The Pastor And Grief

Jon L. Joyce

The Pastor And Grief:

The Ministry of Lament Gene Fowler, 2022-05-17 Through his own hard won wisdom as a pastor who is thoroughly acquainted with grief Gene Fowler shows how these biblical and contemporary understandings of lament provide invaluable guidance for the pastor who knowing that the grieving of irrevocable losses is an ever present reality in the life of the congregation seeks realistic and reliable guidance in how to care for the bereaved and how to enable the congregation to become a genuine community of fellow mourners Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Gene Fowler skillfully maneuvers the winding road of bereavement with the psalms of lament as accompaniment With attention to the terrain of individuality as well as the congregational setting Fowler traverses new territory in a twenty first century approach to caring for grieving people Unlike an interstate with its clear ramps markers and exits the valley of the shadow of death is uneven with hidden crevices detours and dimly lit passages Challenging the traditional understanding of grief as a series of universal stages unfolding according to a preconceived timetable Fowler draws from psychotherapists and theologians to ground a new relationship between spirituality and grief Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Perkins School of Theology SMU While making a compelling case for how notions of care have been hijacked truncated and curtailed Gene Fowler expands the ability of caregivers and congregations to provide the long term acts of faithful healing that deep loss requires The book is given particular clarity through examples of movies books stories and Psalms that help healers see anew their task to compassionately and creatively encourage the bereaved as they rewrite the story of their lives Andrew L McDonald Senior Pastor Westminster Church Lincoln Nebraska

Ministering to the Mourning Warren Wiersbe, David Wiersbe, 2006-04-01 Formerly titled Comforting the Bereaved this practical insightful guide gives direction to pastors and lay leaders of all levels of experience Included are recommended Scriptures to read an explanation of the stages of grief approaches to conducting funerals in special circumstances such as suicide victims of crime multiple family deaths or when the deceased is unknown to the pastor signs of healthy and unhealthy grief and how to help survivors cope Grief, Transition, and Loss Wayne Edward Oates, In his creative pastoral care and counseling series veteran counselor Wayne Oates shares ideas from a lifetime of ministry Oates focuses on life situations in addition to death that can cause grief depression and a sense of loss such as divorce job change or relocation More common than ever in today's world these events offer opportunities for personal caregiving by ministers friends and family members

Comfort the Grieving Paul Tautges, 2015-01-06 Until the end of time when the curse of sin is finally removed suffering will be a large part of the human experience and a large part of that suffering will be walking through the painful reality of death Death writes Paul Tautges provides a natural opportunity not only for ministry to others but also for personal growth in ministers Those who shepherd others through the pain and loss that accompanies death should seek to offer wise and biblical counsel on these precious and painful occasions This book is a treasure chest of pastoral theology that will equip you to reach out to those who grieve with the Christ centered comfort of God rooted in the gospel The theological foundation espoused here as well as the numerous practical helps that are included will help any servant of the Lord to point the hearts and minds of the bereaved to the man of sorrows who is acquainted with grief Isaiah 53:3 The Practical Shepherding series of booklets provides pastors and ministry leaders with advice and practical help to do the work of pastoral ministry in a local church In Comfort Those Who Grieve experienced pastor Paul Tautges offers readers a guide to comforting those dealing with death through the hope of the gospel

When Grief Comes Kirk Neely, 2007-07-01 Sooner or later each of us journeys through the valley of the shadow of death Kirk H Neely has been through that valley including the unexpected death of his twenty seven year old son He has also been a pastor and counselor for forty years helping others journey through their own experiences of grief Full of compassion and wisdom When Grief Comes helps readers understand how to come to terms with death whether expected or sudden It also walks readers through the process of grieving as we experience life as a series of attachments and separations Through this journey of grief readers will learn that God gives gifts of grace and symbols of hope to bring strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow

Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park, 2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God's grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals

The Pastor and Grief Jon L. Joyce, 1973-01-01

A Necessary Grief Larry J. Michael, 2014-12-01 A handbook to enable ministry leaders to help others through bereavement Grief is a difficult topic that ministry leaders deal with on a regular basis Do they have confidence in helping those who are suffering the loss of a loved one Do they feel equipped to meet the differing needs that occur in the life of a survivor Can they lead someone through a process of grief reconciliation Are they able to plan and implement a bereavement ministry in their church or parish Here is a book that can help leaders in a practical way to minister to those who are grieving In addition they will discover essential tools to deal with grief's difficult questions Drawing upon his thirty years of experience as a pastor and as a professional grief counselor Dr Michael provides a valuable resource for pastors and other grief leaders to use within their churches and organizations and their surrounding communities This work is a practical guide that will bring a greater understanding of the impact that loss has upon individuals and will provide competent counsel for ministering to them In addition it will equip the leader to implement a ministry of grief education and bereavement within a church or organization A Foot in Two Worlds Vincent D. Homan,2013-01-31 After the untimely death of his son a pastor learns he must find a balance between grief and Christian hope ultimately discovering that embracing one does not diminish the other He learns grief is not an illness one must recover from but a journey one must walk A Foot in Two Worlds examines the intense grief that accompanies tragic loss and demonstrates how it interacts with our perception of goodness innocence and God Each chapter explores the conflicting life experiences that tragedy or loss often forces onto people who trust in a good God Grief is a nondiscriminatory offender striking the hearts and homes of its victims This story welcomes the grief stricken to a place of middle ground where faith doubt hope and loss coexiststarting the move from innocence to a hopeful reality Of the many books on grief few offer permission to the bereaved to develop a new normalcy by embracing both grief and hope A Foot in Two Worlds targets several significant needs It compassionately reaches out to the entire community of the bereaved with special grace offered to brokenhearted parents It gives a deeper look into the heart of grief and mourning Finally through stories and scripture the book offers direction and understanding to those who provide care to family members and friends who suffer tragic loss Heartbreak to Hope Samuel L. Wright,2016-05-25
