Sewell* William Gawan Sewell, 1970 Urban Life in Contemporary China Martin King Whyte, William L. Parish, 1985-11-15 Through interviews with city residents Martin King Whyte and William L Parish provide a unique survey of urban life in the last decade of Mao Zedong s rule They conclude that changes in society produced under communism were truly revolutionary and that in the decade under scrutiny the Chinese avoided ostensibly universal evils of urbanism with considerable success At the same time however they find that this successful effort spawned new and equally serious urban problems bureaucratic rigidity low production and more

Westerners in China Foster Stockwell,2015-10-03 Today the doors of China are opening to foreign investment and trade as never before but the history of contact between China and the West goes back many centuries Goods from China were being traded in Rome long before the birth of Christ transported over the famous silk road that crossed Mongolia and Russia But not until the mid fifteenth century when Marco Polo published his account of his travels did China really capture the European imagination Subsequent centuries saw missionary trips to China by Franciscans and Jesuits a European craze for Chinese silk and porcelain European visits to Tibet the infamous Opium War between Britain and China and further instances of contact commerce and conflict China has shown amazing economic growth since 1949 and today it has set ambitious goals for growth in trade and technology This book traces the history of Western exploration in and trade with China It follows the events outlined above and touches on many other highlights including exploration by the Russian Nikolay Przhevalsky who traveled deep into China and today is largely remembered for the horse he discovered and identified there the travels of nineteenth century women explorers in China American Roy Chapman s discovery of the first fossilized dinosaur eggs in the Gobi Desert and the competition between two American explorers to be the first to capture a live panda Also included are a chronology of Chinese history and a pronunciation guide Broadsheet ,1979 Foreigners in Areas of China Under Communist Jurisdiction Before 1949 Margaret Stanley,1987 This work is a practical research guide to a fascinating group of historical character so those foreigners who visited or lived in Communist controlled areas of China before 1949 Author Margaret Stanley went to Yen'an as a nurse in 1947 at the most dangerous time escaping by way of the hills when the tiny town was occupied by anti communists later in the civil war In this volume she compiles a chronological list of the members of the Yen'an Hui the small circle of individuals who visited areas under Chinese Communist jurisdiction before 1949 Co published with the Center for East Asian Studies Opening Argument of John H. George, Esq., in Behalf of the Petition of the Boston & Lowell Railroad John Hatch George,1873 Library Catalogue: Author catalogue University of London. School of Oriental and African Studies.
