The Mexican Cinema Interviews With Thirteen Directors:

The Mexican Cinema Beatriz Reyes Nevares, 1976 The Mexican Cinema Beatriz Reyes Nevares, 1976 The Mexican Cinema Beatriz Reyes Nevares, Edward Bradford Burns, 1976 Mexican Cinema Carl J. Mora, 1989 The author's main reason for writing this book however is simply to provide an introduction to the Mexican commercial cinema for American and other English speaking readers Although the United States has been and continues to be a major foreign market for Mexican movies the overwhelming majority of Americans are unaware of them Mexican films are restricted to the Hispanic theater circuits and shown without English subtitles therefore anyone wishing to see a Mexican movie would have to be fairly fluent in Spanish Such a requisite effectively eliminates almost the entire general audience in the United States from exposure to Mexican cinema The Classical Mexican Cinema Charles Ramírez Berg, 2015-09-01 From the mid 1930s to the late 1950s Mexican cinema became the most successful Latin American cinema and the leading Spanish language film industry in the world Many Cine de Oro Golden Age cinema films adhered to the dominant Hollywood model but a small yet formidable filmmaking faction rejected Hollywood's paradigm outright Directors Fernando de Fuentes Emilio Fernández Luis Buñuel Juan Bustillo Oro Adolfo Best Maugard and Julio Bracho sought to create a unique national cinema that through the stories it told and the ways it told them was wholly Mexican The Classical Mexican Cinema traces the emergence and evolution of this Mexican cinematic aesthetic a distinctive film form designed to express lo mexicano Charles Ramírez Berg begins by locating the classical style's pre-cinematic roots in the work of popular Mexican artist José Guadalupe Posada at the turn of the twentieth century He also looks at the dawning of Mexican classicism in the poetics of Enrique Rosas El Automóvil Gris the crowning achievement of Mexico's silent filmmaking era and the film that set the stage for the Golden Age films Berg then analyzes mature examples of classical Mexican filmmaking by the predominant Golden Age auteurs of three successive decades Drawing on neoformalism and neoauteurism within a cultural studies framework he brilliantly reveals how the poetics of Classical Mexican Cinema deviated from the formal norms of the Golden Age to express a uniquely Mexican sensibility thematically stylistically and ideologically Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978 Routledge Library Editions: Cultural Studies Various Authors, 2021-05-13 This seven volume set reissues a collection of out of print titles covering a range of responses to modern culture They include in depth analyses of US and Australian popular culture works on the media and television macrosociology and the media and otherness Taken together they provide stimulating and thought provoking debate on a wide range of topics central to many of today's cultural controversies Otherness and the Media Hamid Naficy, Teshome H. Gabriel, 2016-10-04 This anthology on otherness and the media first published in 1993 was prompted by the proliferation of writings centring on issues of difference diversity multiculturalism representation and postcolonial discourses Such issues and discourses question existing canons of criticism theory and cultural practice but also because they suggest a new sense of direction in

theorisation of difference and representation

Transnational Horror Across Visual Media Dana Och, Kirsten

Strayer, 2013-10-15 This volume investigates the horror genre across national boundaries including locations such as Africa Turkey and post Soviet Russia and different media forms illustrating the ways that horror can be theorized through the circulation reception and production of transnational media texts Perhaps more than any other genre horror is characterized by its ability to be simultaneously aware of the local while able to permeate national boundaries to function on both regional and international registers The essays here explore political models and allegories questions of cult or subcultural media and their distribution practices the relationship between regional or cultural networks and the legibility of international horror iconography across distinct media The book underscores how a discussion of contemporary international horror is not only about genre but about how genre can inform theories of visual cultures and the increasing permeability of their borders
