Beneath the Sea Trevor Norton, 1999 This is the story of some of the brave brilliant and often balmy men that invented diving
It is the story of explosive tempers and exploding teeth of how to juggle live hand grenades and steer a giant rubber octopus
A series of vivid portraits reveal the eccentric exploits of these pioneers They include Guy who held a world altitude record when only sixteen wrote a film for Humphrey Bogart invented snorkelling and loved his wife enough to shoot her Roy wore a bucket over his head and stole a coral reef Bill wearied of fishing with dynamite and wrestling deadly snakes so he sealed himself in a metal coffin to dangle half a mile beneath the ocean Cameron testing the bouncing bomb for dam busters made a plastic ear for a dog a false testicle for a stallion and invented a mantrap disguised as a lavatory He ascended from a depth of 200 feet without breathing equipment to see if his lungs would burst then studied the effects of underwater explosions by standing closer and closer until shattered by the blast The book also traces the evolution from spear fishermen to conversationalists from treasure hunters to archaeologists from photographers to philosophers The sea is The British
