Lionel Smith

The Patrimony:

Trusts and Patrimonies Remus Valsan, 2015-06-17 Focusing on the private law of England Scotland France Quebec and the Netherlands this volume explores how the private law concepts of trust and patrimony interact in various jurisdictions with a view to advancing the understanding of the trust as a fundamental legal concept It comprises new and previously published papers written by distinguished comparative law scholars The authors investigate whether the common law trust could be understood as a civil law patrimony by appropriation and whether civil law and mixed traditions could create local versions of the common law trust using patrimony as the main conceptual building block The History of Ireland, Ancient and Modern James MACGEOGHEGAN, 1844 Wounded Feelings Eric H. Reiter, 2019 Wounded Feelings explores how people brought stories of emotional injury like betrayal grief humiliation and anger before the Quebec courts from 1870 to 1950 and how lawyers and judges translated those feelings into the rational language of law The Worlds of the Trust Lionel Smith, 2013-08-22 Despite the common belief that they are found only in the common law tradition trusts have long been known in mixed jurisdictions even where they have a civilian law of property Trusts have now been introduced by legislation in a number of civilian jurisdictions such as France and China Other recent developments include the reception of foreign trusts through private international law in Italy and Switzerland and the inclusion of a chapter on trusts in Europe s Draft Common Frame of Reference As a result there is a growing interest in the ways in which the trust can be accommodated in civil law systems This collection explores this question as well as general issues such as the juridical nature of the trust the role and qualifications of the trustee and particular developments in specific jurisdictions Philip Roth and the Jews Alan Cooper, 1996-04-04 In a style richly accessible to the general reader this book presents Roth s secular Jewishness with its own mysteries and humor as most representative of the American Jewish experience Thirty years into his career as a writer Philip Roth remains known to most readers as a self hating Jew or a flawed would be comic Philip Roth and the Jews shows Roth the ironist the master of absurdity for whom twentieth century America and modern Jewish history resonate with each other s signal accomplishments and anxieties Roth s egoism is a persona an abashed moralist discomfited by the world Cooper shows that in the Jewish works Roth has taken the pulse of America and read the pressures of the world Modernism the universal tug for individual sovereignty and against tribal definition is an issue everywhere Roth s own odyssey of betrayal loss and return the pattern of the Jewish writer in the last 200 years is so shaped by his origins that Roth has carried his home and neighborhood into the corners of the earth and thus never left them The History of Ireland, Ancient and Modern, Taken from the Most Authentic Records and Dedicated to the Irish Brigade ... Translated from the French by Patrick O'Kelly (etc.) Jaques Mac-Geoghegan, 1844 Property Rights and Bijuralism Jan Jakob Bornheim, 2020-10-12 Using the Canadian experience as a model Jan Jakob Bornheim shows that the efficient interaction of common law and civil law can take place on both vertical and horizontal planes The Lives of the Popes in the Early

Middle Ages Horace Kinder Mann, 1915 Legal Documents from the Judean Desert Aharon Layish, 2011-07-12 This volume presents annotated English translations of 74 awards handed down by tribal arbitrators and other legal documents obtained from the Bedouin of the Judean Desert. The documents address such legal issues as blood and sexual offenses, family disputes, inheritance, private transactions in land and water rights, tribal boundaries, contracts and obligations. The documents, some of which date back to the 19th century, provide vital information on the process of Islamization of the tribal customary law in the precinct of the tribal judge. The facsimile reproductions of the manuscripts are included, rendering direct access to the original documents. The study is intended for students of Islamic law, of customary law and of comparative law and historians interested in the legal, social and economic history of modern Palestine and Jordan. A linguistic essay by Dr M. S. Shaw, based on the Bedouin documents, appears at the end of the study. The Catalan Mas Rosa Congost Colomer, 2015-09 Anyone who travels today through the Catalan territory will be drawn to several farmhouses that not only show their age but the characteristic features of a wealthy peasantry. If they are on a leisure trip, it is even possible that they have a meal or even spend some nights in one of these houses and perhaps in that solitude they will be able to admire the wild nature that surrounds them. But this way of life also seems to suggest that things were not always the same. Catalan masos were specific operating units around which men articulated and rearranged the Catalan agricultural, livestock and forested areas for centuries. In fact, in many of these farmhouses the accumulated documents reveal the remote origins of their holders. The same holders that would constitute a sort of rentier aristocracy in the nineteenth century thanks to the work of masovers. In this book, which was made possible thanks to the richness of the archives of the region, some members of the Centre de Recerca d'Història Rural of the Universitat de Girona aim to get the reader acquainted with the main historical processes that shaped and differentiated masos from the early Middle Ages until today. That is, from the birth of an agricultural system to its end.
