Presidents religious instruction was the responsibility of religious societies not the civil state What drove Washington to make that argument and what if he had lost Who wouldn't feel like the exasperated FDR when he said I can do almost everything in the Goldfish Bowl of the President's life but I'll be hanged if I can say my prayers in it It bothers me to feel like something in the zoo being looked at by all the tourists in Washington when I go to church No privacy in that kind of going to church and by the time I have gotten into that pew and settled down with everybody looking at me I don't feel like saying my prayers at all But even more importantly what's real what's a show and why does it matter when it comes to faith and politics These questions and more are unpacked and examined leading to a whole new understanding of how religion and politics interfaced through America's history and how they will play out in our future In this climate of religious and political tensions The Presidents Their Faith casts a civil entertaining and insightful spotlight on the unique mix and frequent mix ups of politics and religion in America
