absence of Central and Eastern European towns is striking Cities such as Vienna Budapest Prague and Trieste where such notable figures as Freud Ferenczi Kafka and Joyce lived and worked are rarely studied in a translocal framework as if Central and Eastern Europe were still a blind spot of European modernity This volume expands the scope of literary urban studies by focusing on Budapest and Hungarian small towns offering in depth analyses of the intriguing link between literature the arts and material culture in the 20th and 21st centuries The case studies situate Hungarian urban culture within the global flow of ideas as they explore the period of modernism the mid century and the post 1989 era in a context that moves well beyond the borders of the country

In a Bucolic Land Szilárd Borbély, 2022-01-11 A moving posthumous collection of elegies and eclogues that meditate on nature landscape and history by a great Hungarian poet Szilárd Borbély spent his childhood in a tiny impoverished village in northeastern Hungary where the archaic peasant world of Eastern Europe coexisted with the collectivist ideology of a new Communist state Close to the Soviet border and far from any metropolitan center the village was a world apart life was harsh monotonous and often brutal and the Borbély outsiders and class enemies were shunned In a Bucolic Land Borbély s final posthumously published book of poems combines autobiography ethnography classical mythology and pastoral idyll in a remarkable central poetic sequence about the starkly precarious and yet strangely numinous liminal zone of his youth This is framed by elegies for a teacher in which the poet meditates on the nature of language and speech and on the adequacy of words to speak of and for the dead Ottilie Mulzet's English translation conveys the full power of a writer of whom László Krasznahorkai has said He was a poet a great poet who shatters us Lonely Planet The World Lonely Planet, The United States Catalog Ida M. Lynn, 1928 Signs Taken for Wonders Franco Moretti, 2020-05-05 Shakespearean tragedy and Dracula Sherlock Holmes and Ulysses Frankenstein and The Waste Land all are celebrated wonders of modern literature whether in its mandarin or popular form However it is the fact that these texts are so central to our contemporary notion of literature that sometimes hinders our ability to understand them Franco Moretti applies himself to this problem by drawing skillfully on structuralist sociological and psychoanalytic modes of enquiry in order to read these texts as literary systems which are tokens of wider cultural and political realities In the process Moretti offers us compelling accounts of various literary genres explores the relationships between high and mass culture in this century and considers the relevance of tragic Romantic and Darwinian views of the world A Modern History of European Cities Rosemary Wakeman, 2020-01-23 Rosemary Wakeman's original survey text comprehensively explores modern European urban history from 1815 to the present day It provides a journey to cities and towns across the continent in search of the patterns of development that have shaped the urban landscape as indelibly European The focus is on the built environment the social and cultural transformations that mark the patterns of continuity and change and the transition to modern urban society Including over 60 images that serve to illuminate the analysis the book examines whether there is a European city and if so what are its characteristics Wakeman offers an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates concepts from cultural and postcolonial studies as well as urban geography and provides full coverage of urban society not only in western Europe but also in eastern and southern Europe using various cities and city types to inform the discussion The book provides detailed coverage of the often neglected urbanization post 1945 which allows us to more clearly understand the modernizing arc Europe has followed over the last two centuries Annual Report of the Department of the Interior United States. Department of the Interior, 1883 Report of the Federal Security Agency United States. Office of Education, 1883 Report of the Commissioner of Education Made to the Secretary of the Interior for the Year ... with Accompanying Papers United States. Bureau of Education, 1883
