mystery Why has one of America s most famous writers fallen into oblivion His answer to this question takes us through a life story that reads like a Victorian family saga and reveals the man who introduced Americans to the literatures of other countries while creating a gallery of American icons among them Paul Revere John and Priscilla Alden Miles Standish the Village Blacksmith Hiawatha and Evangeline

Made from Bone Jonathan D. Hill, 2010-10-01 Made from Bone is the first work to provide a complete set of English translations of narratives about the mythic past and its transformations from the indigenous Arawak speaking people of South America Among the Arawak speaking Waku nai of southernmost Venezuela storytellers refer to these narratives as words from the primordial times and they are set in an unfinished space time before there were any clear distinctions between humans and animals men and women day and night old and young and powerful and powerless The central character throughout these primordial times and the ensuing developments that open up the world of distinct peoples species and places is a trickster creator Made from Bone who survives a prolonged series of life threatening attacks and ultimately defeats all his adversaries Carefully recorded and transcribed by Jonathan D Hill these narratives offer scholars of South America and other areas the only ethnographically generated cosmogony of contemporary or ancient native peoples of South America Hill includes translations of key mythic narratives along with interpretive and ethnographic discussion that expands on the myths surrounding this fascinating and enigmatic character with broad appeal throughout various folkloric traditions
