

Peeping Tom

I rise before the morning sun
Peeping tom, became a lot of fun
I watch her every move by the day
Knowing soon she'll be my prey

She drives through town without a clue
That I'm attached and stuck like glue
Late night I watch her shower
I know she'll be in bed in less than an hour

She puts that silk red gown on
As she talks to her lover over the phone
"I love you more than anything" she said
Than hung up and went to bed

I opened the window slowly
Approach her surely
"Shhh don't you scream"
It's your turn, you shouldn't have trusted me

"Babe please don't do it" she cries
I choked her until lights went off her eyes
I disappeared into the night
Than went online and chatted to the next victim of mine
