Desire After Dark Andrew J. Owens, 2021-03-02 Since the 1960s the occult in film and television has responded to and reflected society's crises surrounding gender and sexuality In Desire After Dark Andrew J Owens explores media where figures such as vampires and witches make use of their supernatural knowledge in order to queer what otherwise appears to be a normative world Beginning with the global sexual revolutions of the 60s and moving decade by decade through Euro sleaze cinema and theatrical hardcore pornography the HIV AIDS crisis the popularity of New Age religions and witchcraft and finally the increasingly explicit sexualization of American cable television Owens contends that occult media has risen to prominence during the past 60 years as a way of exposing and working through cultural crises about queerness Through the use of historiography and textual analyses of media from Bewitched to The Hunger Owens reveals that the various players in occult media have always been well aware that non normative sexuality constitutes the heart of horror's enduring appeal By investigating vampirism witchcraft and other manifestations of the supernatural in media Desire After Dark confirms how the queer has been integral to the evolution of the horror genre and its persistent popularity as both a subcultural and mainstream media form

The Masters of the Revels and Elizabeth I's Court Theatre W. R. Streitberger, 2016-02-26 The Masters of the Revels and Elizabeth I's Court Theatre places the Revels Office and Elizabeth I's court theatre in a pre modern patronage and gift exchange driven world of centralized power in which hospitality liberality and conspicuous display were fundamental aspects of social life W R Streitberger reconsiders the relationship between the biographies of the Masters and the conduct of their duties rethinking the organization and development of the Office re-examining its productions and exploring its impact on the development of the commercial theatre The nascent capitalist economy that developed alongside and interpenetrated the gift driven system that was in place during Elizabeth's reign became the vehicle through which the Revels Office along with the commercial theatre was transformed Beginning in the early 1570s and stretching over a period of twenty years this change was brought about by a small group of influential Privy Councillors When this project began in the early 1570s the Queen's revels were principally in house productions devised by the Master of the Revels and funded by the Crown When the project was completed in the late 1590s the Revels Office had been made responsible for plays only and put on a budget so small that it was incapable of producing them That job was left to the companies performing at court Between 1594 and 1600 the revels consisted almost entirely of plays brought in by professional companies in the commercial theatres in London These companies were patronized by the queen's relatives and friends and their theatres were protected by the Privy Council Between 1594 and 1600 for example all the plays in the revels were supplied by the Admiral's and Chamberlain's Players which included writers such as Shakespeare and legendary actors such as Edward Alleyn Richard

Burbage and Will Kempe The queen s revels essentially became a commercial enterprise paid for by the ordinary Londoners who came to see these companies perform in selected London theatres which were protected by the Council A Select Library of Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church: St. Basil: Letters and select works. 1895 Philip Schaff, Henry Wace, 1895
