Esposito,1995 This unique reference is the first comprehensive encyclopedia dedicated to the institutions religion politics and culture in Muslim societies throughout the world Placing particular emphasis on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World contains over 750 articles in four volumes The focus throughout is on the Islamic dimension of the Muslim experience in recent history and background articles ground the information in its historical context and ensure continuity Entries address political and social action as well as formal texts and emphasis is placed on the practice and theory of Islam in Muslim societies around the globe Unlike more limited explorations of Islam this work looks at Muslim societies in the Arab heartland as well as in South and Southeast Asia and even in Europe and the Americas Thus it is an invaluable resource offering extensive comparative and systematic analyses of Islamic beliefs institutions movements practices and peoples on an international scale Topical categories covered include history and geography schools of thought religious beliefs theology and philosophy mysticism religious practice devotionism and ritual religious law politics economics culture and society and biographies Alphabetically arranged articles range from brief 500 word essays to major interpretive and synthetic treatments of topics such as the Islamic state pilgrimage law marriage and foreign relations Related entries cover such topics as social and political movements women Muslim minorities human rights Islam in the West and interreligious affairs Truly multidisciplinary this work reflects the breadth and depth of contemporary scholarship in Islamic studies combining the tools of the humanities and social sciences to examine the interrelationship of religion politics and culture in Muslim societies and to explain the changing realities of Muslim life Designed for easy use by both scholars and students the work has an index and an extensive system of cross references that provide easy access to the network of related articles throughout the encyclopedia Entries are written by Muslim and non Muslim scholars from around the world Unique in its focus on the modern Islamic world this encyclopedia is an invaluable reference for anyone concerned with Islam scholars and students of many disciplines government and media analysts who increasingly require an understanding of the Muslim world and interested lay readers who are becoming more and more familiar with Islamic politics and culture The Oxford

Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World: Abba-Fami ,1995 The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Islamic World ,2009

The Management of Islamic Activism Quintan Wiktorowicz,2001-01-01 Shows how the laws governing civil society are used to regulate Islamic activism in Jordan Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead,Christopher Partridge,Hiroko Kawanami,2016-01-13 Religions in the Modern World Traditions and Transformations Third Edition is the ideal textbook for those coming to the study of religion for the first time as well as for those who wish to keep up to date with the latest perspectives in the field This third edition contains new and upgraded pedagogic features including chapter summaries key terms and definitions and questions for reflection and discussion The first part of the book considers the history and modern practices of the main religious traditions of the world while the second analyzes trends from secularization to the rise of new spiritualities Comprehensive and fully international in coverage it is accessibly written by practicing and specialist teachers

Between Integration and Secession Moshe Yegar,2002-01-01 Between Integration and Secession asks whether Muslim minorities can co exist with the majority and other cultures within non Muslim states Moshe Yegar s excellent new work examines the radicalization of Muslim communities during the nationalist fervor that swept southeast Asia in the aftermath of World War II The book s grand historical scope traces the theological and political impact of the postwar Islamic renaissance on the creation of Muslim separatist tendencies and heightened religious consciousness Drawing on a wealth of archival and secondary sources Yegar examines three cases of rebellion in Muslim minorities in the Philippines in Thailand and in Burma Myanmar He studies the communities struggle to define their aims be it for communal separation autonomy or independence and the means each has at their disposal to achieve them Civil Disobedience in Islam Muhammad Haniff Hassan,2017-04-13 This book addresses contemporary debates on civil disobedience in Islam within the rich Sunni tradition especially during the height of the non violent people revolution in various Arab countries popularly known as the Arab Spring It illustrates the Islamic theological and jurisprudential arguments presented by those who either permit or prohibit acts of civil disobedience for the purpose of changing government political systems or policy The book analyses the nature of the debate and considers how a theological position on civil disobedience should be formulated in contemporary time and makes the case for alternatives to violent political action such as jihadism terrorism and armed rebellion Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures , Network Governance of Global Religions Michel S. Laguerre,2012-03-28 This study seeks to explain three models of network governance embedded in digital practices that the mainstream monotheistic religions Judaism Catholic Christianity and Islam have used to lead and manage the worldwide distribution of their local nodes exploring the connection between network governance and its digital embeddedness and showing how the latter enhances the performance of the former Corporate Islam Patricia Sloane-White,2017-03-30 This compelling account offers a unique insight into the modern Islamic corporation Understanding Islam and Muslim Traditions, 2nd Ed. James Chambers,2021-08-01 Understanding Islam and Muslim Traditions 2nd Edition provides important information about the faith in an easy to navigate format This is a resource guide that introduces readers to Islam through an examination of its religious observances customs holidays calendar system and folk beliefs describing how people around the world express their Muslim identity This 2nd edition includes an important section on Islamophobia in America providing readers with both the historic backdrop and current environment Islam in Black America Edward E. Curtis IV,2012-02-01 Many of the most prominent figures in African American Islam have been dismissed as Muslim heretics and cultists Focusing on the works of five of these notable figures Edward W Blyden Noble Drew Ali Elijah Muhammad Malcolm X and Wallace D Muhammad author Edward E Curtis IV examines the origin and development of modern African American Islamic thought Curtis notes that intellectual tensions in African American Islam parallel those of Islam throughout its history most notably whether Islam is a religion for a particular group of people or whether it is a religion for all people In the African American context such tensions reflect the struggle for black liberation and the continuing reconstruction of black identity Ultimately Curtis argues the interplay of particular and universal interpretations of the faith can allow African American Islam a vision that embraces both a specific group of people and all people
