The Mende Of Sierra Leone A West African People In Translation:

Coastal Sierra Leone Jennifer Diggins, 2018-06-28 A rich ethnographic account of young West African fisherfolk navigating a precarious social and economic environment shaped by ecological crisis war and secrecy

The Underneath of Things Mariane C. Ferme, 2001-09-14 In this erudite and gracefully written ethnography Mariane Ferme explores the links between a violent historical and political legacy and the production of secrecy in everyday material culture The focus is on Mende speaking southeastern Sierra Leone and the surrounding region Since 1990 this area has been ravaged by a civil war that produced population displacements and regional instability The Underneath of Things documents the rural impact of the progressive collapse of the Sierra Leonean state in the past several decades and seeks to understand how an even earlier history is reinscribed in the present

African Identities Kadiatu Kanneh, 2002-01-04 This fascinating and well researched study explores the meaning generated by Africa and Blackness throughout the century Using literary texts autobiography ethnography and historical documents African Identities discusses how ideas of Africa as an origin as a cultural whole or as a complicated political problematic emerge as signifiers for analysis of modernity nationhood and racial difference Kanneh provides detailed readings of a range of literary texts including novels by Toni Morrison Alice Walker Gloria Naylor Ngugi Wa Thiong o Chinua Achebe and V S Naipaul For anyone interested in literature history anthropology political writing feminist or cultural analysis this book opens up new areas of thought across disciplines

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Museum Pieces Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2011 The ways in which Aboriginal people and museums work together have changed drastically in recent decades This historic process of decolonization including distinctive attempts to institutionalize multiculturalism has pushed Canadian museums to pioneer new practices that can accommodate both difference and inclusivity Ruth Phillips argues that these practices are indigenous not only because they originate in Aboriginal activism but because they draw on a distinctively Canadian preference for compromise and tolerance for ambiguity Phillips dissects seminal exhibitions of Indigenous art to show how changes in display curatorial voice and authority stem from broad social economic and political forces outside the museum and moves beyond Canadian institutions and practices to discuss historically interrelated developments and exhibitions in the United States Britain Australia and elsewhere Drawing on forty years of experience as an art historian curator exhibition critic and museum director she emphasizes the complex and situated nature of the problems that face museums introducing new perspectives on controversial exhibitions and moments of contestation A manifesto that calls on us to re imagine the museum as a place to embrace global interconnectedness Museum Pieces emphasizes the transformative power of museum controversy and analyses shifting ideas about art authenticity and power in the modern museum African-American Exploration in West Africa James Fairhead, Tim Geysbeek, Svend E. Holsoe, Melissa Leach, 2003-11-13 In the 1860s as America waged civil war several thousand African Americans sought greater freedom by emigrating to the fledgling nation of Liberia While some argued that the new black republic represented disposal rather than emancipation a few intrepid men set out to explore their African home African American Exploration in West Africa collects the travel diaries of James L Sims George L Seymour and Benjamin J K Anderson who explored the territory that is now Liberia and Guinea between 1858 and 1874 These remarkable diaries reveal the wealth and beauty of Africa in striking descriptions of its geography people flora and fauna The dangers of the journeys surface too Seymour was attacked and later died of his wounds and his companion Levin Ash was captured and sold into slavery again Challenging the notion that there were no black explorers in Africa these diaries provide unique perspectives on 19th century Liberian life and life in the interior of the continent before it was radically changed by European colonialism Radiance from the Waters Sylvia Ardyn Boone, 1986-01-01 The Sande Society of the Mende people of Sierra Leone is a secret female regulatory society that both guards and transmits the ideals of feminine beauty so fundamental to the aesthetic criteria in Mende culture In this eloquent and moving book Sylvia Ardyn Boone describes the Society its rituals and organization and the mask worn by its members Her book is an evocative account of Mende life and philosophy as well as a unique contribution to the study of African art one based on African conceptions about the person and the human body This is a beautiful and beautifully written book Boone writes in ways that reveal her evident devotion to Mende culture John Picton African Affairs A major contribution to our ethnographic understanding of

Mende culture and to understanding the way concepts of women's bodies encode cultural messages about gender relations E Frances White Women's Review of Books A respectful approach to the mysteries of the Sande by an art historian who has tiptoed where anthropologists feared to tread Radiance from the Waters deserves to be read It provides something more interesting than esoteric knowledge an extended meditation on notions of beauty and decorum and the way in which these can be translated simultaneously into art and advancement for women John Ryle London Review of Books The first text to illuminate the power of the feminine aesthetic in West African art Ms From Pole to Pole: Being the History of
