EBOOK: WHAT IS ENGLISH TEACHING? Chris Davis, 1996-03-16 Is it the role of English teachers to teach basic literacy skills? If not, what do English teachers think they should be doing? How should basic literacy be taught in schools? These are important questions which have recently attracted significant political, media and parental debate. In addressing them, this book explores the question: What is English Teaching? from a variety of perspectives, including teachers' beliefs about what they should be teaching, the views of the government and the reality of young people's experiences in the 1990s. In particular, it explores the question of how and even whether the English subject area is capable of meeting its own and the outside world's expectations for teaching, not only its specialist concerns but also general literacy. The book explores ways in which the teaching of English might develop, for instance, by balancing its efforts evenly between literature study, media study and knowledge about language, and how it might contribute to wider literacy teaching by sharing its distinctive teaching strategies with teachers of other subjects.

The Best Horror of the Year Ellen Datlow, 2014-05-20 This statement was true when H. P. Lovecraft first wrote it at the beginning of the twentieth century and it remains true at the beginning of the twenty-first century. The only thing that has changed is what is unknown. With each passing year, science, technology and the march of time shine light into the craggy corners of the universe, making the fears of an earlier generation seem quaint. But this light creates its own shadows. The Best Horror of the Year, edited by Ellen Datlow, chronicles these shifting shadows. It is a catalog of terror, fear and unpleasantness as articulated by today's most challenging and exciting writers. The best horror writers of today do the same thing that horror writers of a hundred years ago did: They tell good stories, stories that scare us. And when these writers tell really good stories that really scare us, Ellen Datlow notices. She's been noticing for more than a quarter century. For twenty-one years, she co-edited The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror and for the last six years, she's edited this series. In addition to this monumental cataloging of the best, she has edited hundreds of other horror anthologies and won numerous awards, including the Hugo, Bram Stoker and World Fantasy awards. More than any other editor or critic, Ellen Datlow has charted the shadowy abyss of
