The Pearl Necklace Toward An Archaeology Of Brazilian Transition Discourse:

The Pearl Necklace Roberto Reis, 1992-01-01 Organized around the metaphor of a pearl necklace each chapter or bead on the strand addresses a specific feature of the authoritarian question The writers discussed those ignored by contemporary Brazilian criticism as well as those canonized include Jose de Alencar Humberto de Campos Jose Lins do Rego Graciliano Ramos Galeao Coutinho and Carlos Drummond de Andrade Machado de Assis and Erico Verissimo are the two discussed here whose literary practice fractures the monolithic solidity of discursive certainty linking them to writers such as Oswald de Andrade Joao Guimaraes Rosa and Clarice Lispector Randal Johnson in the foreword BOOK JACKET Utopias of Otherness Fernando Arenas, 2003 Forges a new understanding of how these two Lusophone nations are connected The closely entwined histories of Portugal and Brazil remain key references for understanding developments past and present in either country Accordingly Fernando Arenas considers Portugal and Brazil in relation to one another in this exploration of changing definitions of nationhood subjectivity and utopias in both cultures Examining the two nations shared language and histories as well as their cultural social and political points of divergence Arenas pursues these definitive changes through the realms of literature intellectual thought popular culture and political discourse Both Brazil and Portugal are subject to the economic political and cultural forces of postmodern globalization Arenas analyzes responses to these trends in contemporary writers including Jose Saramago Caio Fernando Abreu Maria Isabel Barreno Vergilio Ferreira Clarice Lispector and Maria Gabriela Llansol Ultimately Utopias of Otherness shows how these writers have redefined the concept of nationhood not only through their investment in utopian or emancipatory causes such as Marxist revolution women's liberation or sexual revolution but also by shifting their attention to alternative modes of conceiving the ethical and political realms The Cambridge Companion to Modern Latin American Culture John King, 2004-04 The term Latin America refers to the Portuguese and Spanish speaking states created in the early 1820s following the wars of independence states that differed enormously in geographical and demographical scale ethnic composition and economic resources yet shared distinct historical and cultural traits Specially commissioned essays by leading experts explore the unity and diversity of the region's cultural expressions These essays analyse history and politics from the nineteenth century to the present day and consider the heritage of pre Columbian and Colonial Latin America There is a particular focus on narrative as well as on poetry art and architecture music cinema theatre and broader issues of popular culture A final chapter looks at the strong and rapidly expanding influence of latino a culture in the United States A chronology and guides to further reading are included making this volume an invaluable introduction to the rich and varied culture of modern Latin America Emerging Dialogues on Machado de Assis Lamonte Aidoo, Daniel F. Silva, 2016-06-24 The first book length edited collection on Machado de Assis this volume offers essays on Machado de Assis work that offer new critical perspectives not only Brazilian literature and history but also to social cultural and political phenomena that continue to have global repercussions White Negritude A.

Isfahani-Hammond,2007-12-25 This book looks at the relationship of literary criticism to the social construction of race in Brazil Isfahani Hammond considers Gilberto Freyre s model of master slave synthesis and examines what multiculturalism means after the turn of the century Machado de Assis G. Reginald Daniel,2012 Examines how racial identity and race relations are expressed in the writings of Joaquim Maria Machado de Assis 1839 1908 Brazil s foremost author of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Provided by publisher Synopsis: An Annual Index of Greek Studies, 1993, 3 Andrew D. Dimarogonas,1998-10-28 Presents 12 860 entries listing scholarly publications on Greek studies Research and review journals books and monographs are indexed in the areas of classical Hellenistic Biblical Byzantine Medieval and modern Greek studies but no annotations are included After the general listings entries are also indexed by journal text name geography and subject The CD ROM contains an electronic version of the book Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Proceedings of the Brazilian Studies Association (BRASA). Brazilian Studies Association. Conference,1994 Bodies and Biases David William Foster,Roberto Reis,1996 Consuming Visions Maite Conde,2012 Consuming Visions explores the relationship between cinema and writing in early twentieth century Brazil focusing on how the new and foreign medium of film was consumed by a literary society in the throes of modernization Maite Conde places this relationship in the specific context of turn of the century Rio de Janeiro which underwent a radical transformation to a modern global city becoming a concrete symbol of the country s broader processes of change and modernization Analyzing an array of literary texts from journalistic essays and popular women s novels to anarchist treatises and vaudeville plays the author shows how the writers encounters with the cinema were consistent with the significant changes taking place in the city The arrival and initial development of the cinema in Brazil were part of the new urban landscape in which early Brazilian movies not only articulated the processes of the city s modernization but also enabled new urban spectators women immigrants a new working class and a recently liberated slave population to see believe in and participate in its future In the process these early movies challenged the power of the written word and of Brazilian writers threatening the hegemonic function of writing that had traditionally forged the contours of the nation s cultural life An emerging market of consumers of the new cultural phenomena popular theater the department store the factory illustrated magazines reflected changes that not only modernized literary production but also altered the very life and everyday urban experiences of the population Consuming Visions is an ambitious and engaging examination of the ways in which mass culture can become an agent of intellectual and aesthetic transformation Cannibal Democracy Zita Nunes,2008 Zita Nunes argues that the prevailing narratives of identity formation throughout the Americas share a dependence on metaphors of incorporation and often of cannibalism From the position of the incorporating body the construction of a national and racial identity through a process of assimilation presupposes a remainder a residue Nunes addresses works by writers and artists who explore what is left behind in the formation of national identities and speak to the limits of the contemporary discourse of democracy Cannibal

Democracy tracks its central metaphor's circulation through the work of writers such as Mrio de Andrade W E B Du Bois and Toni Morrison and journalists of the black press as well as work by visual artists including Magdalena Campos Pons and Keith Piper and reveals how exclusion understood in terms of what is left out can be fruitfully understood in terms of what is left over from a process of unification or incorporation Nunes shows that while this remainder can be deferred into the future lurking as a threat to the desired stability of the present the residue haunts discourses of national unity undermining the ideologies of democracy that claim to resolve issues of race Zita Nunes is associate professor of English at the University of Maryland College Park
