Slow On The Feather Further Autobiography 1938 1959:

Slow on the Feather Wilfrid Blunt, 1986 Norman Haire and the Study of Sex Diana Wyndham, 2012 A star debater at school Norman Haire had always wanted to be an actor Forced to study medicine he followed his other passion saving the world from sexual misery When he arrived in London in 1919 he was a poor Jewish outsider from Australia By 1930 he had a flourishing gynaecology practice in Harley Street a chauffeur driven Rolls Royce and a country house His parties were attended by the medical intellectual and cultural elite As a prominent sexologist and a campaigner for birth control Haire took a leading role in the world's first international conference on birth control in 1922 and organised with Dora Russell the World League for Sexual Reform's highly successful 1929 Congress in London He lectured in America Germany France and Spain and wrote and edited many accessible books on sex education In 1940 Haire returned to Australia where he attracted a loyal following but was also hounded by the security service The ABC Board was censured in parliament for choosing him as the key speaker in a population debate and his weekly advice column in the magazine Woman was strongly opposed by the Catholic Church Peter Coleman called Haire one of Australia's most famous freethinkers and sex reformers This biography pays a tribute to this tenacious humane witty innovative and brave man's contribution to birth control sexology and human rights history

Creating the Arabian Gulf Paul J. Rich, 2009-08-16 Even whether to call the Gulf Arabian or Persian is an unending argument Regardless of its name the Gulf is one of the most politically important regions of the world Despite its constant presence in the headlines the fact that it was part of the British Indian empire for many years has gone unappreciated The long period of British control and the connections with India are in fact necessary in understanding the contemporary Middle East With more than ten years of experience as a government advisor in Saudi Arabia and Qatar Paul Rich draws on previously closed archives to document the actual heritage of the area and dispel the myths Rich shows that the influences of Britain and India are far deeper than commonly acknowledged and that the sheikhs are actually the creation of the British Raj He explains that they owe their thrones to a small group of British political agents the Heaven Born who created the satraps and then proceeded to rule from behind the scenes by a clever use of stagecraft and ritual that was heavily flavored by their experiences at English public schools and in Masonic lodges In its attempt to make sense of the complexity of Arab sheikdoms in the Gulf Creating the Arabian Gulf is an ideal book for students and scholars interested in Middle East studies and international relations

Economists in Discussion S. Frowen, 2004-04-27 This volume contains the correspondence between G L S Shackle and S F Frowen from the time Shackle took up his first post war academic appointment until his death in 1992 The correspondence partly personal and partly professional reveals a vital insight into Shackle both as a man and as an outstanding economist His letters illuminate his thoughts on issues occupying his mind but also show the warmth and tremendous generosity he felt towards his friends The centenary of Shackle's birth in 2003 seems an appropriate time for the publication of his letters
