The Penguin New Writing 1940 50:

The Penguin New Writing John Lehmann, Roy Fuller, 1985 The Penguin New Writing 1940-1950, 1985 Letters of Frank Sargeson Sarah Shieff, 2012-02-03 A rich and riveting record of both literary and social value Frank Sargeson is one of New Zealand's best loved and most important writers Besides the ground breaking short stories he wrote memoirs novels and plays He encouraged at least three generations of younger writers and for most of his adult life the famous bach behind the hedge at 14 Esmonde Road was at the heart of New Zealand's artistic and literary world Sargeson was also a prolific letter writer and this selection of 500 of the most fascinating ranges over half a century from 1927 to 1981 The letters are immensely readable vividly capturing his life and times his milieu and his personality Frank loved gossip could be bitchy and peevish but also kind affectionate funny ribald astute This collection selected edited and annotated by Sarah Shieff is a document of extraordinary significance for all those interested in New Zealand's literary and social history The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Reading London in Wartime William Cederwell, 2017-11-06 Reading London in Wartime Blitz the People and Propaganda in 1940s Literature presents an expansive variety of writers and genres including non fiction and film approaches to build a comprehensive social picture of the atmosphere during wartime London From blitz and austerity to the nagging insistency of propaganda this volume examines the representation of London in wartime and early post war literature through each writer's unique perspective on the pressures of 1940s city life Exploring the use of London imagery this book considers how literature redirects attention to individual subjective experience at a time of enforced co operation uniformity and community Unlike government information films and news broadcasts which often used London to prop up prevailing clichés and stereotypes and encouraged patriotic support for the war literature had the freedom to express more recalcitrant truths London writing of the 1940s was not a literature of opposition or dissent but in offering more nuanced depictions of the period it was a counterweight to propaganda and the general war temperament In writing the city becomes a more complex place no longer the easy symbol of defiance and stoicism of the shared sacrifice of ration book and war work The Poetry of the Forties A. Trevor Tolley, 1985 W. H. Auden in Context Tony Sharpe, 2013-01-21 W H Auden is a giant of twentieth century English poetry whose writings demonstrate a sustained engagement with the times in which he lived But how did the century's shifting cultural terrain affect him and his work Written by distinguished poets and scholars these brief but authoritative essays offer a varied set of coordinates by which to chart Auden s continuously evolving career examining key aspects of his environmental cultural political and creative contexts Reaching beyond mere biography these essays present Auden as the product of ongoing negotiations between himself his time and posterity exploring the enduring power of his poetry to unsettle and provoke The collection will prove valuable for scholars researchers and students of English literature cultural studies and creative writing The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker,Andrew Thacker,2009-03-26 The first of three volumes charting the history of the Modernist Magazine in Britain North America and Europe this collection offers the first comprehensive study of the wide and varied range of little magazines which were so instrumental in introducing the new writing and ideas that came to constitute literary and artistic modernism in the UK and Ireland In thirty seven chapters covering over eighty magazines expert contributors investigate the inner dynamics and economic and intellectual conditions that governed the life of these fugitive but vibrant publications We learn of the role of editors and sponsors the relation of the arts to contemporary philosophy and politics the effects of war and economic depression and of the survival in hard times of radical ideas and a belief in innovation The chapters are arranged according to historical themes with accompanying contextual introductions and include studies of the New Age Blast the Egoist and the Criterion New Writing New Verse and Scrutiny as well as of lesser known magazines such as the Evergreen Coterie the Bermondsey Book the Mask Welsh Review the Modern Scot and the Bell To return to the pages of these magazines returns us a world where the material constraints of costs and anxieties over censorship and declining readerships ran alongside the excitement of a new poem or manifesto This collection therefore confirms the value of magazine culture to the field of modernist studies it provides a rich and hitherto under examined resource which both brings to light the debate and dialogue out of which modernism evolved and helps us recover the vitality and potential of that earlier discussion Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Art and Commerce in the British Short Story, 1880-1950 Dean Baldwin,2015-10-06 The short story was a commercial phenomenon which took off in the late nineteenth century and lasted through to the rise of television and film Baldwin uses a wide variety of sources to show how economic factors helped to dictate how and what a wide variety of authors wrote
