The Pahlavi Religious:

Political Conservatism and Religious Reformation in Iran (1905-1979) Amir Yahya Ayatollahi, 2022-03-19 This book is a theoretical inquiry on the relation of the body politic with the religious movements in the time between the Constitutional Revolution and the Islamic Revolution in Iran it illustrates speculative and historical analyses on the relationship of state religion and socio political status in the late Qajar dynasty 1905 1925 and the whole Pahlavi monarchy Particularly it examines the applicability of liberal conservatism to the era of the last Shah of Iran The thesis defines the term political conservatism in accord with Edmund Burke s philosophy It deals next with the definition of religious reformation the peculiar characteristics of Islam the Shi ite political theology and the contradictory usages of Islamic reformation in the literature The text gives an overview of the two antagonist sides of nationalism It provides also an analysis of the Islamic Republic as a new political phenomenon in Iranian history and the transformation of all concepts after 1979 Ayatollahi aims to assess the Iranian conservatism the possibility of conciliation between politics and religion before the collapse of the Pahlavi and the conditions of possibility for any restoration of the monarchy

State, Religion, and Revolution in Iran, 1796 to the Present B. Moazami, 2013-11-07 Two basic assumptions have shaped understanding of recent Iranian history One is that Shi ism is an integral part of Iran s religious and cultural landscape The other is that the ulama religious scholars have always played a crucial role This book challenges these assumptions and constructs a new synthesis of the history of state and religion in Iran from 1796 to the present while challenging existing theories of large scale political transformation Arguing that the 1979 revolution has not ended Behrooz Moazami relates political and religious transformations in Iran to the larger instability of the Middle East region and concludes that turmoil will continue until a new regional configuration evolves

Pahlavi Iran and the Politics of Occidentalism Zhand Shakibi, 2019-12-12 Zhand Shakibi presents a new interpretation of the political and social dynamics of the last decade of the Shah s rule that challenges the binary view of pro West Shah and anti West Ayatollah by drawing attention to the Pahlavi state s reaction to the intellectual and societal backlash against cultural and moral Occidentalism in its last decade Revising the dominant historiography of the Pahlavi ideological and discursive approach to the West this book draws attention to the changes in the attitude of the Shah the Empress and state intellectuals towards the position and imagery of the West in state conceptions of the authenticity of Iranian national culture and identity Drawing on a wide range of primary sources Shakibi presents the multi faceted relationship of the Pahlavi state to the West and the institutions that were created to manage this such as the Rastakhiz Party This study argues that the Pahlavi state having recognized this backlash attempted to limit the threat to its legitimacy by reformulating intellectual discourses of anti West Occidentalism and incorporating them into the ideology of the Rastakhiz Party In so doing it played a critical role in exacerbating societal sensitivities about the spread of Western influences
