The Pathology Of Eurocentrism The Burden And Responsibilities Of Being Black:

Black Nihilism and Antiblack Racism Devon R. Johnson, 2021-11-04 This is an innovative work in African philosophical thought that links the phenomenon of nihilism in black America in particular black American youth to modern traditions of Western philosophy Black Nihilism and Antiblack Racism engages defining themes of black existential life by offering a framework for considering the relationships between antiblack racism pessimism nihilism weakness strength maturity freedom and hope in the 21st century This book readdresses themes popularly raised by Cornel West in 1994 regarding the nature causes evaluations diagnoses and prognoses of what has been called nihilism in black America Black Nihilism and Antiblack Racism seeks to recontextualize discussions of nihilism and its possibilities for American cultural life As a result this book bears important questions offers unique analyses and suggests radical responses that are relevant for studies of black life and theories of justice in twenty first century America

Hatred for Black People Shehu Sani, 2013-11 In the Arab nation of Libya black migrant workers were targeted killed maimed and raped in a pogrom that ensued in the aftermath of the NATOaided revolution The nation of Mauritania stripped the black population of their citizenship The State of Israel rounded up sub Saharan blacks and deported them as illegal immigrants Black football players in Ukraine had banana thrown at them by racist fans In Italy a black footballer protested being called a monkey Black pupils like Damilola Taylor in Britain are often targeted and hacked with knives Argentine black populations have disappeared in history In 1988 in Hohai University China a riot broke out against black people because they are dating Chinese girls with Chinese students shouting kill the black devils Black students in India risk life in a denied culture of racism In the United States from Rosa Parks to Trayvon Martins a racist free society is still a dream This book investigates and reveals the art the culture the politics the science the sociology the psychology and the hypocrisy of the resentment against black people in a world that is said to be civilized Why are black people so hated What are the scientific cultural and historical factors that informed such negative perception and despicable mentality The book navigates the mind set of those who think to be black is to be cursed whether as individuals a state institutions or an organization Despite all the enormous achievements and advancements in all fields of human endeavors recorded by man despite all the universal and natural values of freedom fundamental rights and democracy as proclaimed by man people of black colour are still despised disrespected and perceived differently This book tries to exclusively dig out the truth and present it bare

The Existence of the Mixed Race Daphne V. Taylor-Garcia, 2018-06-20 The Existence of the Mixed Race Damns is an interdisciplinary and intersectional study of the mixed race subject in the Americas and the rise of oppositional consciousness with a consideration of not only race but also colonialism Daphne V Taylor Garcia examines the construction of race gender and class in coming to an oppositional consciousness as a Spanish colonial subject in the Americas Spanning the early foundations of knowledge production about colonial racial subjects and connecting to contemporary debates on Latinxs and racialization the book takes up the terms through which first person perceptions of precarity and class mixed race existence and gendered power relations are constructed The Existence of the Mixed Race Damn s ends with a response to the current scepticism towards organizing as people of color through a decolonial redefinition of the damn s that centers a critique of anti black racism and colonial relations

Black Intellectual Thought in Education Carl A. Grant, Keffrelyn D. Brown, Anthony L. Brown, 2015-09-25 Black Intellectual Thought in Education celebrates the exceptional academic contributions of African American education scholars Anna Julia Cooper Carter G Woodson and Alain Leroy Locke to the causes of social science education and democracy in America By focusing on the lives and projects of these three figures specifically it offers a powerful counter narrative to the dominant established discourse in education and critical social theory helping to better serve the population that critical theory seeks to advocate Rather than attempting to rescue a few African American scholars from obscurity or marginalization this powerful volume instead highlights ideas that must be probed and critically examined in order to deal with prevailing contemporary educational issues Cooper Woodson and Locke s history of engagement with race democracy education gender and life is a dynamic demanding and authentic narrative for those engaged with these important issues

The Pathology of Eurocentrism Charles Wm Ephraim, 2003 It also argues that white racism is a symptom of a more devastating pathology mainly resentment

Living in the Shadow of the Cross Paul Kivel,2013-10-01 How our dominant Christian worldview shapes everything from personal behavior to public policy and what to do about it Over the centuries Christianity has accomplished much which is deserving of praise Its institutions have fed the hungry sheltered the homeless and advocated for the poor Christian faith has sustained people through crisis and inspired many to work for social justice Yet although the word Christian connotes the epitome of goodness the actual story is much more complex Over the last two millennia ruling elites have used Christian institutions and values to control those less privileged throughout the world The doctrine of Christianity has been interpreted to justify the killing of millions and its leaders have used their faith to sanction participation in colonialism slavery and genocide In the Western world Christian influence has inspired legislators to continue to limit women s reproductive rights and has kept lesbians and gays on the margins of society As our triple crises of war financial meltdown and environmental destruction intensify it is imperative that we dig beneath the surface of Christianity s benign reputation to examine its contribution to our social problems Living in the Shadow of the Cross reveals the ongoing everyday impact of Christian power and privilege on our beliefs behaviors and public policy and emphasizes the potential for people to come together to resist domination and build and sustain communities of justice and peace Paul Kivel is the award winning author of Uprooting Racism and the director of the Christian Hegemony Project He is a social justice activist and educator who has focused on the issues of violence prevention oppression and social justice for over forty five years

The Labyrinth Of Families Martin Patrick,2022-09-01 Two Black Brits who fear that going to America will cost them their lives inspire former Rogue Agents and the British Government to set up a Protection Service Sir Albert Collins is England s greatest Black Shakespearean actor who has been offered the starring role of Othello on Broadway but he fears that he ll be killed by cops in America so he s reluctant to go Dominic Harris is a successful Black British sales manager who has to fight to stop his vicious boss from sending him to America where he hopes Dominic will be killed by the cops Both men rely on the Bankol s Britain s most powerful Black family who have a relationship with Anglo American Secret Service rogue agents headed by Lord Mowbray one of the top men in British Intelligence This results in sexual entrapment robbery covert deceptions public humiliations and death

Race in Translation Robert Stam,Ella Shohat,2012-05-28 While the term culture wars often designates the heated arguments in the English speaking world spiraling around race the canon and affirmative action in fact these discussions have raged in diverse sites and languages Race in Translation charts the transatlantic traffic of the debates within and between three zones the U S France and Brazil Stam and Shohat trace the literal and figurative translation of these multidirectional intellectual debates seen most recently in the emergence of postcolonial studies in France and whiteness studies in Brazil The authors also interrogate an ironic convergence whereby rightist politicians like Sarkozy and Cameron join hands with some leftist intellectuals like Bhabha and Bourdieu in condemning multiculturalism and identity politics At once a report from various fronts in the culture wars a mapping of the germane literatures and an argument about methods of reading the cross border movement of ideas the book constitutes a major contribution to our understanding of the Diasporic and the Transnational

Indigenous Visions Ned Blackhawk,Isaiah Lorado Wilner,2018-04-24 A compelling study that charts the influence of Indigenous thinkers on Franz Boas the founder of modern anthropology In 1911 the publication of Franz Boas s The Mind of Primitive Man challenged widely held claims about race and intelligence that justified violence and inequality Now a group of leading scholars examines how this groundbreaking work hinged on relationships with a global circle of Indigenous thinkers who used Boasian anthropology as a medium for their ideas Contributors also examine how Boasian thought intersected with the work of major modernist figures demonstrating how ideas of diversity and identity sprang from colonization and empire

Christian identity and justice in a globalized world from a Southern African perspective Hermen Kroesbergen,2014-08-01 What does the globalized world that we live in mean for our Christian identity and for our struggle for social justice That is the central question that is addressed in this book from a wide array of angles by members of the Association of Theological Institutions of Southern and Central Africa ATISCA and Justo Mwale Theological University College Lusaka Zambia This book is about the struggle for social justice in relation to the self understanding of Christians from Southern and East Africa in a globalizing world Among other concerns it brings out the connection between theology and disability where disability is reflected as an issue that calls for self identity and self re definition This book is an important resource on contextualisation of theology and it is worthy reading Dr Samuel Kabue Executive Director of the World Council of Churches network EDAN In a work long overdue theologians and other researchers in Christianity investigate discuss and critique the influence of globalization on Christian identity in Southern Africa and its consequences in the struggle for justice Despite all talk about a global village the voices of Christians from Southern Africa are hardly ever heard This book represents an important change in this respect The book has been well edited by Hermen Kroesbergen and it is a must read for all theologians and ministers who want to reflect on our shifting identities Christian Literature Fund

An Archaeology of the English Atlantic World, 1600 - 1700 Charles E. Orser, Jr.,2018-07-05 An Archaeology of the British Atlantic World 1600 1700 is the first book to apply the methods of modern world archaeology to the study of the seventeenth century English colonial world Charles E Orser Jr explores a range of material evidence of daily life collected from archaeological excavations throughout the Atlantic region including England Ireland western Africa Native North America and the eastern United States He considers the archaeological record together with primary texts by contemporary writers Giving particular attention to housing fortifications delfware and stoneware Orser offers new interpretations for each type of artefact His study demonstrates how the archaeological record expands our understanding of the Atlantic world at a critical moment of its expansion as well as to the development of the modern Western world Sartre on Contingency Mabogo Percy More,2021-09-22 The problem of antiblack racism has a long history in the world with as long a history of thinkers writing and theorizing against it Few philosophers have opposed institutionalized racialism as vehemently as Jean Paul Sartre both in his intellectual work and in his political action This book argues that not only does a relationship exist between Sartre s existentialist philosophy and antiracism but also more profoundly that it is precisely his existential ontology that informs his anti racist social and political commitments He sought to examine the complexity of our existence as conscious bodies and thus provides the ontological basis for understanding the situation of a black person in an antiblack world This book is about how Sartre s philosophy especially his early writings can be applied to address the problem of racism against black people It argues that among the many concepts in Sartre s work that are useful in understanding the problem of racism against black people the philosophical notion of contingency is one of the most significant Contingency in Sartre is the view that whatever exists need not exist and that therefore it can be changed that the fact that one is born white or black without their choice has no moral weight at all in treating others as though they are responsible for what they are In this book Mabogo More contends that through Sartre s philosophical notion of contingency he provides us with the ammunition to understand and deal with racism broadly and antiblack racism in particular National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe s development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Pan-Africanism/African Nationalism B.
