reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Letters of Charles Lamb, Vol. 1 \(Classic Reprint\) Charles Lamb,2016-07-17 Excerpt from The Letters of Charles Lamb Vol 1 When Southey becomes as modest as his pre decessor Milton and publishes his Epics in duodecimo I will read em a guinea a book is somewhat ex orbitant nor have I the opportunity of borrowing the work The extracts from it in the Monthly Review and the short passages in your Watchman seem to me much superior to any thing in his partnership account with Lovell Your poems I shall procure forthwith There were noble lines in What you inserted in one of your Numbers from Religious Musings but I thought them elaborate I am somewhat glad you have given up that paper it must have been dry unprofitable and of dissonant mood to your disposition I wish you success in all your undertakings and am glad to hear you are employed about the Evidences of Religion There is need of multiplying such books a hundred fold in this philosophical age to prevent converts to atheism for they seem too tough disputants to meddle with afterwards About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Letters of Charles Lamb Charles Lamb,1886 The Letters of Charles Lamb Lamb,1886 The Letters of Charles Lamb Charles Lamb,1837 The Life, Letters, and Writings of Charles Lamb, Volume 1 Charles Lamb,Sir Thomas Noon Talfourd,2015-12-07 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Works of Charles and Mary Lamb - Volume 5 the Letters of Charles and Mary Lamb, 1796-1820 Charles Lamb,2018-06-28

The Works of Charles and Mary Lamb Volume 5 The Letters of Charles and Mary Lamb 1796 1820 by Charles Lamb This edition of the correspondence of Charles and Mary Lamb contains 618 letters of which 45 are by Mary Lamb alone It is the only edition to contain all Mary Lamb s letters and also a reference to or abstract of every letter of Charles Lamb s that cannot for reasons of copyright be included Canon Ainger s last edition contains 467 letters and the Every man s Library Edition contains 572 In 1905 the Boston Bibliophile Society a wealthy association of American collectors issued privately since privately one can do anything an edition in six volumes limited to 453 sets of the correspondence of Charles and Mary Lamb containing everything that was available which means practically everything that was known the number reaching a total of 762 letters but it will be many years before such a collection can be issued in England since each of the editions here has copyright matter peculiar to itself My attempt to induce the American owner of the largest number of new letters to allow me to copy them from the Boston Bibliophile edition has proved fruitless We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
