Robert College of Constantinople

Nick Petrov, 2023-06-21 In 1863 Protestant missionaries established Robert College in Constantinople the capital of the Ottoman Empire holding the distinction of being the pioneer American college abroad In many cases the American educators at Robert College understood the field of education as a superior tool for mission The book brings into conversation the convergence of the Protestant mission movement in the Ottoman Empire with the diverse tones of American efforts for providing education and assisting of the economic and social progress The author argues that despite being established as a religious institution with common goals and aspirations Robert College did not fully progress and reach its ambitions until the school switched to what the founding fathers called a non religious curriculum Robert College exclusively abandoned its Christian theological curriculum by minimizing its explicitly Christian dimensions and became a school with greater financial and structural autonomy which eventually gave the school the freedom to become crossroads of cultures faiths and nationalities The story of Robert College in Constantinople is a fascinating account for examining the influence of United States foreign affairs and culture on various aspects of society in the nineteenth and early twentieth century Ottoman Empire

Sonic Icons Sarah Bakker Kellogg, 2024-11-05 A vivid artfully crafted and deeply hopeful account of one community's struggle to rediscover and reinvent itself after a century of genocidal loss dispossession and displacement To the extent that Middle Eastern Christians register in Euro American political imaginaries they are usually invoked to justify Western military intervention into countries like Iraq or Syria or as an exemption to anti Islamic immigration policies because of an assumption that their Christianity makes them easily assimilable in the so called Judeo Christian West Using the tools of multisensory ethnography Sonic Icons uncovers how these views work against the very communities they are meant to benefit Through long term fieldwork in the Netherlands among Syriac Orthodox Christians also known as Assyrians Aramaeans and Syriacs Bakker Kellogg reveals how they intertwine religious practice with political activism to save Syriac Christianity from the twin threats of political violence in the Middle East and cultural assimilation in Europe In a historical moment when much of their tradition has been forgotten or destroyed their story of self discovery is one of survival and reinvention By reviving the late antique Syriac liturgical tradition known as the Daughters and Sons of the Covenant they seek a complex form of recognition for what they understand to be the ethical core of Christian kinship in an ethnic as well as in a religious sense despite living in societies that do not recognize this unhyphenated form of ethnoreligiosity as a politically legitimate mode of public identity Drawing on both theological and linguistic understandings of the icon Sonic Icons rethinks foundational theoretical accounts of ethnicization racialization and secularization by examining how kinship gets made claimed and named in the global politics of minority recognition The icon as a site of communicative and reproductive power illuminates how these processes are shaped by religious histories of struggle for sovereignty over the reproductive future

Politics and Poetica of Rights in Modern Iran Behzad Zerehdaran, 2024-03-29 This book delves into the history of subjective rights within the context of 19th century Iran specifically during the eventful Qajar era The crux of its research lies in the emergence and evolution of the concept of subjective rights as opposed to the notion of objective rights During this pivotal period this transition marked a paradigm shift from right as to be right to right as to have a right A central pillar of this book is the creation of a meta theory one that sheds light on the semantical evolution of the concept of rights Within these pages readers will find a concise history tracing the conceptual path that led from the objective to the subjective realm of rights In addition to these historical explorations it delves into the intricate field of rights theory investigating the foundations and justifications of rights Employing the Hohfeldian framework it analyses various conceptions of rights as they manifest within travel literature enlightenment literature and dream literature of the Qajar era This book will be of interest to scholars and students with an interest in Iranian studies Iranian history Persian literature and human rights Smoke and Mirrors David Nielsen, 2024-08-01 The Yenidze Cigarette Factory of 1909 was constructed as an industrial architectural object that advertised Dresden as a center for the tobacco trade Born from a unique client architect relationship between

Hugo Zietz and Martin Hammitzsch the factory's importance to modernism has been understated Smoke and Mirrors uncovers the history of the factory's planning design and construction and for the first time apart from the building's historical narrative positions this addition to Dresden's skyline within the formative histories of the modern movement

Little Knowns Facts of Christian - Muslim Relations Vincent J. O'Malley, C.M. , 2024-12-04 Friends and Foes highlights little known positive events analyzes complex contexts and offers hope through continuing education and dialogue with the other Whereas many texts attempt to defend either a Christian or Muslim perspective O Malley writes even handedly He applauds major achievements produced by Christian Muslim cooperation and criticizes tragedies each religious group perpetrated Friends and Foes transcends partisan politics and sectarian apologetics The European Revolutions, 1848-1851 Jonathan Sperber, 1994-01-28 A student textbook designed to introduce in an accessible manner all the principal themes and problems of this period in European history A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty five years Ira Lapidus history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion The history is divided into four parts Part I is a comprehensive account of pre Islamic late antiquity the beginnings of Islam the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious artistic legal and intellectual cultures Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present Ritual in Early Modern Europe Edward Muir, 2005-08-18 The comprehensive 2005 study of rituals in early modern Europe argues that between about 1400 and 1700 a revolution in ritual theory took place that utterly transformed concepts about time the body and the presence of spiritual forces in the world Edward Muir draws on extensive historical research to emphasize the persistence of traditional Christian ritual practices even as educated elites attempted to privilege reason over passion textual interpretation over ritual action and moral rectitude over gaining access to supernatural powers Edward Muir discusses wide ranging themes such as rites of passage carnivalesque festivity the rise of manners Protestant and Catholic Reformations the alleged anti Christian rituals of Jews and witches This edition examines the impact on the European understanding of ritual from the discoveries of new civilizations in the Americas and missionary efforts in China and adds more material about rituals peculiar to women Medicine and Society in Early Modern Europe Mary Lindemann, 2010-07 A concise and accessible introduction to health and healing in Europe from 1500 to 1800 Ottoman Wars, 1700-1870 Virginia Aksan, 2014-01-14 The Ottoman Empire had reached the peak of its power presenting a very real threat to Western Christendom when in 1683 it suffered its first major defeat at the Siege of Vienna Tracing the empire's conflicts of the next two centuries The Ottoman Wars An Empire Besieged examines the social transformation of the Ottoman military system in an era of global imperialism Spanning more than a century of conflict the book considers challenges the Ottoman government faced from both neighbouring Catholic Habsburg Austria and Orthodox Romanov Russia as well as arguably more importantly from military intellectual and religious groups within the empire Using close analysis of select campaigns Virginia Aksan first discusses the Ottoman Empire's changing internal military context before addressing the modernized regimental organisation under Sultan Mahmud II after 1826 Featuring illustrations and maps many of which have never been published before The Ottoman Wars draws on previously untapped source material to provide an original and compelling account of an empire near financial and societal collapse and the successes and failures of a military system under siege The book is a fascinating study of the decline of an international power raising questions about the influence of culture on warfare The Origins of the First World War William Mulligan, 2010-03-04 A new interpretation of the origins of World War I that synthesises recent scholarship and introduces the major historiographical and political debates surrounding the outbreak of the war It examines key issues providing a clear account of relations between the great powers disintegrating empires and the role of smaller states The Enlightenment Dorinda Outram, 2005-09-08 Debate over the meaning of Enlightenment began in the eighteenth century and has continued unabated until our own times This period saw the opening of arguments on the nature of man truth on the place of God and the international circulation of ideas people and gold Did the Enlightenment mean the same for men and women for rich and poor for Europeans and non Europeans In the second edition of her book Dorinda Outram addresses these and other questions about the Enlightenment She studies it as a global phenomenon setting the period against broader social changes This new edition offers a fresh introduction a new chapter on slavery and new material on the Enlightenment as a global phenomenon The bibliography and short biographies have been extended This accessible synthesis of scholarship will prove invaluable reading to students of eighteenth century history philosophy and the history of ideas
