Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communiality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Agreeable Agreement Minna

Hietamäki, 2011-10-20 In recent bilateral ecumenical dialogue the aim of the dialogue has been to reach some form of doctrinal consensus The three major chapters of the book discuss the variety of forms of doctrinal consensus found in ecumenical dialogues among Anglicans Lutherans and Roman Catholics In general the dialogue documents argue for agreement consensus based on commonality or compatibility Each of the three dialogue processes has specific characteristics and formulates its argument in a unique way The Lutheran Roman Catholic dialogue has a particular interest in hermeneutical questions and proposes various forms of differentiated or perspectival forms of consensus The Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue emphasises the correctness of interpretations The documents consciously look towards a common future not the separated past Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W.

Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483-1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism

Ecclesial Recognition with Hegelian Philosophy, Social Psychology & Continental Political Theory Timothy T.N. Lim, 2017-07-03 Ecclesial Recognition proffers a framework for churches to accept the legitimacy and authenticity of each other as the Church in the dialogical process towards fuller communion Typically recognition and its reception investigate theologically the sufficiency of creeds as ecumenical statements of unity the agreeability of essential sacramentality of the church and the recognition of its ministries as the churches witness of the gospel This monograph conceives ecclesial recognition as an intersubjective dynamics of inclusion and exclusion amid identity formation and consensus development with insights from Hegelian philosophy group social psychology and the Frankfurt School Axel Honneth's political theory The viability of this interdisciplinary approach is demonstrated from the French Dominican Yves Congar's oeuvre with implications for intra Communion and inter Church relations Dr Lim examines philosophical recognition theory group social psychology and political recognition theory to analyse the non theological impasses confronting the whole ecumenical movement Rev Dr Trevor Hoggard Director English speaking Ministries Methodist Church of New Zealand Lim masterfully argues for the viability of an interdisciplinary approach to ecumenical recognition within communities among churches and in their common pastoral mission Fr and Professor Radu Bordeianu

David Nelson, Charles Raith II, 2017-07-27 Ecumenism A Guide for the Perplexed is a comprehensive introduction to the methods achievements and future prospects of the modern ecumenical movement The authors begin the volume by charting out a serviceable definition of ecumenism a term that has long been a source of confusion for students of theology and church history They review the chronology of the modern ecumenical movement and highlight the major events figures accomplishments and impasses This historical survey is followed by critical examinations of three significant challenges for contemporary ecumenical theology and practice Along the way the authors provide commentary upon the difficulties and prospects that the ecumenical movement might anticipate as it enters this new millennium Reformation Roots: Barbara Brown Zikmund, John B. Payne, 1997-02-21 Reformation Roots studies the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries in European Christianity including theological and political undercurrents of the Reformation Edited by John B Payne Series editor Barbara Brown Zikmund Unity in the Triune God Timo Tavast, 2012-12-21 The contemporary trinitarian paradigm in systematic theology has been internationally well known since the time of Karl Barth and Karl Rahner and particularly since the contribution of their famous successors Many of them Wolfhart Pannenberg and Robert W Jenson among others have intentionally shown in their writings what the general ecumenical relevance of the findings of trinitarianism might be However the academic research of ecumenism has not yet fully investigated how ecumenically oriented trinitarian theology has been factually applied in varying ecumenical relationships and agreements. Unity in the Triune God focuses on the ecumenism of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America with its full communion partners the Presbyterian Church USA, the Reformed Church in America and the United Church of Christ. 1997 the Episcopal Church, 1999 the Moravian Church in America, 1999 and the United Methodist Church, 2009. Together all these ecumenically active denominations have shown in their full communion agreements that the doctrine of the Trinity and the church's common trinitarian confession are not meaningless relics from ancient times but rather are dynamic and many-sided ecumenical resources that can be used for several functions in full communion agreements. The goal of this study is to reveal the differing ways in which to utilize this ecumenical potential of the trinitarian faith.

Ecumenical Perspectives on the Filioque for the 21st Century Myk Habets, 2014-06-19. The volume presents a range of theological standpoints regarding the filioque. With some contributors arguing for its retention and others for its removal, still others contest that its presence or otherwise in the Creed is not what is of central concern but rather that how it should be understood is of ultimate importance. What contributors share is a commitment to interrogating and developing the central theological issues at stake in a consideration of the filioque, thus advancing ecumenical theology and intercommunal dialogue without diluting the discussion. Contributors span the Christian traditions: Roman Catholic, Protestant, Eastern Orthodox, and Pentecostal. Each of these traditions has its own set of theological assumptions, methods, and politics, many of which are on display in the essays which follow. Nonetheless, it is only when we bring the wealth of learning and commitments from our own theological traditions to ecumenical dialogue that true progress can be made. It is in this spirit that the present essays have been conceived and are now presented in this form.

The Wittenberg Concord Gordon A. Jensen, 2018-08-01. Rethinking the Wittenberg Concord for Today. One of the mostly forgotten gems of the sixteenth-century Reformation is the Wittenberg Concord, signed in 1536 by representatives of evangelical southern German imperial cities and territories and the Lutherans. The dialogue that led to the concord provided space for the participants to have a meaningful dialogue that led to the recognition of each other's understanding of the sacraments as orthodox. This was remarkable given the very public failures at Marburg in 1529 and Augsburg in 1530. The lack of agreement threatened the unity of the evangelical estates and made them, along with the Reformation teachings, vulnerable to attack by the Holy Roman Empire and the Roman Catholic Church. The dialogue participants created enough space in their own understandings of the sacraments of baptism, absolution, and the Lord's Supper to allow the agreement to occur and function reasonably well at least until the beginning of the Thirty Years War in 1618. The final two chapters explore how this concord has impacted the church since its acceptance and how the lessons learned from this dialogue can assist churches today in providing healthy spaces for ecumenical dialogue to discuss controversial issues

Martin Luther and Buddhism Paul S. Chung, 2008-02-02 Martin Luther and Buddhism: Aesthetics of Suffering carefully traces the historical and theological context of Luther's breakthrough in terms of articulating justification and justice in connection to the Word of God and divine suffering. Chung critically and constructively engages in dialogue with Luther and with later interpreters of Luther such as Barth and Moltmann, placing the Reformer in dialogue not only with Asian spirituality and religions but also with emerging global theology of religions Christian Spirituality and Ethical Life Paul S. Chung, 2010-06-02 Christian Spirituality and Ethical Life offers a helpful study of the place of the Spirit in John Calvin's theology. It also discovers a notion of the spiritual life in connection with ethical life. It thus overcomes the prevailing popular pictures about the theology of John Calvin in several significant ways, providing a refreshing alternative to the anemic spirituality so prevalent today. It can be stated confidently that Calvin was a theologian of the Holy Spirit in solidarity with the poor, standing in openness to others.

Divine Election Eduardo J. Echeverria, 2016-09-14 This dogmatic study addresses two perennial questions. First, how do we reconcile God's sovereignty with human freedom, not just in general but particularly with respect to the Church's full understanding of God's plan of salvation as a work of grace. Second, and equally crucial, is the question of how we reconcile God's universal salvific will with the mystery of predestination, election and reprobation. The author of this study does theology within the normative tradition of confessional Catholicism and thus in the light of Catholic teaching. But this study is also an ecumenical work; indeed, a work in receptive ecumenism, and hence he listens attentively to the reflections and arguments not only of his fellow Catholic theologians Matthias Joseph Scheeben and Hans Urs von Balthasar but also theologians of the Evangelical and Reformed traditions: John Calvin, Herman Bavinck, Karl Barth and G. C. Berkouwer. This book concludes with a Catholic synthesis regarding the doctrine of divine election in dogmatic and ecumenical perspective.

Toward a Common Future William G. Rusch, 2019-05-20 This book provides a specific proposal for churches divided by centuries long disputes and disagreements to move toward a vision of the unity of the church It seeks to offer a way for divided churches to move beyond the present quagmire that challenges much of the modern ecumenical movement Building upon the theological dialogues between the churches this volume identifies and supplies a way for churches to regain a momentum that seems recently to have been lost in the ecumenical movement

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A. Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project In this context Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age Altogether he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day
