A Cultural History Of Classical Chinese Gardens Yi Wang, 2015-03-01 Gardens are a type of landscape art created by the hands of human beings Chinese gardens are not only one of China's traditional cultural treasures but they are also a unique charm of human cultural heritage Literati gardens occupy an essential position among Chinese gardens one of the three major genres of gardens in the world The reason why literati gardens occupy an important position in classical Chinese gardens and even in the entire system of traditional Chinese culture and art lies in their exquisite architecture exotic flowers and whimsical stones available for the exploration and appreciation of the literati More significantly gardens have provided a venue of daily life academic writings artistic creation social gatherings and other cultural activities for ancient Chinese scholars Consequently a wealth of traditional Chinese cultural factors is embedded in the intricate art of landscape architecture The constant integration and interaction of traditional Chinese culture and gardens have in turn nurtured a unique Chinese garden culture Chinese gardens are a critical embodiment of Chinese culture distinctly exemplifying the ancient Chinese patriarchal system the cosmology the personality ideal and other cultural elements The evolution of the cultural history of Chinese gardens is in harmony with the overall process of the Chinese cultural history This book describes the major genres the characteristics and the formation of classical Chinese gardens as well as the relationship between classical Chinese gardens and classical Chinese culture and arts in a more succinct plain language The publisher believes that this book will certainly provide the reader with an authentic and comprehensive overview of the Chinese garden culture Published by SCPG Publishing Corporation and distributed by World Scientific for all markets except China

China's Literary and Cultural Scenes at the Turn of the 21st Century Jie Lu, 2013-10-18 China's literary and cultural production at the turn of the twenty first century is marked by heterogeneity plurality and diversity Given its complexity the literary cultural production of this period perhaps can be understood most productively as a response to a global modernity that has touched and transformed all aspects of contemporary Chinese reality The eleven essays in this book offer an introduction to some of the most important works published at the turn of the twenty first century In combining textual analysis of specific works with theoretical insights and in locating the texts in their sociocultural and socioeconomic contexts the essays explore key theoretical issues and intellectual concerns of the time They collectively draw a broad contour of new developments major trends and radical changes capturing the intellectual and cultural Zeitgeist of the age All in all these essays offer new theoretical approaches to and critical perspectives on contemporary Chinese literature and culture

Transcultural Poetics Yifeng Sun, Dechao Li, 2023-02-09 This book examines many facets of transcultural poetics in the English translation of Chinese literature from

12 different expert contributors Translating Chinese literature into English is a special challenge There is a pressing need to overcome a slew of obstacles to the understanding and appreciation of Chinese literary works by readers in the English speaking world Hitherto only intermittent attempts have been made to theorize and explore the exact role of the translator as a cultural and aesthetic mediator informed by cross cultural knowledge awareness and sensitivity Given the complexity of literary translation sophisticated poetics of translation in terms of literary value and aesthetic taste needs to be developed and elaborated more fully from a cross cultural perspective It is therefore necessary to examine attempts to reconcile the desire for authentic transmission of Chinese culture with the need for cultural mediation and appropriation in terms of the production and reception of texts subject to the multiplicity of constraints in order to shed new light on the longstanding conundrum of Chinese English literary translation by addressing Chinese literature in the multiple contexts of nationalism cross cultural hybridity literary untranslatability the reception of translation and also world literature The book will be of great interest to students and scholars of translation studies Chinese literature and East Asian studies Love and Emotions in Traditional Chinese Literature Halvor Eifring, 2021-09-13 Do all cultures and historical periods have a concept corresponding to the English word emotion This collection of essays is concerned with the closest candidate within the Chinese language namely the term q ng What is the meaning of this term in different periods and genres What are the types of discourse in which it is typically found This volume contains two essays on the notion of q ng in classical sources two on Chan Buddhist usage and two on fiction and drama from the Ming and Qing dynasties An introductory essay discusses the complex historical development of the term Together the essays may be read as a first step towards a conceptual history of one of the key terms in traditional Chinese culture Xueqin and Xakespeare Judith Forsyth, 2024-03-19 This monograph offers a detailed consideration of the five volume novel written by Cao Xueqin and translated into English as The Story of the Stone when read through William Shakespeare's drama Hamlet Prince of Denmark A Tragedy in Five Acts The book builds on the superlative David Hawkes John Minford English language translation which is inspired by resonances between the English Shakespearean literary heritage and the dynasties old Chinese literary tradition inherited by Cao Xueqin The Introduction sets out the potential for the significant cultural exchange between these two great literary works each an inexhaustible inspiration of artistic and scholarly re interpretation Two chapters bring into consideration two universal literary themes patriarchy filial obedience and family honour and tragic romantic love These chapters are structured so that a key episode in Hamlet provides the initial perspective which is then carried through to an episode in The Story of the Stone which offers points of complementarity in depth interpretation draws on inter textual historical and contemporary contexts referenced from the immense body of scholarly research which has accumulated around these iconic works The third chapter proposes a new reading of the problematic shrew character in the novel Wang Xi feng through tracing the similarities of the structure of the narration of her life and death with a Shakespearean five act tragedy The Open Access version of this book
