The Meaning Of Christ A Mahayana Theology Faith Meets Faith Series:

The Meaning of Christ John P. Keenan, 1989 The Meaning of Christ reinterprets Christian tradition in the light of Mahayana Buddhist philosophy Mahayana theology declares Christ to be empty of essence defined only in the dependently co-arisen course of his life death and resurrection Keenan uses Buddhist thought to unveil facets of meaning in Christ not focused on in western thinking and to enable western Christians to reclaim their mystic tradition Part I examines the meaning of Christ as developed in the early church Through primary sources Keenan brings to light the cumulative research interpretations and historical understanding of a broad host of Christian scholars He argues that the Christian West has failed to relate its own mystic thinkers to its doctrinal theoretical thinking Part II outlines Indian Buddhist thought from the early Nikayas through the Abhidharma theorists the Prajnaparamita and Madhyana thinkers to the development of critical theory in Yogacara Keenan then develops the Yogacara concept of consciousness addresses some of the objections to the adoption of Mahayana philosophy in Christian theology and applies the Mahayana approach to the doctrines of Incarnation and Trinity Crucified Wisdom S. Mark Heim, 2018-12-04 Winner of the Frederick Streng Book Award for Excellence in Buddhist Christian Studies This work provides the first systematic discussion of the Bodhisattva path and its importance for constructive Christian theology Crucified Wisdom examines specific Buddhist traditions texts and practices not as phenomena whose existence requires an apologetic justification but as wells of tested wisdom that invite theological insight With the increasing participation of Christians in Buddhist practice many are seeking a deeper understanding of the way the teachings of the two traditions might interface Christ and the Bodhisattva are often compared superficially in Buddhist Christian discussion This text combines a rich exposition of the Bodhisattva path using Nideva's classic work the Bodhicaryavatara and subsequent Tibetan commentators with detailed reflection on its implications for Christian faith and practice Author S Mark Heim lays out root tensions constituted by basic Buddhist teachings on the one hand and Christian teachings on the other and the ways in which the Bodhisattva or Christ embody and resolve the resulting paradoxes in their respective traditions An important contribution to the field of comparative theology in general and to the area of Buddhist Christian studies in particular Crucified Wisdom proposes that Christian theology can take direct instruction from Mahayana Buddhism in two respects deepening its understanding of our creaturely nature through no-self insights and revising its vision of divine immanence in dialogue with teachings of emptiness Heim argues that Christians may affirm the importance of novelty in history the enduring significance of human persons and the Trinitarian reality of God even as they learn to value less familiar nondual dimensions of Christ's incarnation human redemption and the divine life Crucified Wisdom focuses on questions of reconciliation and atonement in Christian theology and explores the varying interpretations of the crucifixion of Jesus in Buddhist Christian discussion The Bodhisattva path is central for major contemporary Buddhist voices such as the Dalai Lama and Thich Nhat Hanh who figure prominently as conversation partners in the text This work will be of particular value for those interested in dual belonging in connection to these traditions The Question of Theological Truth ,2012-01-01 In today's world the boundaries within which Christian theologians operate are becoming ever more permeable and Christian theology is increasingly influenced and challenged by multiple outside factors In Western Europe two such factors stand out in particular the so called turn to religion in continental philosophy and religious diversity Theologians working with contemporary continental philosophers and theologians engaging the multireligious world tend to work quite separately from one another The aim of the present book is therefore to initiate a conversation between these two groups of theologians The question of truth was chosen because it is both a key issue in contemporary philosophical debates in the continental and analytic traditions and one that arises in complex and problematic ways in the praxis of and theoretical reflection on interreligious dialogue Some of the pressing questions that are addressed by the contributors to this volume are What is truth What is theological truth How does the issue of truth arise from interreligious encounter To what extent can or should the nature of truth be discussed explicitly during interreligious dialogue Or should the question of truth be rather postponed in the interest of successful interreligious encounter Is there a hermeneutical concept of truth and if so how can it be of help for theological reflection on the question of truth and on the role and place of truth in the context of dialogue between religions The Meaning of Christ John P. Keenan, Missiology ,1990 An international review The Ecumenical Review ,1992 Journal of Dharma ,1991 The Process of Buddhist-Christian Dialogue Paul O. Ingram,2009-07-01 While process philosophers and theologians have written numerous essays on Buddhist Christian dialogue few have sought to expand the current Buddhist Christian dialogue into a trilogy by bringing the natural sciences into the discussion as a third partner This was the topic of Paul O Ingram's previous book Buddhist Christian Dialogue in an Age of Science The thesis of the present work is that Buddhist Christian dialogue in all three of its forms conceptual social engagement and interior are interdependent processes of creative transformation Ingram appropriates the categories of Whitehead's process metaphysics as a means of clarifying how dialogue is now mutually and creatively transforming both Buddhism and Christianity The Catholic Biblical Quarterly Wendell Stephen Reilly,1990 Includes various reports of the Association Bibliography on East Asian Religion and Philosophy ,2001 This comprehensive research bibliography compiles annotates indexes and cross references resources in the principal Western languages which focus on China Japan and Korea in the areas of philosophy and religious studies supporting resources in theology history culture and related social sciences A notable additional feature is the inclusion of extensive Internet based resources such as a wide variety of web sites discussion lists electronic texts virtual libraries online journals and related material
